

Dismissal of Jellico For Best Interest of Cause, Declares Bonar Law

London, Wednesday, March 6.—Whether Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the admiralty, was right or wrong in dismissing Admiral Jellico from the post of First Sea Lord, he had done what he considered best in the interest of the country, Andrew Bonar Law declared in the House of Commons to-day, as spokesman for the government, in reply to criticisms of the first lord's action. He added: "The premier has assured me privately that he had absolutely nothing to do with anything that has appeared in the press regarding Admiral Jellico and that the suggestion was entirely unfounded that any member of the government, either the premier or Sir Eric Geddes, had taken such a despicable course."

FIRE MARSHAL WARNS Shiremanstown, Pa., March 7.—William Stansfield, assistant fire marshal here, has just received a letter from State Fire Marshal Chas. Port, urging the cleaning of alleys and backyards of rubbish and keeping chimneys and stovepipes well cleaned, as there have been three fires here in the course of a short time.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Discoverer Tells Geo. A. Gorgas Not to Call a Cent of Anyone's Money Unless Allergic Completely Banishes All Rheumatic Pains and Twinges.

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

WAS RUN DOWN AND NERVOUS

Had a Poor Appetite—No Ambition

says Margaret Rodgers, 340 High street, Middletown, Pa. I was run down, nervous, had headaches, did not sleep well, felt tired, had no appetite, did not relish my food, had no ambition, seemed worn out. I had felt this way for several months when I was advised to try Sanpan, and it started to help me right away.

Now I feel as well as ever, have a good appetite, sleep well, am not nervous, headaches don't bother me, and am full of life and ambition. Sanpan is being introduced at Keller's Drug Store, 405 Market street, Harrisburg.—Adv.

OBERLIN RECEPTION FOR RETIRING PASTOR

Salem Lutheran Church Congregation Presents Purses of Gold

Rev. D. E. RUPLEY Oberlin, March 7.—On Tuesday evening at Salem Lutheran Church, the retiring pastor, the Rev. D. E. Rupley and family were tendered a farewell reception by the congregation. It was under the auspices of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society and was a large gathering. A fine program was presented and refreshments were served. The pastor, Mrs. Rupley and daughter, Miss Effie Rupley, were presented with purses of gold by T. P. Brehm in behalf of the congregation. The Rev. Mr. Rupley will close his seven years' pastorate here Sunday and move to Philadelphia next Wednesday, where he will take charge of Bethel Lutheran Church in the northern part of the city. He has accomplished a remarkable work for the church here and his departure is regretted not only by the congregation but by a host of friends.

The King's Daughters, the Women's Bible class of the Neidig Memorial United Brethren Church, held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. H. S. Keiffer last Thursday evening, when the following officers were elected for the year: President, Mrs. S. A. Lavanture; secretary, Mrs. T. J. Chambers; assistant secretary, Mrs. Wilson Miller; treasurer, Mrs. William Livingston; librarians, Mrs. Emma McClallister and Mrs. Charles Elkelberger; teacher, Mrs. H. S. Keiffer; assistant teacher, Mrs. Cora Stewart. After the business meeting refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed by all.

The Oberlin, Chamber Hill and Beaver public schools of Swanton township, have attained one hundred per cent. in membership. A district Sunday school convention will be held April 2, afternoon and evening in the United Brethren Church. Speakers who have never been here before will be present and address the sessions. Programs and further notices will be given later.

Middletown School Boy Member of Secret Seven

Paul Elberti

Paul Elberti, the Middletown boy who was shot in the leg Tuesday night during a meeting of the Secret Seven Club, a schoolboy organization, is not seriously injured. The ball went through the fleshy part of the leg. Last night his fellow members called on him and offered their sympathy in a resolution which had previously been adopted. The club also decided to pay all medical expenses. The lad who was shot, was captain of the guard. The rifle has not been recovered nor is it known who did the shooting. The boys are not of the wild west type. Their club-room is fitted up with good wholesome reading and games. The rifle was purchased at a sale a short time ago and was said to be a harmless firearm.

MIDDLETOWN

A. L. Erb Dies at the Keystone Hospital

A. L. Erb, aged 62, died yesterday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock at the Keystone Hospital, at Harrisburg, from complications. Mr. Erb was well known in town and vicinity, having lived on his farm north of town for a number of years. He was taken to the hospital for treatment just two weeks ago and it was thought that he would recover. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mary; three sons, Christ, John and Harry Erb, all residing on the farm north of town.

Early Wednesday morning the citizens of Royalton were without water and the tanks which supply the Pennsylvania Railroad Company locomotives were also found to be dry. The reservoir at Round Top is covered with ice about three inches, and it is thought the outlet was closed up. The town was without water until about 5 o'clock when the trouble was located.

Four hundred bread boxes were shipped from the aviation supply depot to New York on Wednesday afternoon. The regular monthly class meeting of the Sunday school class of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, taught by Professor A. S. Quicke, will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Fasnacht in South Catherine street this evening at 8 o'clock.

At the meeting of the Pastor's Aid Society held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Grudson on Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected: President, Miss Edna Kurtz; vice-president, Miss Clara Beck; secretary, Miss Mary Beachley; treasurer, Miss Kathryn Raymond.

Twenty dollars was realized by the Red Cross Social held by the Woman's Club of town, on Tuesday evening, held at the home of Mrs. S. C. Young, North Union street.

Mrs. Edward Seiders entertained the Sewing Circle at her home, North Union street, yesterday afternoon. Refreshments were served to the members of the circle, Mrs. Neagle, Mrs. Charles Gilbert, Mrs. Elijah McCreary, Mrs. William Winters and Mrs. Willis Smith.

The regular monthly meeting of the Sunday school class of A. S. Quicke, of the St. Peter's Lutheran Church, will meet at the home of Mrs. Paul Fasnacht, South Catherine street, this evening.

John Gingerich, a guard at Hog Island shipyards, is spending several days in Royalton with his wife. John F. Hoke, a sailor in the service of Uncle Sam, and who resided in Middletown before his enlistment, was married to Miss Minnie Updegraff, of Royalton, at the St. Peter's Lutheran parsonage last evening at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Fuller Bergstresser.

Claude McNair, who is a member of Company B, 316th Infantry, and stationed at Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va., has been commissioned as a sergeant. He is a son of Mr. Alvin McNair, corner Union and Emaus streets.

Richard Garver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peck Garver, Emaus street, was brought home from the Harrisburg Hospital, where he had been operated upon last week.

sector with two divisions, while two replacement or reinforcement lines of two divisions each will back them up. The effect is to produce the line of depth necessary for the type of warfare now in progress.

Replacement troops sent from the United States are fed into the war machine in France at the third line. They move forward in regular order as their training progresses and arrive at front line trenches to fill in casualty gaps only when they have been thoroughly seasoned.

30,000 Known As Corps Troops

To fulfill the functions of an army corps it has been found necessary to place under a corps commander, approximately 30,000 men known as corps troops. These comprise artillery units, engineers and all types of service battalions for work on the communication lines of their own corps. A similar organization of about 130,000 men is necessary for each field army of three corps. These field army troops maintain the lines from the advance base of the army back to the sources of supply.

Guns Range Up to 12 Inches Included in the corps troops are many units of heavy artillery equipped with guns ranging up to 10 and 12 inches in caliber both before fixed emplacement and for mobile artillery. This comprises the artillery reserve of the corps. The great general artillery reserve of the field army is under direct command of the

Raid at Epehy Repulsed, Says London War Office

[By Associated Press]

London, March 7.—A raid attempted by the enemy last night east of Epehy, under cover of a heavy artillery barrage, was repulsed completely, the War Office reports. "Other hostile raiding parties which endeavored to reach our lines south-east of Bois Grenier and east of Poelcapelle equally were unsuccessful.

"The enemy's artillery has been active in the Scarpa valley, west of Lens and east of Ypres and shortly before dawn developed considerable activity in the Neuve Chapelle sector."
