In order to assure school children that in consulting their Webster they are not following the lead of a false shepherd, police supplement the above statement with the explana-tion that the arrested Daniel is no relation to the great patriot states-man, but a negro who made himself obstreperous last night, following the imbiding of too much whisky He received a hearing this after-noon.

NAVY BALLOON FALLS NAVY BALLOON FALLS Corporal R. R. Owen, sergeant at the recruiting station at Blairsville, Indiana county, wired Lieutenant Lesher to-day at the local station that a large observation balloon fell in Indiana county, and was salvaged by him. The balloon is the property of the United States Navy, manu-factured by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company. It had left Akron, Ohio, on its trial flight and descend-ed at Blairsville. The pilot escaped uninjured. A man from Ohio was to come to take charge of the balloon yesterday.

Harrisburg employes who, own cot-tages will work gardens between Marysville and Newport. 'At least a dozen plots have already been as-signed. Application must be made to A. A. McClellan, chief engineer, at Altoona. Though it is still very early in the season and the official notice that the ploits this year was only posted night before last, Mr. McClellan an-rounced that already two-thirds of those who cultivated plots last year have applied again and there are enough new applications in to make up the other third. With the advent of real spring weather and the spreading abroad of the notice, coupled with the fact that the war gardening movement is an even more vital necessity this year than last. Pennsy officials expect that hundreds of applications for plots will come rolling in for the next few weeks until the total num-ber may be two or three times as large as last year. All applications, on the Middle division, should be made to the office of Mr. McClellan. Big Success Last Year "Though only an experiment," said prenkle, Dieni.
