Association Represents Various Churches in Harrisburg and Vicinity

Mechanicsburg, Pa., March 8.—Last evening a pleasant session of the Presbyterian Association of Harrisburg and vicinity was held in the local Presbyterian Church, the Rev. George Fulton, pastor. At the meeting, which is a quarterly event, a business session was held in the late afternoon.

With the Rev. E. E. Curtis, pastor of Westminster Church, Harrisburg, as leader, an open meeting was held in the evening, with a conference on the mid-week service, when he spoke from the minister's viewpoint. Representing the laymen, the speaker was D. B. Alney, of Harrisburg, chairman of the Public Service Commission of the state. J. Henry Spicer had charge of the meeting.

The association, which is composed of the ministers, trustees, elders and deacons from the various churches, includes Harrisburg, Steelton, Middletown, Paxtang, Camp Hill and Mechanicsburg.

Arrangement has been made by the executive committee to hold the next meeting at the Olivet Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg.
