CONDITIONS IN RUSSIA SHOWN

Letter From Son to Rabbi Chosuk, of Lewistown, Tells of Hardships

Lewistown, Pa., March 27.—A glimpse of how bad matters are in Russia are shown in a letter just received by Rabbi Joshua Chosuk, pastor of the Hebrew congregation here, from his son, Mordechai, living in the city of Ekaterinoslaf, in Southern Russia.

"My Dear Father—I find myself in good health, but filled with worry about you all. Why have I not heard from you? Surely you have not forgotten me altogether. I am in very critical circumstances. I surely do know what hunger is. I hope you will respond to the appeal I am making for help as much as you can."

"It is now in the fourth year since the great butchery broke over the earth like an overturned slaughterhouse. It is now many months since we overthrew the Czar and became free citizens, but we are not very free yet."

FRENCH SOLDIER BRINGS MESSAGE

Says France Has Lost Two Million Men but Will Fight to Last Hour

Carlisle, Pa., March 28.—France is not "bled white," the morale of her armies which hold three-quarters of the entire western front is unshaken, her civilian population has stood bravely to face taxation, privation and suffering, she is ready to stand firm to the last man and the last franc for victory, she will, if necessary be "bled white" to win.

This was the message delivered to a record audience of Carlisle posing yesterday by Lieutenant Vincent de Wierzbicki, special representative of the French high command to the United States.

Get Your Baby Grand--NOW

You want a Baby Grand. Who is there, who loves music, who does not? Then get one of these splendid little masterpieces before they are all gone. Get one of them now, tomorrow, before they are all reserved

Brambach Baby Grand

Never will you have another such exceptional opportunity to procure such a remarkable little Grand Piano for $495.

You may search the country over and you will not find a superior, if indeed you find an equal, at $600. This price of $495, the price you can get the advantage of if you will but hurry, isn't a single dollar more than you will have to give for an upright piano of equal grade—so why not get the Baby Grand?

The payments are made easy. You may make a small cash payment when you select your Grand, and spread the balance out over a 3-year period as best suits you.

You take no chances with the instrument itself. We could not possibly give you more or better protection upon a thousand dollar Grand.

You may have your money back after a 30-days' trial of the instrument in your home if you wish. You may exchange it at full price, at any time within six months, and it is guaranteed without a single reservation for five years.

What more can be said or what more can be given as an evidence of good faith in any article that one is selling? Accept our word for it—do not let to-morrow go by without at least spending 20 minutes in inspecting these beautiful little gems.

The value of these Baby Grands is $600. The introductory price is $495, which price can be divided up into payments to suit the purchaser, covering a period of 3 years.
