

SKELETON LOANED FOR FIRST AID

Need For Instruction Shown by Men in Class One of Draft

CHARLEY HELPS!
Charley is here! He will help the first aid class to learn more about anatomy! Charley is a life-sized skeleton, loaned by the Central High School to the Y. M. C. A. First Aid Class for the study of anatomy, and he will be used for the first time this evening!

First aid classes at the Central Y. M. C. A. will meet this evening, with Charley, the Central High School skeleton. A study of anatomy will be given, with Charley as co-instructor with Dr. C. R. Phillips. The class is for men in Class A-1 of the selective draft. It is being held under the joint auspices of the Harrisburg Chapter, American Red Cross and the Central Y. M. C. A. Dr. Harry Toulmin, chief medical examiner of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company, has just been appointed as division director at Philadelphia, of the newly-established Bureau of First Aid. In his first official communication to the local chapter, Dr. Toulmin says: "The necessity for these first aid courses is becoming daily more apparent. They present a wide field for a very important chapter activity and your department of First Aid should receive your active and hearty co-operation. Comprehensive plans have been formulated at National headquarters relating to the instruction of the drafted and enlisted men along the lines of elementary sanitation, first aid, and the use of the skeleton."

Resinol healed that skin trouble

When you think what a source of annoyance and suffering that eczema has been to me in the past three years, do you wonder I am thankful that the doctor prescribed Resinol? The very first time I used it, the itching stopped for good, and the eruption began to disappear. Resinol Soap should usually be used with Resinol Ointment to prepare the skin to receive the Resinol medication. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are sold by all druggists. Resinol Soap helps to clear poor complexion.

announcement of which will be made later."
This suggestion of Dr. Toulmin's coincides with the activities of the local Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. which several weeks ago, opened a first aid class for the drafted men. This class is now well under way. Dr. B. Franklin Royer is head of the First Aid committee, men's division. Dr. C. R. Phillips is instructor of the class, and C. W. Miller, physical director of the Central Y. M. C. A. is the other member of the committee in charge.
For this week this class meets this evening and Friday evening. Practical demonstrations with charts, manikins, the skeleton and motion pictures, are helping to bring to the men, a full knowledge of elementary first aid work. A First Aid certificate will be given to all men who complete the course satisfactorily.

Members Facing Bitter Contests

According to what has been learned here several of the sitting members of the Legislature in this part of the state are going to have hot fights for re-nomination. An organized campaign is being started against James H. Maurer in Reading and in Cumberland Barner and Burnett, the Democratic members, are likely to have a fight. There is already a fight on against Benchoff in Franklin and one against Corbin in Mifflin.
At Lebanon yesterday announcement was made by Dr. I. K. Ulrich, Zimmerman, and Attorney L. Saylor of Lebanon, of their candidacies for the Republican nomination for the assembly from Lebanon county. The announcement with respect to Dr. Ulrich was confined to a resume of his activities in support of good roads, agricultural and educational measures during his two-term service and is silent as to his stand on the liquor question. It is expected, however, that both he and Zimmerman will be guided in their conduct by the policy of the Republican Party with respect to the national prohibition dry amendment.

Prohibitionists Send Messages to Congress and the White House

The following telegram was sent by the Prohibition National Convention held last week in Chicago to the President of the United States: "As the President of the Nation we greet you as our President. We pledge our loyalty in every effort to destroy the foes of our country. Among these is Germany's greatest ally, the liquor traffic. We most earnestly urge you to proclaim this prohibition as a war measure. Protect our people by saving foods from destruction in making drink. Protect our tollers from the calumny heaped upon them by so-called labor leaders who falsely declare that they would be disloyal to the Government by striking if prohibition were enacted. Give them and all of us the prohibition the nation is demanding."
The following telegram was also sent to both Houses of Congress: "The Prohibition Party in national convention assembled would first of all declare our loyal Americanism and pledge our loyalty to our President and every branch of the Government in every effort to protect American rights and to make them safe for democracy. But at the same time, democracy should be made safe for the world. To do this the Government must set its face against every evil. In the present conflict with Germany the greatest ally of the Kaiser in our land is the liquor traffic. We demand the immediate killing of this traitor by the enactment of war prohibition for the nation. We assure you that the declaration that organized labor is against prohibition were enacted is a libel upon our tollers, and we brand as traitors those so-called labor leaders who by this threat would take the Government by the throat. We declare it not merely pitiful but disloyal to worse than death to feed the armies at the front. We protest against permitting this to be done while calling upon our children to do without bread and meat and sweets. Do the right and give us nation-wide prohibition at once and call upon our allies to do the same for their lands."

Many Supplies Needed to Keep Regiment in Field

Frank P. Snodgrass has received a letter from George H. Albright, supply sergeant to headquarters company, One Hundred and Twentieth Infantry, Camp Hancock, Ga., in which he gives an interesting account of the supplies necessary to keep a regiment in the field under the new war conditions. He says: "Just a few words to let you know that I am still alive. I keep very busy, more than I ever thought would be in the Army. I have 315 men to look after and horse equipment for twenty-eight horses and eleven mules. This is part of our equipment when we get it. One platoon called Headquarters Platoon, which consists of one band, fifteen men mounted on horses (orderlies), one man on a motorcycle, two men with motorcycles with side cars, one auto, two rolling kitchens, one combat and one ration wagon, one wire cart for barb wire. The next platoon is called Signal with seventy-six men with telephone and all kinds of signal outfits. The third platoon, Sappers and Bombers, with forty-eight men that clean up the trenches and lay mines, etc. The fourth platoon, called Pioneers, they do all kinds of scout work, and about forty-eight men. The fifth platoon, called One Pounders, with three one-pound cannons. They are to destroy the German machine fire, and six trench mortars. This platoon has about thirty-nine men in it. So you can see that I have some job to see that these men are equipped with all clothing and ordnance. About three weeks ago I got in 755 suits of underwear, 300 pairs of hobnail shoes, 283 slickers, 1,100 pairs of stockings, 200 shirts, 300 pairs of gloves, also some overcoats, hats, leggings, hat cords, shoe laces, legging laces, etc. Everybody here goes to some kind of sectional, bayonet, bombing, trench mortar, how to take care of a horse, and most every kind of school. The weather here is great, just like summer. Peach trees are all in blossom and the grass is nice and green. We have a dandy captain, Paul Zeller, from York, Pa., just a young fellow. The men all like him and are willing to work for him. Well, Frank this would be a very interesting place for you to pay a visit. We expect to leave here for France in about three weeks. Not much longer than that. Give my regards to all the fellows at the club."
"Yours truly,
"GEO. H. ALBRIGHT."

WOMAN'S CONDITION CRITICAL
Sarah Woodward, of McCoyville, who was taken off a train in an unconscious condition and removed to the Harrisburg Hospital several days ago, was reported this morning to be in a very serious condition. She is still semi-conscious and doctors seem unable to diagnose her case.

Argentine Foreign Office Denies Luxburg Escape

Buenos Aires, March 13.—Reports were current here yesterday that Count von Luxburg, former German minister to Argentina, had fled. It was said he had been missing for several days from the house in the suburb of Lomas de Zamora, where he was supposed to have been under strict surveillance, and that he passed through Puento del Inca, in the Andes last night on the international train for Chile.
After an investigation with these reports the foreign office said they are untrue and that the count is still here under guard. The foreign office says the reports were due to a mistake as to the identity of the Germans seen on the international train.

Let German Blood Out, Then Sought to Enlist

Newark, N. J., March 13.—"I thought I had a few drops of German blood in my veins, so I pricked my great toe and let them flow out. Now I'm ready to take the oath."
So saying, William Strasburger, an applicant for enlistment in the United States marines corps, removed his shoe and displayed to the astonished gaze of Sergeant Thomas Green a bandaged "little pig that went to market."
"How do you know that the blood you let out was German and not some other kind?" asked Green. "I pricked it at a point farthest from my heart," returned Strasburger, who is American born and pugnaciously anti-Teutonic.

But Strasburger can't be a United States marine. He lacked weight and height.

Fighting to Maintain Free Institutions, Sec. Baker Tells Reporters

Paris, March 13.—Newton D. Baker, the American Secretary of War, met American, English and French newspapermen and gave out the following statement concerning his visit to France:
"Our purpose in visiting France is to confer with General Pershing, to visit the American expeditionary force and inspect its lines of transportation and its storage and supply systems in order that we in America can more effectively support our own Army and the armies of our allies."
"Of course, any visit to France at this time is a pilgrimage to the very shrine of heroism, and it will be an inspiration actually to see the great commanders and the armies which have so long held the frontiers of freedom against all attacks. In America, as in France, we have a civilian Secretary of War and civil power is supreme. That is one of the characteristics of the free institutions which we are fighting to maintain."

New York Legislature Defeats Dry Amendment by a Vote of 84 to 64

Albany, N. Y., March 13.—A proposal to ratify the Federal prohibition amendment this year was defeated in the New York Legislature yesterday when the assembly, by a vote of 84 to 64, and after one of the most spirited debates in years, adopted a substitute which would provide for a referendum this fall on the ratification question.
The Senate has not yet acted upon the proposal, but a committee of that body earlier in the day favorably reported a referendum bill. The referendum proposition now is apparently up to Governor Whitman, as there is little doubt but that it will pass the legislature.
When informed of yesterday's action, the governor made this statement: "I favor the ratification of the Federal amendment. It is clearly impossible for me to say what disposition I should make of a measure before the legislature has acted."

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble, have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Fullen, Carpenter, 2512 Marcellus Avenue, Manassas, N. J. Better cut out this advertisement and to any other who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

OH! THAT AWFUL BACKACHE IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

An unhealthy body, and the unhappiness and misery which follow, may be prevented by ordinary judgment and care. Keep your stomach and bowels in shape and you will have good health. The kidneys' work is to throw off poisonous matters which enter the body. If they perform this work regularly and automatically the other organs will take care of themselves.
Diseased conditions of the bladder or kidneys are indicated by nervousness, sleeplessness, that tired, worn-out feeling, dizziness, nausea, backache, lumbago, rheumatism, pain in the lower abdomen, many so-called "female troubles," severe pain and discomfort when urinating, bloody, cloudy and stringy urine, too frequent or suppressed passages. All these are nature's signals to warn you of diseased kidneys or bladder, which may lead to fatal Bright's disease.
