Martin's brother entered security for his ap-pearance in January, but at that time the defendant could not be found. He told the Court he was on his honeymoon at Atlantic City in January. It developed also in the hearing that his first wife is criti-cally ill and not expected to live.

Washington. March 25.—Mem-bers of the Allided Military Missions said to-day that in the nature of the fighting on the west front the Germans must be losing at least 100,000 men a day. They made this deduction from the Germans plan of massed attack, the number of troops they are employing, and the strength of the allied resistance. The allied losses, it was declared, would be far less than those of the Germans, because they are fighting on the defensive.

Funeral Services at Blain

For Camp Meade Soldier Blain, Pa., March 25.—The body of John M. Motzer, 23 years old, who died at Camp Meade, Md., arrived in this county on Friday evening, ac-companied by an Army officer. Pri-tack of scarlet fever and later con-tracted the mumps and pneumonia, which caused his death. He was a son of Edward Motzer, formerly of Andersonburg. Since the death of his mother he lived with William Fuller at Sandy Hill, from whose home the funeral was held. Burial was made in the Buffalo cemetery at Saville, the Rev. F. H. Dauben-speck, of Ickesburg, officiating. His casket was sealed and draped with leautiful flowers as gifts from his contrades and friends. Several of his prothers and sisters attended the fu-neral.

Every foot of soil fit for garden use should be made to produce food. If you have a yard, large or small, back or front, or if there is a vacant lot near you, it should be conscripted in this fight for food. The more food you grow for yourself during the summer and for canning for winter, the more grain and meat foods you are releasing for those doing your fighting for you. Have a garden-grow vegetables and can them for winter. Remember war and famine are chums-they always travel together-they have traveled together over Europe, thousands of men, women and children have starved to death-will famine visit us? Better preparefill your shelves this summer or you may go hungry next winter.
