

TIMELY NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

NEW TRACTION SYSTEM PLANNED

Company Granted Franchise For Trackless Trolley by Dover Borough Council

Dover, Pa., April 4.—Dover Borough Council at its meeting on Tuesday evening renewed the franchise granted a year ago to the corporation that has planned to operate a trackless trolley between this place and New Cumberland.

The conveyance will be on the order of a large motor bus and carry about thirty persons. Its motive power will be received from an overhead trolley wire, just the same as for the ordinary trolley car.

The cars will be operated on a schedule to connect with the electric cars at New Cumberland for Harrisburg, and with the York Railways Company at this place for York.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT TO CHILD

Lewisburg, Pa., April 4.—Violent Pearson, 8-year-old daughter of Clyde Pearson, met with painful accident yesterday. She was running on the pavement in West Third street, when three sticks of stove wood thrown from a wagon struck the child on the head, badly lacerating the scalp.

ORRINE FOR DRINK HABIT

Orrine has been uniformly successful in restoring victims of the "Drink Habit" to sober and useful citizens. If, after a trial, you get no benefit, your money will be refunded. It is a simple home treatment. No sanitarium expense. No loss of time.

Orrine No. 1, secret treatment; No. 2, voluntary treatment. Costs only $1.00 a box. Ask for booklet. Geo. A. Gargas, 16 N. 2nd St.

EDUCATIONAL

School of Commerce and Harrisburg Business College

Troup Building, 15 S. Market St. Bell phone 455; Dial 4393. Bookkeeping, Shortland, Stenotype, Eye-writing, Civil Service.

Feeble Old People

Give them Vinol

The Well-known Cod Liver and Iron Tonic, Without Oil TO MAKE THEM STRONG

Old People who suffer from poor circulation, thin, sluggish, and watery blood, weak digestion and poor appetite, find in this famous cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol, the very elements needed to enrich the blood, rebuild wasting tissues and create strength.

Feeble, Aged Mother Made Strong by Vinol

Pitman, N. J.—"I suffered from a feeble, weak, run-down condition so I could not get around to do my usual light duties, for I am 73 years of age and put hard work. My daughter brought me a bottle of Vinol, and after taking two bottles I have a good appetite, rest well at night and am stronger and better in every way."—Mrs. F. Anderson, Pitman, N. J.

WE WILL RETURN YOUR MONEY if Vinol fails to benefit you.

George A. Gargas, Druggist; Kennedy's Medicine Store, 321 Market St.; C. F. Kramer, Third and Broad Sts.; Kitzmiller's Pharmacy, 1225 Derry St., Harrisburg, and all leading Drug Stores Everywhere.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY

Civic Club to Celebrate Its 20th Anniversary

Carlisle, Pa., April 4.—To observe the twentieth anniversary of its founding, the Carlisle Civic Club, one of the oldest and most active organizations of its kind in the state, is planning for special exercises in connection with their May meeting.

Canvass to Ascertain Sunday School Attendance

Carlisle, Pa., April 4.—Just at the close of the annual county convention which will be held in the United Evangelical Church, beginning on April 18, plans are being made for a house-to-house canvass of every home in Cumberland county in order to determine the exact number of pupils as to Sunday school attendance or non-attendance and preference.

Farm Bureau Demonstration at Mechanicsburg Church

Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 4.—Educational meetings relating to food and clothing in co-operation with the County Farm Bureau will be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church to-day and to-morrow afternoon and evening at 2:30 and 7:30 o'clock.

M. E. Conference Opens at Wayneboro Church

Wayneboro, Pa., April 4.—In the absence of the president of the Harrisburg District, Middle District Pennsylvania Methodist Episcopal Conference, Miss Carrie Purdy, of Mechanicsburg, presided at the opening session of the annual convention of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society in the Methodist Episcopal Church here on Tuesday afternoon.

SMALLPOX AT CHAMBERSBURG

Chambersburg, Pa., April 4.—Tuesday County Health Officer Kline, at Health Officer Robert Walker, found four cases of smallpox here, all in Electric Light avenue. Three of the cases were in the home of James Burns, Mrs. Burns and her sons, Paul and Merle, are ill. John Stevenson, a drayman, is the fourth person suffering from the disease.

FAST FUNERAL SERVICES

Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 4.—Funeral services for D. E. Kast will be held to-morrow evening in the Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. J. Ellis Bell of the Methodist Episcopal Church, assisted by the Rev. George Fulton, of the Presbyterian Church. Private burial will be made in Chestnut Hill Cemetery. The family requests that flowers be omitted.

SERVICE FLAG UNVEILED

Carlisle, Pa., April 4.—With special exercises, attended by a number of visitors from all parts of this section, Carlisle Council, Royal Arcanum, last evening held a war meeting. A feature was the unveiling of a service flag in honor of those members who have entered the government service.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO OPEN

Blain, Pa., April 4.—Two Sunday schools in the country districts of this section which have been organized will open next Sunday. The one at the Church of the Brethren, at Three Springs, which will be held at 10 a. m. and the other is at Manassa Union Church at 3 p. m.

EIGHT IN MEDICAL UNIT

Newport, Pa., April 4.—Eight Perry county boys, constituted the first Perry county medical unit sent several days ago to Columbus barracks, Ohio. Included among the members in this unit were: Gordon Dunkelberger, of New Bloomfield; James G. Keen, of Newport; Herman L. Leiter, of Newport; Herbert L. G. Davis, of Geneva, N. Y.; William L. Soule, of Newport; Harry W. Morris, of Liverpool; Edward K. Freed, of Liverpool, and Oren Egold, of Landisburg.

TOWER SIGNALS IN LIBERTY LOAN

Movable Device on Pole in Gettysburg Square to Tell Progress of Campaign

Gettysburg, Pa., April 4.—The publicly managed of Adams county Third Liberty Loan committee will keep the people informed of the progress being made in the drive each day, and to do this has arranged to have a Liberty Loan tower and flagstaff erected in the public square here. On the sides of the tower will be painted a series of pictures such as is being used to advertise the loan and short sentences urging the people to subscribe.

New Oxford Leads Adams County in Stamp Sales

Gettysburg, Pa., April 4.—As has been the case in every campaign for funds to assist in carrying on the war, the borough of New Oxford is leading in the sale of Thrift Stamps in the county. In this town over $7,000 worth of the Thrift and War Savings Stamps have been sold.

RECEPTION TO PASTOR

Newport, Pa., April 4.—Announcement has been issued of a reception to be tendered to the Rev. Frank T. Bell, new pastor of the Newport Methodist Episcopal Church, to-morrow evening.

Suburban Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kepner have returned to their homes at Harrisburg after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Freeland, and George C. Hench, a student at the Bordentown Military Institute, N. J., visited his grandmother, Mrs. George LeComer, at Harrisburg.

Landis Rice, connected with the United States Engineering Corps at Washington, D. C., returned to his duties after visiting his mother, Mrs. Margaret Rice.

Included among the Camp Meade soldiers who visited in the past several days at their homes here, were Jesse Butz, Jr., and Carl Murriff.

ANNVILLE

Corporal Max F. Lehman, of Camp Meade, Md., visited his parents, Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Lehman, over Sunday.

Miss Violet Kettering, a student at Beechwood school, is spending vacation with her mother, Mrs. Lydia Glick.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Bachman, of Zinn's Mill, spent a day with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Bachman, of East Main street.

Miss Elizabeth Lehman, teacher of the Abington high school, is spending vacation with her parents, Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Lehman.

Misses Nancy and Elizabeth Kreider, students at Walnut Lane school, are spending vacation with their parents, Congressman and Mrs. A. S. Derickson, of Dauphin.

H. B. Derickson, of Dauphin, is spending some time at the home of his son, Prof. S. H. Derickson, of East Main street.

Miss Laura Millard, a friend student at Goucher College, Baltimore, spent a day here as guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Millard.

Miss Evelyn Bowman, kindergarten teacher at Hershey, spent a day as the guest of Prof. J. E. Lehman and family.

David Fink, of the Philadelphia Navy yard, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fink. Lieutenant Clemens Kreider, son of Congressman and Mrs. A. S. Kreider, spent Sunday here the guest of his parents.

Young Railroader Serving as Marine on New Mexico

Charles F. Garmen

CHARLES F. GARMEN

Dauphin, Pa., April 4.—One of the youngest volunteer soldiers from Dauphin is Charles F. ("Sam") Garmen, who is just 19 years old. He is a son of Mrs. Clara Garmen, of Dauphin, and enlisted in the United States Marine Corps, at Paris Island, South Dakota, December 19, 1917. He has received a medal for being an expert rifleman and has recently been assigned to the United States convey ship, the New Mexico, Young Garmen, before he enlisted, was a passenger brakeman on the main line of the Pennsylvania railroad, between Pittsburgh and Altoona.

Gettysburg Soldier Fought With British in Battle

Gettysburg, Pa., April 4.—A letter received by his parents here from Lieutenant Herbert A. Bream verifies that he was actually in the fighting about Cambrai when the American engineers distinguished themselves and advanced with the British. This is the party of engineers which received special mention in the dispatches from the front at the time of the fight, but the men were not permitted to tell about it in their letters until now.

HONOR ROLL OF PUPILS

Liverpool, Pa., April 4.—Honor roll of Liverpool intermediate school for seventh month is as follows: Euelah Dressler, Hazel Wattle, Erna Shetterly, Isabel Barner, Kathryn Lebkicher, Elizabeth Klinger, Ruth Knisely, Mary Kling, Grace Murray, Ray Long, Ray Staley, Charles Murray, Willard Dressler, Theodore Litter and Fern Meyer. R. L. Shumaker is teacher.

HOME FROM LONG TRIP

Anville, Pa., April 4.—Mrs. Elizabeth Henry, of East Main street, returned from an extended trip covering several months, including a visit to her son, Howard Henry, in Chicago, Illinois.

Four New Smallpox Cases Found in York County

Yorktown, Pa., April 4.—Four new cases of smallpox were found in three different families to-day in this section of York county. They are: Viola Rehm, 8-year-old daughter of Bill Rehm; William Fisher, 12-year-old son of George W. Fisher, and Harry C. Powell and his niece, Miriam Powell. The situation in this section is anything but encouraging. It is claimed that the orders of the health authorities are not being lived up to. A large number have also refused to be vaccinated.

DISCHARGED FROM ARMY

Gettysburg, Pa., April 4.—Charles A. Robinson, who has been in the United States Army, assigned to a baking company in the Quartermaster's Department, has been brought back from France and given his discharge on account of ill health.

Liverpool High School Students on Long Hike

Liverpool, Pa., April 4.—Yesterday the boys and girls of Liverpool High School, chaperoned by the principal, the Rev. C. M. Shaeffer, hiked to the "Cold Springs" and "Girty Notch" by way of the state highway. The party included the following: Margaret Helmbocher, Margaret Staley, Myrtle Mengle, Pauline Shuler, Arna Grubb, Julia Albright, Helen Hamilton, Esther Lower, Kathryn Hepler, Edna Knisely, Sarah Kiser, Cecelia Barner, Susan Ritter, Evelyn Grubb, Ida Arnold, Beattie Murray, Viola Coffman, Caroline Zimmerman, Blanche Snyder, Anna K. Thoup, Alice Wert, Hattie Linn, Matilda Harper, Ada Kiser, Clauetta Deckard, Lee Shuler, Charles Keratetter, Harry Deckard, Chester Deckard, Alvin Williamson, Lloyd Long, Leon Long, Herman Grubb, Chester Zink, Harrison Lower, Maurice Deckard, Herbert Lower, George DeHaven, Luther Knisely and Orville Hoffman.

Porch Crowded With People Gives Way at Public Sale

Gettysburg, Pa., April 4.—A porch crowded with men and women awaiting their turn at the dinner table at the sale of James Murphy, near Berghauptan, gave way, throwing the occupants in a mass. Fortunately, there were no serious injuries, cuts and bruises being the extent of the injuries.

ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE

Mount Union, Pa., April 4.—The marriage of William Percy Dunmire, Mount Union, and Miss Ruth Ewing Bortell, of McVeytown, was announced to-day. The couple were married recently in Wellsburg, W. Va., by the Rev. William J. Holmes, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of Wellsburg. Miss Bortell was a frequent visitor in Harrisburg.

Wanamaker's Reliable Delivery Is a By-Word

The Wanamaker Stores depend on reliable motor trucks to deliver to their customers — their delivery radius is tremendous.

More than 150 Autocars are used in the Wanamaker Delivery Service — just recently they placed a large repeat order with the Autocar Company.

Motor trucks are doing more work to-day than ever before — find out about the Autocar in your line of business at the Eureka Wagon Works, 616 North Street, Harrisburg.

"The Autocar Motor Truck" The Autocar Co., Ardmore, Pa. Established 1897

The Hoff Store ECONOMY QUALITY Furniture, Rugs and Carpets Both Phones 4th & Bridge St., New Cumberland

Thrifty and the Home

In this day, when the nations of the world are constantly calling on their people to exercise thrift, it is unpardonable for any one to overlook any chance for economy

Cheapness of price alone does not constitute economy — high quality plays an important part.

At our store you will find true economy—a perfect combination of high quality of design and materials and low prices.

A ride here in the car will prove well worth your while. Take the car at Market Square marked "New Cumberland" and ride across the bridge to Fourth Street, New Cumberland. You are right at our door.

7-piece, American walnut, "William and Mary" period bedroom suite. An exceptional bargain value—under normal present-day prices would cost $150.00. A saving of 16% $129.00

7-piece, "Old Ivory" period bedroom suite The toilet table equipped with triple glass. A large size dresser with 29-inch by 23-inch glass. Our price. A saving of 15% on present-day prices $145.00

Two Attractive Specials

7-piece, American walnut, "William and Mary" period bedroom suite. An exceptional bargain value—under normal present-day prices would cost $150.00. A saving of 16% $129.00

Ah! That's the Spot

Sloan's Liniment goes right to it. Have you a rheumatic ache or a dull throbbing neuralgic pain? You can find a quick and effective relief in Sloan's Liniment. Thousands of homes have had this remedy handy for all external pains because time and time again it has proven the quickest relief.

Sloan's Liniment KILLS PAIN

A Real Cozy Homelike Library or Livingroom

"The Heart of the Home"

3-piece, brown fiber, living-room suite. Upholstered in high-grade leather. Normal price to-day would be $75.00. Our special Price $59 A Saving of 25%

Located as we are, out of the "high-rent district" of Harrisburg, though still within the single-fare zone, our rent and maintenance costs are so much less that we are able to far undersell the city stores for the same high grade of merchandise.

Our stock is as complete and as tasteful, and our delivery facilities as ideal as can be found in this part of the state.

The fact that our entire sales force has a material interest in the business insures more personal and attentive service than can be obtained from a salary-paid sales force.

Before you buy that new furniture, ride over on the trolley and inspect our stock. The ride will be pleasant and profitable to you.

AUTO-VAN DELIVERY SERVICE