GOOD WORK FOR CENTRAL KEEPS HIM AT TOP OF SCHOLASTIC LEAGUE FRANK'S

Frank's Good Work Keeps Him in Lead; Cage League Boys Fast Big Meet Will Be Staged the

With 12 more games to be played in the Central Pennsylvania Basketball League within the next three weeks, it is almost a settled fact that Noble Frank will lead the individual scorers this season. He has rolled up 193 points in eight contests, and three of the final games to be played by Central will be on Chestnut street floor.

The only other player who has a chance is Captain Nyquist, of Reading. Three of the Reading games will be at home. Likewise, the only game away, as is the case with Central, will be at Lebanon. So that chances are even for both players. The local center leads in foul goals with 115. In field goals he is just on the rear of Miller, who has 35. The Reading boy is close with 33. Eeck, of Tech, has been creeping up, and will give Miller a chase for the final honors among the guards.

New York, March 5.—The University of Pennsylvania was awarded the forty-second annual champion-state that the took part in several game and third place. The sealed the Instance is Captain Nyquist, of Reading. Three of the Reading games were lost. He is the speciest lad on the White Rose team.

Captain Huston is forging ahead, and has a chance to land third place. Because of his late start, and because of his late start in several games for just one half in several games for just one half in several games for just one half in several games for great the first imperation of the work of the first starts. The Lehigh country agargation should make both York and Steelton travel fast to stave of and Steelton travel fast to stave of the final honors among the great allentown when they visit that city. A prominent EAGER FOR HONORS returned from a professional visit to the front in France says that professional football players are not London, March 5.—In the view of the Marquis of Lansdowne, expressed in a letter to the Daily Telegraph, the recent speech of Chancellor Von Hertling marks a perceptible advance in peace discussions. Lord Lansdowne thinks it all the more remarkable because "the speech may be regarded as a kind of a rejoinder to the depressing announcement recently made—some of us think rather gratuitously—by the Versailles conference."

CENTRAL FACES HARDEST WEEK

Meets Tech Tossers Thursday Night In Games on Chestnut Street Floor

Central is facing her hardest and most important week of the sched-ule. What the Blue and Gray does this week determines the standing this week determines the standing in the league. A victory over Tech on Thursday and one over Lebanon Saturday will greatly improve Central's chances in the pennant race. So far this year's team has made a creditable showing and is in fourth place in the Central Pennaylvanta League. Allentown was the first game played this year and resulted in a victory for Central. Lebanon was Central's next opponent and Central won that game. On January 25 the first game of the season was lost to Steelton at Steelton, on February 8, York defeated. Central in a close game.

Behind closed doors, two scholastic basketball squads are working overtime. There is a reason. On Thursday night Central meets Tech. The victorious team will have something to say in the finish of the scholastic league race.

Taylor-Kennedy bowling stars are setting a pare hard to equal. As a result of games played last week, many changes came in the standing. Bosch, of the Crescents, is now in sixth place. He has been forced from the lead to sixth place by George Hargest. The latter has a total of 4,092 pins. O'Leary, of the Capitals, is second with 4,019. The Keystones lead the league with nine teen games won and eight lost, bowling 17,914 pins.

At the recent dinner given to Hans Wagner by the Stove League in Pitts-burgh, Hughie Jennings, manager of Detroit, paid a high tribute to the old Pirate shortstop. Sald Jennings: O'He has built an unseen monument that will live forever to hold the worship of the boys. The character of Hans Wagner, while his name was in front of the entire nation, was such as to earn only the greatest commendation. For more than twent years Hans occupied the crest, but his true spirit of humility tempered his every act. The tremendous power has influenced in the lives of Young America will never be known, but the truth is being brought near-home in these strenuous days when our manhood is being tested with splendid results."
