

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS OF INTENSE INTEREST

NINTH BIRTHDAY OF LITTLE GIRL

Party For Helen Coloviras This Afternoon Attended by Twelve Small Folks

Mrs. George J. Coloviras of Camp Hill, merrily entertained this afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock in celebration of the ninth birthday of her daughter, Helen. The house was attractively decorated in spring flowers, carrying out a color scheme of yellow, with a centerpiece of daffodils for the table. Each guest received a pretty little favor suggestive of the Easter season. Those present were the Misses Virginia Koons, Mary Church, Virginia Doehne, Edna Eggert, Marian Millhouse, Dorothy Johnson, Barbara Plank, Helen Coloviras, Elizabeth Coloviras, Caroline and Mary Coloviras, George Coloviras, Jr. Assistant Mrs. Coloviras in entertaining were Mrs. J. A. Plank, Mrs. W. E. Gastrock and E. R. Gastrock.

Spend Happy Evening in Games and Dancing

An enjoyable party was given by Miss Ethel Alma Bayless at the home of her parents, 258 North street, Thursday evening. A number of her friends gathered to celebrate her 16th birthday, bringing her many gifts. The evening was pleasantly spent in music, games and dancing. The rooms were lighted in red, white and blue. Refreshments were served to Miss A. Margaret Moeslein, Miss Phyllis Ritchey, Miss Marion B. Peshner, Miss Grace Kinnard, Miss Dorothy Moeslein, Miss Margaret Catherine McGinley, Miss Leah Adams, Miss Mollie Sax, Miss Kathleen Liddick, Miss Hilda Williams, Miss Genevieve Bayless, Miss Joan Pugh, Miss Marjorie Crist, Miss Ethel Bayless, Walter Fairman, Robert Wallower, John Huston, Jack Smith, Lorne C. Bayless, Edward A. Freedman, Emanuel Brown, Alexander Sax, Karl Moeslein, Charles Crist, Edward Watson, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Simmers, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn B. Conwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bayless.

WILLIAM FARNSWORTH III. William G. Farnsworth, of New York City, a former Harrisburger, now with the United States Aviation Corps at San Antonio, Texas, where he was recently transferred from Camp Hancock, in the hospital there with scarlet fever. His mother was summoned and is with him.

PHILADELPHIA VISITORS Dr. and Mrs. Henry Carl Schock, 2648 First street, Philadelphia, visited Harrisburg and were the guests of the doctor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver D. Schock, 56 North Third street, this city. While here the birthday anniversary of the doctor's mother was celebrated.

YOUNG COUPLE TO LIVE IN ATLANTA

MR. AND MRS. ROY M. FELKER

Turks and Tartars Play Their Championship Game

The Turks and Tartar teams of the Seiler school played the second of their championship games yesterday afternoon in Cathedral Hall, which resulted in a victory for the Tartars by a score of 16-12. The first of the games was played last Friday which was also won by the Tartars. Yesterday's victory established the championship for the Tartars.

The star tossers in yesterday's play were Miss Elizabeth Harris, Miss Eliza Bailey, Miss Alice Lesure and Miss Mary Louise Hubley. To-day at Cathedral Hall the alumnae of the Seiler school played the varsity team. The game was called at 2:30 o'clock with Miss Frances Acuff, athletic adviser of the school as referee.

The alumnae team included Miss Gertrude Olmsted, Miss Jane Hickok, Miss Kate Darlington, Miss Mary Kunkel, center; Miss Elizabeth Brandt. The varsity team members were: Miss Florence Cocklin, Miss Eliza Bailey, Miss Lydia Kunkel, center; Miss Alice Lesure, and Miss Annette Alger Bailey.

Busy Workers Class Meets With Mrs. Bowers

The Busy Workers class of the Otterbein Sunday school held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Katie Bowers, 1917 Wood street. A social hour followed an interesting business session. Games, music and refreshments were enjoyed by Mrs. Bowers, Mrs. Ruth Stoeck, Mrs. Minnie Warfel, Mrs. Sara Boyd, Mrs. Marie Greene, Mrs. Mary Hunsicker, Mrs. Mae Hoover, Pierce and Donald Hunsicker, Herbert, Marlan and Marie Eowers. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sara Boyd, 214 Granite street.

Plea For Furnishings For Bethesda Mission

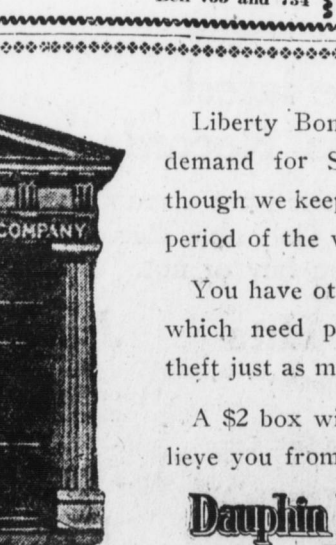

The women of the various churches of Harrisburg who have set their selves to the task of furnishing the new bedrooms in the enlarged quarters of Bethesda Mission are organizing special committees to receive donations of special kinds of furnishings. The heads of these committees met yesterday at the mission to "take account of stock" gathered through the individual donations of the general public. The reports were encouraging and the women sanguine of greater success ahead, some anticipating additional material from their own churches which had scarcely got started in giving. Bureaus are needed more than any other article of furniture, and pillows, blankets and small rugs are much desired. All sorts of washable furnishings have been slow in coming in, from the thin goods, like curtains to the heavier, like scarfs, towels, pillowslips, sheets and bedspreads. It is hoped that willing donors who fail to find these articles available for gifts, will remember that the committee gladly receive money to furnish what is lacking. It is essential in carrying on the growing work of our City Mission that the bedrooms be furnished respectably. This will attract the men and encourage them to lead clean, honest lives.

Family Washings

We are specialists in this line. All our attention is devoted to family washings. Our rough dry washing leaves little to be done at home, as we iron all the flat pieces and starch and dry all the body clothes. One or two hours' ironing and your wash is finished for the week. The price is right.

Sanitary Family Washing Co.

Sixteenth and Walnut THREE PHONES Dial 3723 Bell 733 and 734

Liberty Bonds have caused a great demand for Safe Deposit Boxes, although we keep these bonds free for the period of the war. You have other valuables and papers which need protection from fire and theft just as much as Liberty Bonds. A $2 box will hold them all, and relieve you from worry. Dauphin Deposit Trust Co. Harrisburg, Pa. 1832-1918

WILSON COLLEGE CENTRAL PA. CLUB

Gives Tea For Alumnae, College Folks and Prospective Students, at University

One of the most pleasing of spring-time teas was that given this afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock at the University Club by the members of the Wilson College Club of Central Pennsylvania. The guests which numbered about one hundred and twenty-five included the members of the college at present, all the alumnae, prospective students and many who are thinking of going to college who have not fully decided as yet.

Interesting addresses were given by Dr. Eltheber Warfield, president of Wilson, on "Why Go to College," also by Miss Elizabeth Riddle, of Chambersburg, the president of the Alumnae Association and the Rev. Dr. Lewis S. Mudge, a member of the board of trustees. An informal program with piano selections by Miss Mabel Hensch, instructor of music at the college and vocal numbers by Miss Eva Duke, of Shippensburg, a former student, was enjoyed. Miss Lois Fair, a member of the senior class who was elected to represent the body of students at this meeting, gave a most interesting and impressive little talk on college life and the benefits derived in general by those who go to college.

In the Tea Room The tea room and reception hall were cleverly decorated in silver and blue, the college colors. College pennants and the masses of narcissus blossoms, which were scattered about with blue tulle, gracing the tea tables and cozy nooks of the spacious rooms gave the delightful color to the whole effect.

The club members of the Central Pennsylvania Club are: Mrs. Howard Umwake, president; Miss Eleanor Duncan, vice-president; Mrs. William Bennett, treasurer, and Miss Ruth Baker, secretary. The girls of this city who attend Wilson College arrived home yesterday to spend the spring vacation at their homes here and were among the guests. They include: Miss Lydia Weigle, Miss Maryland Gouley, Miss Lois Fair, Miss Ruth Martin, Miss Martha Fox, Miss Helen Kelley and Miss Alverta Hertler. Among other guests were: Miss Harper Sprong and Miss Ruth Baker.

Miss Morrow Entertains, Honoring Recent Bride

Another of the delightful little social events honoring Miss Clarence E. Lober, a recent bride, formerly Miss Blanche Hatz, of this city, was given by Miss Ella Morrow, of 109 North Third street, at her home. The appointments were of yellow jonquils and pussy willows, making effective decorations. The honor guest was presented with a beautiful silver serving fork.

Mrs. Richard McAllister, also a recent bride, formerly Miss Margaret Welsh, was awarded first prize and Mrs. Harvey Lindemuth, second prize.

In attendance were Miss Dorothy Schmidt, Miss Miriam Burrows, Miss Ruth Deardoff, Miss Margaret Westman, Miss Frieda Stees, Miss Mary Roth, Mrs. Lindemuth, Mrs. McAllister, Mrs. Lober, Miss Helen Smiley, Miss Emma Morrow and Miss Ella Morrow.

ABLE TO BE OUT B. E. Gardner, of 1311 North Sixth street, who has been confined to his bed and injured his hip six weeks ago, is greatly improved and able to be out again after the long confinement to the house.

PURCHASE FLORIDA HOME Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lark, of Millersburg, returned home yesterday from Miami, Florida, where they spent the past three months. Mr. Lark has purchased a winter home at Miami and will hereafter spend the winters there.

YOUNGSTER'S BIRTHDAY Eilly Halfpenny the jolly little son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Halfpenny of 19 North Nineteenth street, is having a birthday party this afternoon with fourteen of his small friends in attendance.

GREET WILLIAM FOX Mrs. William Fox of Sixty second and Cumberland streets arranged a birthday surprise party for her husband last evening. A dozen close friends extended greetings and spent a delightful evening at the Fox home.

Miss Kathryn Kelley, North Second street, is home from Goucher College, Baltimore, Md., for the Easter holidays.

Spends Furlough Here by Visiting Many Friends Mrs. William Fox of Sixty second and Cumberland streets arranged a birthday surprise party for her husband last evening. A dozen close friends extended greetings and spent a delightful evening at the Fox home.

Club Supper Well Attended The usual Friday club supper was speed in the Y. W. C. A. Clubroom to the following guests: Misses Mae Patterson, Ruth Arnold, Edna Kessler, Elizabeth Elliott, Bertha Adams, Jessie Cummings, Esther Gardner, Mary Fry, Iva Maus, Catherine Lerch, Mary Bechtel, Mae Crouse, Ruth Martin, Fanny McLean, Ruth Scholt, Catherine McLaughlin, Mary Kauffman, Mabel Shellshamer, Effie Smith, Eliza Cortez, Ella M. Stitt, Lois G. Scott, Mrs. Paul Bostdorf, Mrs. Anna Kelly, Mrs. Mabel Croniss Jones.

Noon Meetings of Interest Some of the interesting noon meetings this week held at the various industrial centers connected with the Y. W. C. A. included a Lenten story, "The Love Watch," by William Allen Knight, which Miss Ella M. Stitt read to the girls of the New-Hampshire Company; a series of fairy stories told by Miss Lois Scott at the Blough factory, and an inspirational talk by Miss Helen Hawes at the Dauphin Cigar Manufacturing Company.

ROY J. PLANK Private Roy J. Plank, stationed at Camp Sevier, Greenville, South Carolina, spent several days with friends in Harrisburg recently. Plank is a son of Gettysburg and visited his parents there prior to his Harrisburg visit. He has a number of friends here.

WORLEY-WALKER HOME WEDDING

Immediate Families Attend Pretty Ceremony Uniting Popular Young Folks

MRS. SAMUEL J. WORLEY

The marriage of Miss Mabel Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker, 1334 Thomson street, to Samuel J. Worley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Worley, 222 Cumberland street, was a pretty event of last evening, solemnized at the home of the bridegroom, with the Rev. Dr. J. Bradley Markward, pastor of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, officiating in the presence of the immediate families. The attractive little bride wore a costume of blue crepe de chine with hat to harmonize and carried a bouquet of sweetpeas and roses.

After congratulations and a wedding supper, the young couple left for a honeymoon to be spent in Philadelphia, Washington and New York. Returning, they will make their home for the present at 222 Cumberland street. Mr. Worley is connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and both he and his bride have a wide circle of friends.

Miss Elizabeth Mullen Brandt, returned home yesterday from the Misses Shippley's school, Bryn Mawr, where she is a student. The present tendency toward vocational training at the expense of academic education in secondary schools is detrimental to the coming generation. Central will uphold the affirmative side and Altoona the negative. Superintendent F. E. Downes will preside and the judges are Deputy Attorney General Frank M. Hunter, Attorney Arthur W. Hull and Attorney John W. Jacobs. Special music by the girls club under the direction of Prof. Rose will be furnished. The meeting is open to all persons interested. A nominal admission fee will be charged.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Miss Eliza Cortez, secretary of the South American Y. W. C. A. Club, Buenos Aires, who works with Miss Irene Sheppard, general secretary, will speak to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock vesper at the local Y. W. C. A. Club. She is in charge of the Harrisburg Spanish and Bible Clubs. Mrs. Melvin Menges, instructor in Spanish, will preside and Mr. Cameron, president of the club, will be one of the speakers. The Spanish Club will sing "America" in Spanish. A social hour, in charge of Mrs. J. E. Carruthers and Mrs. Blair, will follow.

Miss Cortez gave an interesting talk last evening at open forum of the industrial club. She told about her work in South America and the help the Y. W. C. A. is to the business girls of that country. She has charge of work connected directly with the Latin-American war, while Miss Sheppard superintends the work of the English, French and Swedish departments.

The United States is divided into eleven Y. W. C. A. districts, each supporting a secretary in foreign lands. The East Central field, which includes Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland, supports Miss Sheppard. Miss Cortez asks Pennsylvania to support Miss Sheppard, so that Maryland and Delaware may support another secretary.

In telling about the manners and customs of the girls in South America, Miss Cortez said that, contrary to the usually accepted theories, there are blondes and even brunettes predominant, but the fairer of the species have a good showing. As for the dress of the girls, it is more up-to-date than that of the North American girls; in fact, it is six months in advance. Since seasons "down there" are the reverse of ours, they are now wearing what we call "spring" garments. The girls we will not know until next fall.

Miss Cortez corrected another popular misconception idea that South America is entirely a tropical country. "In Buenos Aires," she said, "one wears furs and has chibblains."

Club Supper Well Attended The usual Friday club supper was speed in the Y. W. C. A. Clubroom to the following guests: Misses Mae Patterson, Ruth Arnold, Edna Kessler, Elizabeth Elliott, Bertha Adams, Jessie Cummings, Esther Gardner, Mary Fry, Iva Maus, Catherine Lerch, Mary Bechtel, Mae Crouse, Ruth Martin, Fanny McLean, Ruth Scholt, Catherine McLaughlin, Mary Kauffman, Mabel Shellshamer, Effie Smith, Eliza Cortez, Ella M. Stitt, Lois G. Scott, Mrs. Paul Bostdorf, Mrs. Anna Kelly, Mrs. Mabel Croniss Jones.

Noon Meetings of Interest Some of the interesting noon meetings this week held at the various industrial centers connected with the Y. W. C. A. included a Lenten story, "The Love Watch," by William Allen Knight, which Miss Ella M. Stitt read to the girls of the New-Hampshire Company; a series of fairy stories told by Miss Lois Scott at the Blough factory, and an inspirational talk by Miss Helen Hawes at the Dauphin Cigar Manufacturing Company.

Ne Cal Jass Orchestra Any Mr. Walter Evans, Tenor soloist, of Sunbury, will play and sing for dancing at Winterdale, Saturday evening, March 23d. Good as the best.—adv.

Ladies' Bible Class With Mrs. Wm. Boldosser

Mrs. William Boldosser made a fine hostess for a meeting of the Ladies' Bible class of St. Matthew's Church, Green and Seneca streets. Guessing contests were enjoyed and refreshments served to Professor Jacobs, the teacher; Mrs. Jacobs, the Rev. E. E. Snyder, Mrs. W. G. Gird, Miss Rose Gitt, Mrs. C. P. Gibbons, Mrs. Keeser, Mrs. A. J. Myers, Mrs. Kinderman, Miss Mary Frye, Mrs. J. Davis, Mrs. Charles Beatty, Mrs. W. G. Stretch, Mrs. C. L. Zimmerman, Mrs. W. H. Boldosser, Mrs. Mehring, Mrs. W. S. Wolf, Mrs. Irvin, Mrs. Curry, Mrs. N. G. Miller, Mrs. Einkenbinder, Miss Volva Cornprobst, Mrs. W. H. Runk, Mrs. E. G. Pike and Ellwood Dyer.

Teachers and Officers Hold Business Meeting

The teachers and officers of the primary department of the Stevens Memorial Sunday school held a business meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. Eeren T. Eves, of 359 Hummel street.

An informal program followed the business including a solo and reading by Miss Vivian Eves; piano duet, Mrs. Wisheart and Mrs. Eves, and a solo by Mrs. McClellan.

A social time with knitting and refreshments were enjoyed by Mrs. McClellan, Mrs. Wisheart, Mrs. Eves, Mrs. Herbine, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Wilder, Mrs. Wain, Mrs. Wain, Mrs. Miss Cooper, Miss Lillian Shoop, Miss Vivian Eves and Mrs. Agie.

Miss Clara Wolf, of 1427 Regina street, is home after a several weeks' stay with friends in Augusta, Ga. Mrs. C. L. Barr and son, Richard, of Philadelphia, are visiting J. A. Rose, at Paxtang.

Central High Notes

The first home debate in the triangular series between Reading, Altoona and Central High schools, will be staged this evening at Central. The question is "Resolved, That the present tendency toward vocational training at the expense of academic education in secondary schools is detrimental to the coming generation. Central will uphold the affirmative side and Altoona the negative. Superintendent F. E. Downes will preside and the judges are Deputy Attorney General Frank M. Hunter, Attorney Arthur W. Hull and Attorney John W. Jacobs. Special music by the girls club under the direction of Prof. Rose will be furnished. The meeting is open to all persons interested. A nominal admission fee will be charged.

IMPORTANT EVENT ON APRIL FIRST SALE PLANNED FOR HOSPITAL

Money Needed to Help Institution Carry on Charitable Work

Time, April 11, 12, 13. Place, Board of Trade Hall. Event, The Rummage Sale. Dates for collecting first three days of week beginning April 8.

Final details have been arranged for the great annual event known as the rummage sale for the benefit of Harrisburg Hospital. This has proved one of the most successful and interesting charities of the city. Last year $4,000 was raised and this year the Woman's Aid Society of the hospital believed that this figure can be passed. The money is badly needed, so be prepared for the collecting motors which will canvas Harrisburg the first three days of the week of April 8.

Yesterday fourteen department heads who will handle the big event were named by the executive committee. The latter includes: Mrs. Marlin E. Olmsted, chairman; Miss Anne McCormick, Miss Mary Heister, Mrs. Herman Astrich, and Mrs. Meade D. Deweller, treasurer. The various departments will be in charge of the following persons: Transportation, Mrs. Frank Payne; decorations, Otto Plack; furniture, Mrs. Mary Robinson; ornaments and pictures, Mrs. John B. McAlister; house furnishings, Mrs. E. Z. Gross; china and glassware, Mrs. Robert H. Irons; draperies, Miss Ellen McCallloch; women's clothing, Mrs. Herman D. Miller; waists and underwear, Mrs. Henry S. Gross; men's clothing, Mrs. Mercer B. Tate; hats, Mrs. Ross A. Hickok; toys and books, Miss Matilda Heister; sporting goods, Miss Julia Stamm; bargains, Mrs. Curzon Fager, Jr.

MRS. ZIMMERMAN HOSTESS AT PLEASANT SURPRISE Mrs. Harry Zimmerman, of 1004 Berryhill street, was hostess at a delightful party at her home last evening in honor of Miss Irene Rouke.

A pleasant evening with music, games and refreshments were enjoyed by the following guests: Miss Katherine Trent, Miss Katherine Kaust, Miss Viola Bronewell, Miss Emma Blosser, Miss Romayne Devlin, Roy Terpin, Harry Gunno, Roy Walters, of the 121st Infantry, William Connor and Roy Shot. George R. Bailey, a student at Annapolis Academy, Annapolis, Md., will return next week to spend the spring vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bailey, of 1517 North Front street.

Advertisement for A. Strick's hats. Features 'Easter Hat Sale This Monday' and 'We Put on Sale an Entire New Shipment of Black Shiny Straw Hats'. Includes prices like $1.66 for Black Colored Milan Hemp Hats and $3.66 for Large Black Genuine Lisere Hats.