WM. COURTENAY AND THOS A. WISE, IN 'GENERAL POST,' AT THE ORPHEUM TOMORROW

MONDAY EVENING

William Courtenay and Thomas A. Wise, co-stars in "General Pust" will have as their leading woman Cathleen Nesbitt, when they come to the Orpheum to-morrow night. Miss Nesbitt's first appearance on any stags was at Philadelphia with Lady Gregory's Irish players, when their production of "The Play Boy of the Western World" caused such a turmoil. Miss Nesbitt has since appeared as leading woman with John Barrymore in "Justice," and as leading woman for "Arnold Daly."

A Stage "Smart Alec"

"Entertaining Ilars are welcome almost anywhere: burglars who have good manners are received in politic society; the dullest of bores is tolerated by some of his acquaintances, but the 'smart alee' is an outcast."

Vaudeville's latest novelty—an allied bill—will be presented at the Manager of the Majestic's pestic to-day, to-morrow and Wed-allied Bill nesday. Each action, "America First." represents America. This is a big attraction spectacle, in which a company of ten people (all men) take part. The act is an international musical novelty. Representing France are the France art to France are the France art to France are the France at the France are the France at the France art to France are the France at the Japanese Nightingale, will represent Japan. Mr. Sordon Wilde, william Sisto, the Italian comedian, who will represent Italy, completes the bill.

A lot of interest has already been evinced in the return of "Experience" where it is booked for the Orpheum Theater for the entire week of March 18, with the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees. The play, by George V. Hobart, has been known all over the country as "the most wonderful play in America." and it would seem that it had well earned this title, with its phenomenal record of nine, months in New York, and two return engagement since, seven months in Chicago, five months in Boston and five months in Philadelphia. The Messrs. Elliott. Comstock and Gest are bringing to Harrisburg the big New York cast and production; the company numbers about tighty people, and the production is both massive and magnificent.
"Experience" is written after the style of the old-fashioned morality plays of 400 years ago, and tells the story of Youth and his adventures on the Primrose Path. whitehr he has followed Pleasure, having turned his back on Ambition and Opportunity when Pleasure made her first

A critic has said: "Every gril, who has ever honestly worked for a living, every girl who has ever labored ungo to Shows der the mistaken in pression that she suffers a loss in social standing in her community through the necessity of seeking employment, every woman, young or old, rich or poor, who believes herself lacking in prestige in the eyes of her more fortunate sisters, should not fail to witness the performance of the newest play, 'One Girl's Experience,' at the Orpheum next Friday and Saturday, with daily matiness."

Eugene Kirby's dramatization of a working girl's life in New, York City is the truest picture of every-day facts that has been offered the public in nearly half a century, It is clean, it is wholesome, it is truth. It will bring tears and laughter alternately. It is said to stand out in the memory of the public as one of the most enjoyable plays offered in a generation.

Geo. Von L. Meyer Dies,

Former Head of Navy Boston, March 11. — George von L. Meyer, formerly ambassador to Italy and Russia and later postmaster general and secretary of the navy, died in his home here Saturday night, after an illness of several weeks. Death was caused by tumor of the liver. He was 59 years old.

Although he never figured conspicuously in practical politics and was never a seeker of elective office, Mr. Meyer long held a prominent place in the councils of the Republican party in Massachusetts, and at one time, during the most active period of his career, he was looked upon as a leader of national prominence.

As secretary of the navy, Mr. Meyer was a strong advocate of the plan to add two battleships a year to the United States naval forces, and spoke bitterly of the Democratic opposition to his program as "a backward step," He brought about many important reforms in the administration of the Navy Department. The Detective Play of the Generation

BAYARD VEILLER,

"Over There" is the title of the patriotic photodrama which will be shown at the Colonial and to-morrow. It is enacted by an all-star cast of screen favorites, including Charles Richman and Anna Q. Nilsson, and is full of stirring incidents and thrills. As the title indicates, the picture deals with the great world-struggle "over there," and the public is given a chance to see just how things are on the other side of the waters. The theme is dealt with in a big way, and not only creates a great deal of interest, but affords splendid entertainment as well.
