

FIRST REHEARSAL FOR GYM BENEFIT

The first rehearsal for the Red Cross benefit entertainment to be given by the gym class of the Y. W. C. A. at Chestnut street hall, March 21, was held last evening under the direction of Miss Marjorie E. Bolles. Mrs. Charles Stroh, who is well known in musical circles, will be in charge of the music for the entire entertainment. Rehearsal for the figure marching to be presented by twelve members of the gym class will be held last evening. They drill in true military style and execute the various commands as promptly as an officer could desire. Popular wartime airs will be used for this march. The bounding ball drill, which includes twelve girls, is one of the most unique stunts ever presented at an amateur entertainment. This evening when all the business girls' classes are assembled the various parts will be assigned. There are about 250 girls in this department and they will all have a part in the entertainment. The "Carnival of Seasons" is the most elaborate feature of the program. All the seasons, winter, spring, summer and autumn, will be represented with their accompanying snowflakes, spring flowers, butterflies, autumn winds, etc. The whole affair is arranged in pantomime and will consist of aesthetic dancing, solos and choruses. The committee in charge held a meeting last evening in the physical director's office to complete arrangements. They are: Miss Bolles, Miss Bertha Turner, president; Miss Margaret Johnson, vice-president; Miss Ruth Stroh, Miss Myrtle Brown, Mrs. Nello Fensler, Miss Helen Loucks, Miss Jack Mayer, Miss Mary McKee, business manager, and Miss Besse Welton, assistant business manager; Miss Joan K. Matter, Miss Dorothy Whit-taker, Miss Faye I. Haverstick and Miss Nellie Ard, high school representatives. Tickets are on sale now and can be secured from any member of the gym department. Mrs. John H. Welles and Miss Caroline Welles, 325 North Front street, are home from Bryn Mawr, where they visited Mrs. B. Barry Cann.

SHARES HONORS WITH HEMPEL

Sara Lemer, Local Violinist, Gets Ovation at Lan-caster Concert

Sara Lemer, violinist, who needs no introduction to the music loving public, will appear at the Orpheum theater in joint recital with Reinald Werrenrath, the distinguished American baritone, Monday evening, March 11. This concert which is being tendered to Miss Lemer as a testimonial in recognition of her fine talent and willingness to give freely of it whenever called on to do so is an event to be looked forward to with pleasure and pride by music lovers, whom no doubt, will turn out in large numbers to hear these artists. Miss Lemer's successful appearance last week in Lancaster with Miss Frieda Hempel, the celebrated soprano of the Metropolitan Opera House, won for her distinction and some splendid criticisms, one critic speaking of her as an "artist of rare ability and deep understanding, her interpretation being painstaking to the uttermost degree and were demonstrations of artistry that were most finished." In every way Miss Lemer proved herself a completely satisfactory associate of so great an artist as Frieda Hempel. The announced coming of Reinald Werrenrath, the American baritone, makes timely reading of a few criticisms he has received at the hands of writers in other cities, and a few lines from the Chicago American say: "Mr. Werrenrath exhibited a combination of qualities which place him easily among the international leader singers of the present era. His singing of several art songs was the finest bit of dramatic song characterization heard in a recital this year."

FILL ENEMY PROPAGANDISTS

FULL OF HOLES, HE SAYS Howard Heinz, state food administrator, in a vigorous statement today, sent out broadcast, voices the sentiment of genuine patriots when he calls for punishment upon all German propagandists who are scattering untruths which are inclined to cause the food regulations to be disregarded. "The only effective way of killing this insidious lying," he says, "is to string up about 10,000 of these propagandists and shoot them full of holes."

What's to be DONE?

WE must all get down to brass tacks in our mode of living. The pace has been too fast. Many of us spend our money even before we make it. That means going into debt, living in debt.

Many expenditures are excessive or premature

Many an article of apparel or household furnishings has been discarded not because it had outlived its usefulness or lost its beauty, but because WE TIRED OF IT and wanted a change, regardless of the WASTE and the EXTRAVAGANCE this entailed.

Dry Cleaning is true economy

It helps to postpone the time for buying new things—because it RENOVATES, BRIGHTENS, CLEANS and RESTORES. Give Dry Cleaning a Chance. Costs but little—saves you a lot of money.

TESTIMONIAL CONCERT Tended to MISS SARA LEMER—ORPHEUM THEATER MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 11, 1918, AT 8.15

Central High Notes

The first in a series of interclass debates will be held late this afternoon in chapel hall at Central High. The Sophomore boys will form the affirmative side against the Juniors who take the negative side. The same question is being used, all the debates, it is: Resolved, That the Present Tendency of the Vocational Training at the Expense of Academy Education in Secondary Schools is a Disadvantage to the Student. The affirmative side will be upheld by Gordon Whinkie, Donald, Earl Wright and Kathleen Winstanley, alternate. On the negative side are John Koch, Carl Stover, Winston Rohn and Lewis Rimer, alternate. The debate is trying for a place on the first team which is to take part in the triangular series between Reading, Altoona and Harrisburg. Each school will have two teams, a negative and affirmative. One will debate at home while the other is at either Reading or Altoona. The judges this afternoon are: Dr. Galen Hain, Mr. McCandless and Douglas Royal.
