

FULL CREW CASE TO BE DECIDED

Commission Fixes a Date For Argument of the Latest Complaints Under Law

The Public Service Commission has fixed March 13 as the date for hearing final argument in the complaints that the Pennsylvania and Reading railway companies were not observing the provisions of the "full crew" law. These complaints were heard some weeks ago, that against the Reading being from the St. Clair district and the cases against the Pennsylvania from the vicinity of Pittsburgh. Argument was postponed after the Government took over the railroads.

Advertisement for Kondon's Catarrhal Jelly, featuring an illustration of a woman holding a child and text describing its benefits for colds and catarrhs.

Advertisement for Scott's Emulsion, featuring an illustration of a man carrying a large fish and text describing its benefits for rheumatism and general health.

Wanted away from the Walker farm, opposite here, several days ago: He wore a fur cap and a corduroy suit. He may have drowned in the Susquehanna river.

Stop That Cold At Once. HILLS CASCARA QUININE. The old family remedy—in tablet form—safe, sure, easy to take.

Miss Alice Fisher, of Churchtown, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wagner, sons, Arthur and Thomas Wagner, of Mechanicsburg, were entertained on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gribble, at Shiremanstown.

Miss Lydia Grubb, of Shiremanstown, spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. John G. Bentz, at Mechanicsburg.

Dr. Stern, of Goldsboro, was at New Cumberland yesterday. Mrs. Charles Mentz, of Second street, New Cumberland, was taken to the Harrisburg Hospital yesterday where she will undergo an operation.

Mrs. Edward Berry, of Shippensburg, is visiting her mother, Mrs. C. H. Smith, in Third street, New Cumberland.

The Dorcas Circle of the Methodist Sunday school met at the home of Miss Elizabeth Wiles, in Third street, Friday evening.

George Beckley, of New Cumberland, who has been employed at Magnolia, Pa., has returned home.

Mrs. E. F. Garver, of Sparrows Point, Md., is visiting friends at New Cumberland.

Evelyn Brubaker, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Brubaker, of Fourth street, New Cumberland, is ill with pneumonia.

The Rev. David S. Martin, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, New Cumberland, officiated at a funeral at York yesterday.

LITERARY SOCIETY OFFICERS. Marysville, Pa., March 6.—New officers have been elected by the Literary Society as follows: President, Harvey Bratton; vice-president, James Bell; treasurer, Pauline Glass; secretary, Jeanette Sellers.

OFFICIALS CONFER ON BRIDGE. New Cumberland, Pa., March 6.—Railway officials and the supervisors of Lower Allen and Fairview townships held a joint meeting here yesterday to confer on the strengthening of the bridge that spans the Yellow Breeches creek connecting York and Cumberland counties. Considerable surveying was done.

BIBLE CLASSES TO MEET. Shiremanstown, Pa., March 6.—The Ladies' Organized Bible Class No. 4 of the Bethel Church of God, will meet next Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. S. L. Bates.

SENIOR CLASS MEETS. Marysville, Pa., March 6.—A meeting of the senior class of the Marysville High school was held at the home of Harry Bratton last evening. Business was discussed, after which refreshments were served to Misses Frances Fortenbaugh, Mary Deckard, Ada Gault, Anna Whitmyer, Adella Smith, Pauline Glass, and Anna Hammacher, also William Keller, John Shearer, James Benfer, Percy White and Harvey Bratton.

APPOINTED DISPATCHER. Lemoyne, Pa., March 6.—Announcement was made at the office of the Valley Railway Company this morning that S. S. Wagner, of Lemoyne, has been appointed dispatcher of the Valley Railway Company to succeed Robert Sweeney, of Lemoyne, who has resigned. Mr. Sweeney was dispatcher for eight years and was compelled to resign on account of ill health. He will remain in the employ of the company. Mr. Wagner has been with the company for eight years.

MRS. GREENAWALT DIES. Lemoyne, Pa., March 6.—Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Margaret, wife of Robert Greenawalt, who died at her home, 238 Herman avenue, yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock from pneumonia, will be held Friday morning. Mrs. Greenawalt was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Smith. She is survived by her husband, Robert, and a three-year-old daughter; her father and mother, two brothers and one sister.

TO MAKE UP LOST TIME. Lemoyne, Pa., March 6.—The Lemoyne School Board last evening discussed ways and means of making up the time lost by the closing down of sessions due to shortage of the coal supply.

PATRIOTIC MASS MEETING. Enola, Pa., March 6.—Another patriotic mass meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Summit street schoolhouse on Friday. H. A. Surface, of Shiremanstown, will be the speaker of the evening. A program by school children will also be given. Mr. Surface was scheduled to speak at the meeting last Friday evening, but on his own suggestion another meeting was called for this week at which time he will talk.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION WORK. Enola, Pa., March 6.—An important meeting of the Alumni Association of the Enola High school, will be held in the Y. M. C. A. building Tuesday evening, March 19. The purpose of the meeting is to decide upon the activities of the association during the commencement exercises of the graduating class of the high school.

WEST SHORE NEWS

403 NAMES IN JUNIOR SOCIETY

Every Teacher and Pupil in Marysville's Schools Joins Red Cross Organization

Marysville, Pa., March 6.—Marysville is proud of the record made by her school children in the drive for membership in the Junior Red Cross Society. With nine different schools in the borough and each one securing the membership of every pupil in the organization, the town certainly can be proud of her future men and women. This town is the first that has been able to report every member of every school enrolled in the junior order.

As a result, each of these schools will have their names inscribed on a roll of honor in the Perry county courthouse at New Bloomfield. There are twelve teachers employed by the Marysville school district and 391 pupils enrolled. The list of memberships in the nine schools totals 403 names.

With an enrollment of over 400 members, the school children of Marysville have raised over $100 to be devoted to Red Cross causes. The teachers and pupils will devote several hours each Friday afternoon working on garments.

State College Expert Talks on Value of Home Gardens

Camp Hill, Pa., March 6.—Professor Robert H. Henschen, of the State College experiment station, spoke last evening in the High school auditorium at a meeting of Camp Hill residents, telling them of the value of the backyard garden for food production.

He explained food products raised in war gardens and used would lower the consumption of food raised in other places and shipped here, with the result that a larger supply would be available for shipment to the allies.

Professor Henschen also told of the work which is being done by the Agricultural Bureau of State College. This branch of the school has charge of the farm bureaus throughout the state. He gave a list of the best vegetables to be raised in backyard gardens and the requirements in raising and caring for the plants. The program for the evening included a number of songs by school children.

OFFICIALS CONFER ON BRIDGE. New Cumberland, Pa., March 6.—Railway officials and the supervisors of Lower Allen and Fairview townships held a joint meeting here yesterday to confer on the strengthening of the bridge that spans the Yellow Breeches creek connecting York and Cumberland counties. Considerable surveying was done.

BIBLE CLASSES TO MEET. Shiremanstown, Pa., March 6.—The Ladies' Organized Bible Class No. 4 of the Bethel Church of God, will meet next Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. S. L. Bates.

SENIOR CLASS MEETS. Marysville, Pa., March 6.—A meeting of the senior class of the Marysville High school was held at the home of Harry Bratton last evening. Business was discussed, after which refreshments were served to Misses Frances Fortenbaugh, Mary Deckard, Ada Gault, Anna Whitmyer, Adella Smith, Pauline Glass, and Anna Hammacher, also William Keller, John Shearer, James Benfer, Percy White and Harvey Bratton.

APPOINTED DISPATCHER. Lemoyne, Pa., March 6.—Announcement was made at the office of the Valley Railway Company this morning that S. S. Wagner, of Lemoyne, has been appointed dispatcher of the Valley Railway Company to succeed Robert Sweeney, of Lemoyne, who has resigned. Mr. Sweeney was dispatcher for eight years and was compelled to resign on account of ill health. He will remain in the employ of the company. Mr. Wagner has been with the company for eight years.

MRS. GREENAWALT DIES. Lemoyne, Pa., March 6.—Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Margaret, wife of Robert Greenawalt, who died at her home, 238 Herman avenue, yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock from pneumonia, will be held Friday morning. Mrs. Greenawalt was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Smith. She is survived by her husband, Robert, and a three-year-old daughter; her father and mother, two brothers and one sister.

TO MAKE UP LOST TIME. Lemoyne, Pa., March 6.—The Lemoyne School Board last evening discussed ways and means of making up the time lost by the closing down of sessions due to shortage of the coal supply.

PATRIOTIC MASS MEETING. Enola, Pa., March 6.—Another patriotic mass meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Summit street schoolhouse on Friday. H. A. Surface, of Shiremanstown, will be the speaker of the evening. A program by school children will also be given. Mr. Surface was scheduled to speak at the meeting last Friday evening, but on his own suggestion another meeting was called for this week at which time he will talk.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION WORK. Enola, Pa., March 6.—An important meeting of the Alumni Association of the Enola High school, will be held in the Y. M. C. A. building Tuesday evening, March 19. The purpose of the meeting is to decide upon the activities of the association during the commencement exercises of the graduating class of the high school.

GIRLS ORGANIZE MILITARY BODY

Young Women of Mechanicsburg Prepare For Training in Maneuvers and Drill

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 6.—That Mechanicsburg is progressive and patriotic was again demonstrated by the formation of a Girls' Military Squadron on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Sr., with Miss Annette Steel in charge of the meeting and the promoter of the organization. The following young women were enrolled as active members: Misses

Annette Steel, Elizabeth Mumper, Vera Siddle, Claribel Geiger, Marjorie Mumper, Janet Eckels, Rachel Shelly, Mary Estelle Thomas, Miriam Zufall, Florence Orris, Anna Schroeder, Doris Wilcox, Virginia Bishop and Martha Anderson. The Harrisburg recruiting station detailed Sergeant Parker of Harrisburg, and Corporal Zimmerman of Mechanicsburg, to take charge of the newly-organized squadron. They were present and gave the first instructions in military tactics to the girls. The squadron was formed for the object of having the members become familiar with the military maneuvers of the government and of them for any duty that might be required of them by the government. The plans of the girls camps at Washington, D. C., are being carried out. An advisory board consists of the following persons: Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Sr., Mrs. R. Byron Schroeder, Mrs. Frank E. Wilcox and Mrs. David Watts.

BOYS TO GET FULL CREDIT. Carlisle, Pa., March 6.—All Carlisle school boys who wish to go on farms after April 1 will be given full credit for the year and graduated if they are members of the senior class. This was decided by the school board. In addition the board sanctioned special entertainments for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross. The date of the annual commencement of the local schools was set for Thursday, June 13.

MRS. SARAH ALBRIGHT DIES. Carlisle, Pa., March 6.—As the result of a sudden stroke of apoplexy, Mrs. Sarah Albright, wife of Nathan Albright, died here early Tuesday morning. A daughter, Mrs. Harry Dowling, of Harrisburg, is among the survivors.

YOUTH STILL MISSING. Marietta, Pa., March 6.—Nothing has been heard of the whereabouts of William Hunt, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt, who Large advertisement for Stetson Hats, featuring the text "The Live Store" and "Always Reliable", an illustration of a man in a Stetson hat, and the name "Doutrichs". It includes promotional text about the variety and quality of hats available.

Large advertisement for THE GLOBE clothing store, featuring the slogan "Food Will Win the War—Don't Waste It." and "You'll Have to Hurry Men To Get Such Suits and Overcoats At Such Easy Prices". It lists various suit and overcoat prices and includes an illustration of a man in a suit.