TO GET FUNDS FOR A GREATER WORK

Mount Pleasant Press to Give Red Cross Entertainment Next Monday

The Red Cross Auxiliary of the Mount Pleasant Press has been doing splendid work in making supplies and an entertainment and parcel post sale at the Press Monday evening, April 8, is expected to pro-evening, April 8, is expected to provide funds for carrying on the work on an enlarged scale during the months to come.

The parcel post sale will be continuous throughout the evening, booths and fair salesladies being stationed at strategic points, where home-made candy and salted peanuts will also be sold. We are not permitted to divulge the exact location of these booths, but they will be "somewhere in the building." The program will be given twice during the evening, at 7.30 and at 8.30 o'clock, in order to accommodate all who have purchased tickets.

A male chorus has recently been organized at the Press, and the men will sing several selections during the evening. It is composed of the following: First tenor, W. E. Rowe, Leon Garman, J. E. Deitch, L. D. Forney; second tenor, H. C. Knouse, Calder Bruner, Ross K. Bergstresser; first bass, F. A. Eyler, R. B. McFarland, Reynolds McDonald; second

Arranges For Stag Smoker

All the committees of the Colonial Country Club have co-operated in arranging for a stag party to be given at the club, Monday, April 15.

The affair will doubtless be one of the most important this season at the club. A special feature will be the Community Singing using the new song sheets, along with various other social stunts.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes R. W. Dowdell, M. W. Allen, D. A. Caley, C. H. Hoffman, and Edward Dewald.
