

Big Bridge Tournament Benefiting Red Cross

Thirty-five tables have already been engaged for the big Red Cross benefit tournament to be held at the Executive Mansion, April 6. For those who prefer to play some other game than auction bridge, rooms will be provided with games for their accommodation. Reservations for all tables should be made at one through Mrs. James L. Chamberlain, 323 North Front street.

Following the play, the players will be the guests of Governor and Mrs. Martin G. Brumbaugh at a supper. Mrs. Brumbaugh expects a number of guests for the weekend at the Executive Mansion, to participate in the play.

The players will assemble at 7:45 o'clock and the play will begin at 8. Entries may be made in complete tables, fours, double or single entries. "At this time when the present crisis is so great, the Red Cross is the most important medium we have for reaching the boys at the front. It is a patriotic duty to help the boys," said a prominent Red Cross official, urging attendance at the big tournament.

A pretty Easter wedding will be solemnized at 3 o'clock this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rodman, 119 Sylvan Terrace, when their attractive young daughter, Miss Viola Redman, becomes the bride of Frank Alfred Manley.

The livingroom, where the ceremony takes place, will be decorated in a profusion of spring flowers suggestive of the Easterfest, with an arrangement of palms and ferns arranged in altar effect. The Rev. Dr. J. A. Lyter, pastor of the Derry Street United Brethren Church, will officiate, using the ring ceremony.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, has chosen a filmy gown of crepe de chine and Georgette, with headed bodice and oversleeve and broad, plaited skirt. She will carry a shower bouquet of white roses and valley lilies.

Miss Nora M. Redman, a sister of the bride and her only attendant, is wearing a becoming gown of pussy-willow crepe de chine with Georgette trimmings. Her arm bouquet is of sweetheart roses and pale pink sweetpeas. Stanley A. Wengert, a student at the University of Pennsylvania, is to be best man.

COMMUNITY SONG IN GREAT FAVOR

Dr. Downes, Superintendent of City Schools, Says It Will Get Warm Support

Dr. Frederick E. Downes, superintendent of Harrisburg schools, is heartily in favor of the work of the Music Alliance, as espoused by Dr. John C. Freund, the president, who is coming here next week for a three days stay.

During the past four years Dr. Freund has addressed 30,000 school children throughout the country and has been praised and received the hearty support of well-known educators for his helpful suggestions to these pupils along musical lines.

Dr. Downes' helpful suggestions of the great campaign of "music for everyone" headed by Dr. Freund, whom he has seen at a Johnson State Educational Conference a few weeks ago, Dr. Downes said, was a vital and inspiring and was not only very witty and interesting but was also the finest national address of the whole conference.

He is glad especially that the high schools will be heard by Dr. Freund at a meeting designed for them and he hopes that, indirectly, the influence will extend down through all the grade schools of the city to the farthest school.

Andrew S. Patterson, president of the Harrisburg Music Alliance, in a message, has announced that that body will greet Dr. Freund at luncheon next Friday noon, April 5.

Rolling War Song Bought by N. Y. Publisher Announcement was made to-day by Allen Sangree, a local newspaperman on the editorial staff of the Harrisburg Telegraph, that his song, "Your Old Uncle Sam," has been purchased by the Joe Morris Music Company.

The company has publishing offices in a number of the largest cities of the country. Sangree's song has a martial ring and a catchy melody, which appeals to young and old. It is the melody of "The Old Grey Mare."

He tells of writing the song while working in a local newspaper. It was sung immediately by the Eighth Regiment and proved a huge success. Other organizations took it up and it was later sung by the local D. A. R. and Daughters of the American Revolution.

It is expected that the song will be used in the coming Community Singing Movement organized by clubs and organizations in their local gatherings, times without number.

Recorder Lentz Pleased With What He Saw During Visit to Southern Camps County Recorder James E. Lentz and Mrs. Lentz returned last evening from a Southern trip, during which, in company with Mrs. F. T. Romberger, of Elizabethville, wife of Lieutenant Romberger, of the United States army service, they visited Camp Hancock and Camp Gordon, their way back to Harrisburg.

Recorder Lentz has been very active in all of the war work campaigns conducted in Dauphin county and was particularly interested in the Red Cross Y. M. C. A. and Knights of Columbus activities at the two big army encampments. "I was more than pleased with what I saw," he said to-day. "The rest and recreation places for the men and the hostess houses for visiting friends of soldiers all were crowded and rendering indispensable service. The surgeons were particularly enthusiastic in their praise of the work of the Red Cross nurses at the base hospitals."

"I came back with the impression that all the work we have done and all the money given have been well worth while. Indeed, my impression is that we should do twice as much when we are called upon again, as we will be. The people of Georgia are very much pleased with the Pennsylvania men encamped there. Lieutenant Romberger conducted our party about Camp Gordon and Lieutenant Charles Curtis, of Williamstown, at Camp Hancock, showing us everywhere."
