MOB LAW AND REMEDY

THE expected has happened. Mob law has been called into use to punish offensive pro-Germans in the United States.

A YEAR OF WAR

TODAY one year ago the United States entered the world war—forced into it by Germany's greed for dominion, the Kaiser's lust for power and the murderous brutality of his war methods.

STICK TO THE JOB

THE TELEGRAPH is in receipt of the following letter from the manager of a large local industry:

Politics in Pennsylvania

By the Ex-Committee

Elections for county superintendents of schools will be held in every county of Pennsylvania, except Philadelphia, next Tuesday and all of the cities, except Philadelphia.

Over twenty per cent. of the nominating petitions presented at the Department of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, for filing this week, were returned for corrections.

TEACHERS' SALARIES

WHETHER or not the school teachers of Harrisburg are entitled to all of the increased pay for which they ask, under the circumstances, is a matter for the School Board to decide on the basis of the financial status of the school district, but certainly they plead a just cause.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Japan is probably afraid that the Russians will retreat across her border.—Atlanta Journal.

Japan and the U. S.

M. TOGO IN THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW

THE attitude of Japan in the Great War has not been hid under a bushel. From the very first our people have not only talked about doing their duty, but they have done it to the best of their ability.

A MAN'S DUTY

The woman who stands beside her man to urge him on to victory over self and over the enemy is heroic in his eyes, and the memory of her courage and sympathy will go with him even unto death.

OUR DAILY LAUGH

HELP THE BLIND. Rabbit—How long have you been blind? Owl—Since sunrise.

MOVE ON. Bug Cop—Hey you bum, keep off this block, or I'll run you in.

AT THE CORN POPPING. "Run for your life, it's an explosion of dynamite!"

JUST LIKE US. Hey, you're a fine carrier pigeon — you haven't mailed that letter yet!

DESPERATE DESMOND. "Be mine, or I will plunge from this lofty precipice into the depths of sea level."

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE

—Jesse C. Greene, West Chester's grand old man, has just celebrated his 104th birthday.

—W. L. Stevenson, chief of the Pottsville fire department, believes in action. When people did not remove traps he ordered, he took them down.

—A. E. Turner, prominent Philadelphia, is home from Hawaii with many interesting stories of life in the islands.

—Prof. H. H. Wells, of the Washington and Jefferson faculty, has been appointed a captain in the army and assigned to chemical work.

—Barley Warburton, commander of Old Battery A, is now a major in the army.

—George L. Omwake, president of Uranium, is out making speeches for the Liberty Loan.

DO YOU KNOW

—That Harrison was one of the high spots when it came to taking Civil War loans?

—Historic Harrisburg, with its big supply camps of the Civil War days, but it was small compared to the mammoth depots now being built.
