Handy Clincher Fire Tool

Have you ever stopped on a country road, several miles from the nearest garage, to change a tire and find you had either lost or left your tool at home? Then you realized what an indispensable item of equipment the lowly tire tool is in fitting a clincher tire on a rim. Drivers of the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company tire testing cars have solved pany tire testing cars have solved the problem of supply by trans-forming broken springs into tire

It's a simple process. Here's how a home-made tire tool is made: touch up, with emery cloth, the thin end of a very 'old spring. The old springs are easily converted into tools, because of the thin end usually wearing into a very sharp point, thus necessitating but slight application of the emery cloth.

"A broken spring makes an excellent tire tool for a clincher tire," said one of the Goodrich drivers, "and can be quickly made by anyone at no expense. We have found, in operating our fleets of test cars, that tire tools are misplaced or lost more than any other tool box item. Since our mechanics discovered the "spring tool" we always have an ample supply on hand."

THREE BROTHERS TRAIN IN UNCLE SAM'S ARMY

J. W. LAMBERT

Home for ten days at Lemoyne, Corporal Robert Lambert reports that he and his two brothers, also in service, are so fond of Army life that they are not curious about how long the war will last. The three brothers are Robert and Walter D. Lambert, both stationed with Company D, One Hundred and Twelfth U. S. Infantry, at Camp Hancock. The third brother, Joseph W. Lambert, is a member of Company C., U. S. G., at San Antonio, Texas. "Take it from me," observed Corporal Robert Lambert to his many Lemoyne friends, "Joe, Walter and I like Uncle Sam's service and we're ready to go any minute."

England's King Sees Kaiser's Hopes Doomed With U. S. in the War

A year ago to-day the United States entered into the great war by a declaration of Congress that a state of hostilities existed with Germany. The dawning of the first anniversary of the entry of this country into the war finds General Pershing's veterans in the battle zone.

How many are there, what units have been chosen for the fight and where they will make their first appearance is not known. It is probable, however, that an American Army of some proportions is either actually in the struggle or is held in reserve immediately behind the lines.

Since early in the war the American Navy has been represented in force abroad and American destroyers have done notable work in fighting the submarine menace.

London, April 6.—King George has sent greetings to President Wilson on the occasion of the anniversary of the entry of the United States into the war.

King George's telegram follows:
"The gallant deeds of Americans on land and sea have already indicated to the enemy that his hope is vain. Every day that passes, as American troops pour in ever increasing numbers into France, diminishes the chances of his success.
"The American people may rest assured that the British empire, now tried by nearly four years of war, will cheerfully make yet further sacrifices. The thought that the United States, under your leader-sacrifices. The thought that the United States, under your leadership, are with us heart and soul embodies us in the determination, with God's help, finally to destroy the designs of the enemy and to reestablish on the earth the rule of right and justice.
