Former Mayor of Philadelphia Yields to Long Illness of Bright's Disease

Philadelphia, April 12.—Rudolph Blankenburg, elected mayor of this city on the Reform ticket a few years ago in a memorable political battle, died to-day at his home in Germantown, a superb, of Bright's disease. He was seventy-five years old last February.

Because of the vigor with which he fought for cleanliness in politics Mr. Blankenburg earned the sobriquet of "the war horse of reform." Born near Hanover, Germany, he came to this country when he was twenty-two and became intensely American. Since the declaration of war against Germany Mr. Blankenburg had appeared frequently in public in advocacy of everything that America stands for.
