RAILROAD RUMBLES

WHY P. R. R. HAS NO CHAIRMAN PENNSY PLANS FOR BIG DRIVE

Only State Residents Are on Board of Directors; Near General Offices. Reasons why the Pennsylvania Railroad has never needed a chairman, and other interesting facts, were told yesterday by the financial editor of the Philadelphia Press.

When the Pennsylvania Railroad was incorporated it was provided in the charter that no person should be eligible to serve as a member of the board of directors unless he was a citizen of the state of Pennsylvania, which granted the charter. Owing to this provision all directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad are within the state of Pennsylvania.

Members of the Atchison board are scattered over five states from Kansas to Massachusetts. The St. Paul board is scattered over three states, while the Union Pacific directors come from five states and those of the Southern Railway from six states.
