Many Pig Clubs Started in Dauphin County

Through the efforts of the Dauphin County Farm Bureau, eight pig clubs have already been organized in this section of the county. Among the leading clubs are the ones in the Lykens Valley, near Millersburg, and Conewago township, at Dedate. Today John Metzger, a farmer from near Millersburg, will go with County Agent Niesley to purchase eight or nine pure-bred pigs to place in their club of over twenty members.

Most of the communities in which pig clubs are started do not have pure-bred livestock, and through the co-operation of the farmers' boys and girls it has been possible to get started a large number of pure-bred pigs throughout the county. This will not only mean increased pork and fat, two things that the Government is badly in need of, but also will encourage the production of better livestock in Dauphin county.

TOM TOOMEY TO LEAVE CAPITOL

Turned in Petition For O'Neil Not All Signed Up; Incompetent, Says Shreiner

Thomas J. Toomey, of this city, a chairman of the Department of Public Grounds and Buildings, was today given notice of his dismissal from state service, to take effect April 15. George A. Shreiner, Superintendent of Public Grounds and Buildings, said that he was dismissed because he was incompetent. Toomey's friends say he turned in an O'Neil petition with less than ten names after being told to circulate it for the Highway Commissioner.

August Huff, a carpenter, of this city, threw up his job for a better one of Government work. He had turned in a scantily-signed petition for O'Neil. Mr. Shreiner said to-day he was going to make more dismissals and weed out incompetents. Capitol Hill rumor is that five men in his department who turned in O'Neil petitions which were not filled as to go. Mr. Shreiner said to-day that state salaries were not attractive to many men who could get better jobs elsewhere.

Ever since the petitions for O'Neil began to appear in Harrisburg, the required number of names Capitol Hill has been looking for men to be dismissed. Whether known Penrose men who did get petitions filled will be "fired," too, no one seems to know.

state to immediately exclude from the curriculum the teaching of German. Mr. Moyer's letter says that the atrocities of the German soldiers will make the German nation hated for all time to come.

Laughlin, of near Garver's Ferry, today asked the Public Service Commission to require either the Pennsylvania railroad or the counties of Westmoreland and Armstrong to abate a dangerous grade crossing close to an approach of the inter-county bridge over the Allegheny at the Ferry. This is one of the few instances in which counties have been brought into such a case.

Four gas companies have filed notices of intention to increase rates and to establish various charges. They are in Waynesboro, Mount Carmel, Girardville and vicinity. An individual furnishing acetylene gas in Meshopop, one of the few such plants in the state, has advanced his rates.
