Philadelphia, March 13.-Shipnents of coal from the anthracite nines of Pennsylvania during Febuary amounted to 5,812,082 long ns, an increase of 635,650 tons or twelve per cent, over the corresponding month of 1917. They exceeded is 25,000 men or nearly fifteen per cent. below normal and adds: "The record made in February is ertainly as much as could be reason ably expected. It could only have been attained through the co-operation of the mine workers, and that this was given without stint is evinced by the fact that full time was made at most of the collieries on Washington's Birthday, a nationa holiday."

Lukens Steel Company, at Coatesville, to-day returned two negroes to that place who were wanted for robbery. The negroes, who were employed at the local steel plant, were arrested late yesterday afternoon by Chief Grove, of the borough police, and Chief John C. Metzheizer, of the steel plant force. According to Chief Jackson the two negroes, with two others, entered a department store in Coatesville, in November, and stole a large amount of clothing. Two of the robbers were arrested at the time of the robbery. CONGREGATIONAL MEETING the Spring season for 1918, although many men who recognize GLOBE supremacy in style and design have already made their selections.

The styles we offer for men and boys are very unusual — these are unusual times - to devise ultra styles consistent with war times has taxed the brains of our designers to the limit—but as usual we offer models extraordinary.

GLOBE STYLES as displayed in our windows NOW, will be the style guide for Harrisburg's best dressed men.
