The historic Festival of Passover, which coincides somewhat with the beginning of the spring season, will be celebrated in Harrisburg this evening by all Jewish houses of worship. It will continue for seven days on the part of the reformed adherents and for eight days by the Orthodox Jews.

Another name for this annual celebration of freedom is the Festival of Matzo (unleavened bread), because throughout the feast only unleavened bread is to be eaten. The factional fights of Philadelphia and Harrisburg shall not be dragged into every voting precinct in the State, for the rank and file, including the vast body of independent Republicans, will vote against both factions. Habgood is not and will not be the candidate of any faction, clique or leader.
