

CENTRAL HIGH TOSSERS TO TACKLE STEELTON FRIDAY NIGHT ON LOCAL FLOOR

CENTRAL SQUAD SEEKS REVENGE; STEELTON PLAYS

Meet Rivals on Local Floor Friday Night; Regular Men in Lineup

Central's final game with Steelton High will be staged Friday night on Auditorium floor. In the past, these teams are bitter rivals and, no matter what has been done in league games, there promises to be a battle royal.

MARINE TEAM HERE SATURDAY

Giant Tossers to Meet Harrisburg Independents; Stars in the Lineup

One of the best basketball attractions of the season is scheduled for Saturday night. The United States Marine five will play Harrisburg Independents.

Their is not a man on the Marine team who weighs less than 175 pounds and the smallest is 5 feet 10 inches. Their center man, Knostman, from the Kansas Aggies, is 6 feet 3 inches and weighs 210 pounds.

WON OVER CAMDEN

In an exhibition game at Camden last Friday night against Jimmy Brown's team they won by score of 30-22. On Camden's team were 'Doc' Newman, Jimmy Brown, Longstreet, Pike and Graft, all well-known basketball stars.

The Independents will hold several practices as the Marine team has not met with a defeat this season, having won eleven straight games and a victory will put the local record high for the season.

ELECT DONALD McDUGAL TO LEAD ACADEMY TOSSERS

The election for next year's management of the basketball team was held yesterday by the Harrisburg Academy. Donald McDougal was unanimously chosen.

McDougal will begin the arrangement of his next year's schedule as soon as possible. The Academy is choosing its managers a year ahead to make it easier for a good schedule to be gotten.

On the Shimmell court yesterday afternoon the Shimmell grammar school girls defeated the Poose grammar school maidens in a fast volleyball contest by the score of 29 to 14.

WELLY'S CORNER

Dempsey wants to fight Fulton at Atlantic City. He would be sure of having lots of sand.

Tech tossers have little to fear in the remaining scholastic league games. This bunch of casters is not of the calibre that gets frightened, even if odds are against them.

Rather humorous to read about baseball players being drafted. That system has been in vogue for many years. There is a difference, however, a player cannot balk on an army draft.

Some newspapers have been printing a picture showing Jess Willard, his wife, and the champion's manager. The wife is seated on a spotted horse. The latter is a beauty and was formerly owned by J. D. Brown, a local horseman.
