Plana for a permanent connection between the Steelen and Harrisburg water supply mains are being consid-ered. Commissioner Samuel F. Hass-ler said to-day. A preliminary study has been made and the estimated cost of the improvement is $6,000. The connection could be used in case of water shtortage at either place.

German artillery fire is increasing. Hunt United States Transports Another drop in the sinking of the Alled merchantmen by German sub-marines is noted in current reports. The British losses of six ships, in-cluding four of more than 1.600 tons tis the next lowest weekly total since by was that of November 11, when one down. Last week's total was thir-teen, including six of the large ton-nage. One italian and two French tis believed in Washington the merchantmen also are reported lost. The is believed in Washington the are turning their attention from-mare to the fact that the Germans are turning their attention from-merchantmen to transports. Depar-tures of American toops for Europa-tis is aid, now are three times great-ter the some attent the Germans against the troopships. It is predicted Harrisburg will be fortunate in seeing "The Boomerang."
