Philadelphia Bakers Say In- Submarine Toll Cut to Second Lowest Level of Whole Intensive Campaign

Philadelphia, April, 11.—Bread is scheduled for another increase in price next week. The increase submarines in the week ending last Sunday reached the next lowest lovel price next week. The increase submarines in the week ending last probably will be from eight to mine cents for the one pound loaf.

Several large bakers announced today that is was a matert of raising the price or going out of business. Two weeks ago they petitioned the food administration for permission increase the price. They were told they must first present evidence that such an increase was warranted.

Aviator Flying For Loan Fails to Reach Detroit

By Associated Press

Mount Clemens, Mich., April 11.— Anxiety was felt to-day for the safety of Lieut. Roullett, aviator at Selfridge field near here, who was to have piloted his airplane yesterday to Detroit to participate in a Liberty, Loan demonstration. He started for Detroit about noon but did not reach there and up to early to-day had failed to return to camp. It is feared he may have been blown out over
