Rub nerve torture, pain and all misery right out with "St. Jacobs Liniment."

You are to be pitied—but remem-ber that neuralgia torture and pain is the easiest thing in the world to stop. Please don't continue to suffer; it's so needless. Get from your druggist the small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Liniment:" pour a little in your hand and gently rub the "tender nerve" or sore spot, and instantly —yes, immediately—all pain, ache and soreness is gone. "St. Jacob's Liniment" conquers is pain—it fs perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin. Nothing else gives relief so quickly. It never fails to stop neuralgia pain instantly, whether in the face, head or any part of the body. Don't suf-fer!

the watchers saw two airplanes, with the black cross of the enemy on their wings, headed in their direc-tion. The balloon was hauled down so that it might be grounded quick-ly if necessary. 'American gunners were on duty at many places near-by, for the balloon was protected heavily. They stood by their guns, but the enemy planes, sailing across the sky with shrapnel puffs stream-ing out behind them like the tail of a comet, suddenly changed their course and headed for home. The appearance of a squadron of planes, behind the American lines, bearing the insignia of the French on their wings, probably was the cause.

RELIEVED AT ONCE

to Make Several Changes

The Red Cross Executive Commit-tee in regular session Friday night will discuss plans for speeding up the work in an effort to have a larger output of goods. Members of the committee will also talk of plans to create more interest in the work here. The local chapter which has a re-markable record is falling down at little bit on account of the lact of interest. More sewers are needed to assist in making garments, officers declare.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING The school board met in monthly session last night. The vacancy in the board caused by the resignation of Quincy Bent was not filled. A suc-cessor will likely be elected at a spe-cial meeting this month or next month's session. Aside from this nothing but routine business was transacted.
