Ings nave been directly aimed at their aspirations and standards. The moving spirits in these meetings have been the choir leaders, notably Mrs. Wilbur F. Harris, Professor Al-fred C. Kuschwa and Professor Frank A. McCarrell, to say nothing of the splendid assistance given by Mrs. James G. Sanders, of the Pine Street choir. At the meeting last evening there were in the audience such well-known leaders as Mrs. W. K. Bumbaugh, of Bethehem Lu-theran choir; Mrs. Edwin J. Dece-vee, of Zion Lutheran; George A. Hutman, of Second Reformed; Mrs. Edwin C. Thompson, of Reformed Salem; Walter E. Dietrich, of Stev-ens Memorial; Mrs. Phoebe Turner, of Christ Lutheran. The service given by Professors Kuschwa and McCarrell, all for the love of mu-sic, at once refutes the commercial spirit which not infrequently creeps into the musical atmosphere to pol-lute and belittle.

Kurkenknabe, composer and all around musician. The reference to him by Dr. Freund brought forth applause which was as genuine as it was deserving. Thanks to the genius of this grand old musician, may beautiful hymns have found their way into the hym-nal of almost every church and are a proof of his loyalty to the good and beautiful in the art.

It is thought the new organ, be-ing built at Messiah Lutheran Church, will be ready for use in June. Abner W. Hartman and his singers are very anxious to resume work with the organ. For a number of weeks they have sung with piano accompaniment and have missed the

The vacancy made in Zion Luth-eran Church choir, by the going away of R. H. Shackley, baritone, has not yet been filled permanently. Several applicants have been sing-ing on trial. George Sutton, baritone at Pine Street Presbyterian Church, who has been ill, has recovered and was able to sing in the cantata, "Death and Life," the beautiful Shelly composi-tion, on Sunday evening.

There will be real delight in your home if you have a Columbia Grafonola—no matter whether it be an $18.00 one or a $350.00 one. We have them all—and sell them on convenient terms. The "Leader" outfit we mention here is, however, our best seller and consists of the full cabinet Grafonola shown, in either oak, walnut or mahogany, and 10 double records (20 selections). The "Leader" is an extremely artistic model and has a rich, mellow tone. The three-spring motor's a marvel of accuracy. The cabinet at first glance shows that none but the most skilled craftsmen have had a hand in its design and finish-truly it is an instrument for the finest home. Hear a demonstration in our luxurious sound-proof booths.

"Is he such a fine singer as that?" "No. Auctioneer."

STACCATO NOTES

Why hasn't some composer writ-ten something on the subject of "Spring Fever?" What an oppor-tunity to write a slow, languid move-ment. We are obliged to write this with our left hand as our starboard digits have not fully recovered from a se-vere slap on the wrist received this week.

Composition Teacher to Pupil-"There is one thing about your so-nata, Mr. Scratcher, which reminds me of Beethoven." "Really, Professor, you delight me; and what may that be?" "The rests!"

One of the special features in con-nection with the third Liberty Loan campaign will be a tour of the coun-try of the Great Lakes Naval Train-ing Station Band under Lieutenant John Philip Sousa. Such was the success of this splendid organization under the redoubtable Sousa in the last campaign, that the Treasury De-partment officials made application for its services even before the date of the third issue had been decided.
