

DEMOCRATS TO HAVE BIG FIGHT

Bonnivell Seems Disposed to Make It Unpleasant For the Slated Candidates

Democratic state organization men were met clear through to-day at the launching of the boom yesterday for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in behalf of Judge Eugene C. Bonnivell, of the Philadelphia Municipal Court, right in the face of the notice that the party leaders had slated Acting Chairman Joseph F. Guffey, but were getting ready to give the Judge a trimming that would be a class in Pennsylvania political history. They declared that the Philadelphia had entirely mistaken the signs of the times in coming out as a candidate on a platform of opposition to the prohibition amendment and that he was due for an awful fall. Unquestionably the whole power of the federal administration and of the Democratic state machine will be thrown against Bonnivell and that without any loss of time.

Bonnivell, who is president of the State Firemen's Association and has been inclined to be a free lance in politics in Philadelphia lately, came out yesterday with a statement in which he said that the issue in this campaign was self-government, paid his respects to Governor Brumbaugh's "exaltation" of executive authority, as he put it, and banged around generally in a good old Democratic primary way.

The Guffey people met the challenge, reaffirmed the declaration of the Pittsburgher for the prohibition amendment and proceeded to arrange for expenses of a strenuous primary campaign, one that would be recalled with relief even by those who remember the battle between McCormick and Ryan in 1914.

Republicans Ready for state nominations got ready to-day for battle. There were few surprises in the filing of papers, the only incidents being the presentation of what some one at the Capitol last night termed "sneaker" petitions to jockey some one out of position on the ballot. "Butch" McDevitt came along with a bid for that honor, which is the breath of life to him by filing a paper for the Democratic nomination for Governor and giving out a typical McDevitt monogram.

The Sproul people filed petitions from every county, but O'Neil, Beideman, Woodward, Houck and Scott filed only about twenty or thirty, holding back the rest as compliments.

The primary campaign is due to start off with a crash next week. This is the last day to withdraw and the managers of the candidates for big and little nominations are tightening their belts and preparing for contests that will have to be mightily well advertised if they are to get much attention from a public absorbed in the war and the success of the Liberty Loan.

Petitions for state-wide nominations were filed as follows: Governor—Robert P. Habgood, Bradford; J. Henry O'Neil, McKeesport; William C. Sproul, Chester; Asa A. Weimer, Lebanon.

Democratic—Eugene C. Bonnivell, Philadelphia; Joseph F. Guffey, Westmoreland; John J. McDevitt, Wilkes-Barre.

Secretary of Internal Affairs—Republican—Fred E. Lewis, Allentown; James Woodward, Ashland; James F. Woodward, McKeesport. Democratic—Asher R. Johnson, Bradford.

Socialist—William Adams, Wilkes-Barre. Prohibition—Thomas H. Hamilton, Harrisburg.

Congress-at-Large—Republican—W. S. Amon, Altoona; Thomas H. Atherton, Westmoreland; William J. Burke, Pittsburgh; Charles M. Clement, Sunbury; Thomas S. Crago, Westmoreland; M. M. Garland, Edgewood; Guy B. Pyle, Wilkes-Barre; M. C. Harner, Natrona; Joseph McLaughlin, Philadelphia; Joseph

FORM SINGING CLUBS IN STATE

Governor Urges That People Act to Show Their Patriotic Spirit Now

People of Pennsylvania were today called upon by Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh in a proclamation to organize marching clubs of singers and to sing as an evidence of patriotic spirit. Governor Brumbaugh in his proclamation refers to the recent visits of John C. Freund, of New York, and others active in the extension of singing to this city and other places in Pennsylvania and commends the work being done.

The proclamation says: "Whereas, when a people is at war it is vital that they be united in spirit. There can be no severance of purpose. We must be spiritually in unison or we cannot nationally survive. There is no more potent power to mould the national will than song. Music is the language of the race universal. It has a meaning that finds interpretation and acceptance in all people. Music is supremely significant in unifying and rendering of music to our people is not enough. They must make music and become themselves the voice of justice, righteousness and victory. This soul-call will best universalize itself if our people sing and march, arousing masses of singing soldiers, will effectively summon all to loyalty and to sacrifice, and

"Whereas, Mr. John C. Freund and many others in this war crisis sense keenly this opportunity and have called upon our people to give effective and practical expression to the spirit of America in song and procession.

"Now, therefore, I, Martin Grove Brumbaugh, governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do call upon the people of this Commonwealth to organize marching clubs of singers. With flag and banner to lead our children and our men and women march the streets of our cities and the paths of our people with songs of the republic and with stately hymns of religious fervor.

"Let all lovers of music meet and plan to do this high service. Let all our people heartily co-operate. Let our municipal officials publicly commend the movement. Let our newspapers urge its importance and let Pennsylvania be first and best in giving marching bands of singers a lofty expression of loyalty to God and to country."

GORGAS ASKING DOCTORS' HELP

Says 15,000 Will Be Needed to Take Care of Army in French Battle Zones

"I wish to call to the attention of the profession at large to the urgent need of additional medical officers. As the war progresses the need for additional officers becomes each day more and more apparent. Although the medical profession of the country has responded as has no other profession, future response must be greater and greater. The department has almost reached the limit of medical officers available for assignment.

"I am, therefore, appealing to you to bring to the attention of the profession at large the necessity for additional volunteers. So far the United States has been involved only in the preparatory phase of this war. We are now about to enter upon the active, or the fighting phase, a phase which will make enormous demands upon the resources of the country. The conservation of these resources, especially that of manpower depends entirely upon an adequate medical service. The morning papers will publish a statement that by the end of the year a million and a half of men will be in France. Fifteen thousand medical officers will be required for that army alone. There are to-day on active duty 15,174 officers of the Medical Reserve Corps.

"Within the next two or three months the second draft will be made, to be followed by other drafts, each of which will require its proportional number of medical officers. There are at this time on the available list of the reserve corps, an insufficient number of officers to meet the demands of this draft.

"I cannot emphasize too strongly the supreme demand for medical officers. Will you give the department your assistance and volunteer as these officers? It is not now a question of a few hundred medical men volunteering for service, but it is a question of the mobilization of the profession that in the large centers of population and at other convenient points as well as at all Army camps and installations, boards of officers have been convened for the purpose of examining candidates for commission in the Medical Reserve Corps of the Army. BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All drugists.
