ON HIGH SEAS Harrisburg Boy Finds Plenty of Excitement in the U. S. Navy

A recent letter to his parents, Al-derman and Mrs. Edward J. Hilton, from William G. Hilton, tells vividly of his experiences in chasing a sub-marine and of his being storm-toss-ed on theory. Hy will storm-toss-marine and of his being storm-toss-ed on the sea. His visit to several is-lands in company with shipmates was an enjoyable time. "December 31 in company with two shipmates, we started on a 36-hour liberty, go-ing from our ship to His Majesty's dockyard. Bermuda and thence walking to the little town of Somer-set. It was a beautiful stroll. We stopped at a little inn and had lunch and a pleasant chat with a charming on watch again right away. This is what proves what kind of stuff you are. It's experience but it's-costly. The sea would wash over the deck, carrying us from side to side to let go the lifelines would have meant signing your death sentence. It was just so for eighteen days, and I understand it was at this time, we were reported lost atsea. "Finally we arrived at Ponta Del-gada, the Azore Islands, January 24. It was early in the morning, and it was then that I thanked God for His "The inhabitants, Spanish and Portuguese are of a poor and ignor stopped at a little inn and had lunch und a pleasant chat with a charming English girl. We then hired a team und drove from Somerset to the dock und ferried over to Hamilton, where we got shaved and washed, also ate und attended a dance at the Navy Club. It was perfectly enjoyable, ceally a fitting end to a beautiful, 'lear day,' really a fitting end to a beautiful, clear day." Hilton continues, telling about the dance and says that when the clock 1 struck the hour of 12, the lights were suddenly extinguished and then light, while the entire company sang "The Star Spangled Banner." "Those are livable experiences and things" not to be stolen from one's memory thest."

A Seven-Passenger Six That You Can Afford

WEARE NOT THINKING of the price-for that isn't the primary consideration in the selection of a car.

- WHEN WE SAY, "Here is a seven-passenger Six that you can afford," we are thinking of the same item that you, an experienced motorist, are considering-
- NAMELY-UPKEEP. That is the first thing to consider in the selection of an automobile.
- ASK ANY REO SIX OWNER to tell you of the upkeep cost of his Six—and the longer he has owned and the farther he has driven his Reo, the better will his answer sound.
- HE WILL TELL YOU that, having compared notes with friends who own and drive other makes of cars-fours as well as sixes-of the same passenger capacity, he has never found one that compared with his Reo Six in low cost of upkeep.
- AND HE'LL TELL YOU, too, that he has yet to find even a five-passenger car-four or sixthe operation, repairs, replacements and gen-eral upkeep cost of which proved as low as his Reo Six-except one-the five-passenger Reo.
- NATURALLY a five-passenger car ought to be cheaper to maintain than one of seven pas-senger capacity-but most are not, when you look up the figures.
- REO DEALERS TELL US that their records for the past three years show that Reo Six owners on the average have paid less than eight dollars per car per year for replacement parts.
- JUST READ THAT AGAIN-with thousands of Reo Sixes running in all parts of the country, over all kinds of roads and handled by all kinds of skilled and unskilled drivers; most of them owner driven and owner cared for (or neglected)-

The graceful, sturdy lines give a subtle sense of power and ability - which are actually the keynote of Cadillac success.

What an air of utility there is about a Cadillac!

Isn't it advisable to start now with a new car of known and permanent value (like the Cadillac); as your absolute need for such a car may arise at a time when prices and deliveries are not as favorable as they are at the present? The CADILLAC will stand up to the "war strain" even though expert mechanics' service should become unobtainable. "Cadillac means reliability." Let us talk it over and see if the Cadillac is not better suited to your needs than your present car or any other car you might Shall we expect you at the showroom? CRISPEN MOTOR CAR CO. 311-315 S. - THE AVERAGE COST per car, per placement parts was less than eight dollars! FRANKLY WE DON'T believe that rec-
- ord can be equalled by any other seven-passenger car on earth.
- AND WE MAY ADD that the records on the five-passenger Reo show less than seven dollars per car.
- THE SAME QUALITY-the same sound engineering; the same ripe experience; the same attention to little details, and the same con-struction, inspection and testing of every car enter into the making of all Reo models. COST OF UPKEEP is always uppermost in the minds of Reo engineers, when designing and when specifying materials-and since the same desire is uppermost in the minds of the most experienced buyers-we meet on a common ground.

REO EFFICIENCY sets the price lower-Reo quality guarantees low upkeep.
