The waiter did so and the manager came.

"You advertise this hotel as being equipped with all modern conveniences." said the guest.

"We do," replied the manager, "and I believe you will find that we live up to our promises."

"Very well, Please put a Maximsellencer on your orchestra."

Harrisburg in the past has had some of the world's finest music. The Pales-trina choir, the Choral Society and others are extinct and now we are moving downward to the A. B. C.'s of music—community singing. Apparently we are going to start all over again.

It seems there will be only four powers left after the war—water, gasoline, steam and electric.—Musical Courier.

Miss Howler: "Did my voice fill the drawing room?"

"Your brother has the earache."

"It serves him right," answered the small boy's sister. "Teacher has told him time and again he ought not to play the piano by ear."—Washington Star.

Why don't some of the futurists set the Russian revolution to music? Here is an unlimited source of useful material admirably suited to the futurist idea of dissonance and discomfort.

And so, if Harrisburg is going to begin all over, musically, let us begin all over, musically, let us begin at once. The new patriotic songs would be good material to begin with.

Community singing will not live to a ripe, old age, so let's get acquainted with it while it is young.

BETHLEHEM LOTHERAN Morning—Prelude, "Saviour of the World," Goss; Contraito Solo, "The Contract Solo; "Goss; Contraito Solo, "The L. Hertzler; Offertory, Wins. # With Choir and Organist

One of the best of Dudley Buck's shorter anthems is "O Thou Affilted," to be sung by the Market Square Presbyterian choir to-morrow. The singing of this number recalls an incident that occurred when the late Dr. George S. Chambers and the Rev. Dr. George E.

The profound Mendelssohn setting of Elijah's despairing cry, "It Is Enough," sung by George Sutton at the organ recital at St. Stephen's church this afternoon was made notable at Chestnut Street Hall a number of years ago by Max Heinrich in his day one of the most dramatic of baritones. It is the aspiration of the majority of baritones to sing this wonderful music.

SANG TWO SOLOS

Mrs. Lee S. Izer, formerly Miss
Catharine Heicher, soprano; sang two solos, "Jean" and "I Know," by Spross, at the big meeting of the National War Aid Society Tuesday evening, addressed by Mrs. Anna
Scott, food expert of Philadelphia.
Mrs. James G. Sanders led the chorus singing, which went right heartily.
