BOLLING, AIR EXPERT, MAY BE A CAPTIVE

Casualty List of 44 Includes Eight Officers Wounded in France

Washington, April 16.—Yesterday's casualty list contained forty-four names divided as follows:
 Killed in action, 1; died of wounds, 3; died cause unknown, 1; died of disease, 7; wounded, severely, 4; wounded, slightly, 27; missing in action, 1.

Colonel R. C. Bolling is reported as captured or missing in yesterday's casualty list. Eight other officers are named. Captain Hyman Green and Lieutenant John Alexander Curran were severely wounded, and Captain Wakeman G. Gribbel and Lieutenants Arthur S. Bugbee, George W. Donnell, Homan Gray, Thomas F. Hale and Reuben A. Moser were slightly wounded.

The Colonel R. C. Bolling named in the casualty list as captured or missing was identified by War Department officials as R. C. Bolling, of New York, assistant general counsel of the United States Steel Corporation, who was commissioned in the signal corps after war was declared.

Colonel Bolling had been interested in aviation for several years, and offered his services to the government in that branch of the Army long before the United States entered the war. He was commissioned a major in the reserve corps and was given charge of the organization of a squadron from New York. Learning the government was having difficulty in obtaining adequate space for a training field, Major Bolling leased one in his own name, paying over a substantial sum.

About a year ago he was ordered to France as the representative there of the aircraft production board. General Pershing later assigned him to other duties, however, and these must have taken him to the front. It was thought most probable at the War Department Colonel Bolling was either shot down or forced to descend in enemy territory while engaged in a flight.

The list of casualties follows:
 Killed in Action—Private Ovilla Case.

Died of Wounds—Corporal Frank Siles, Privates Oscar Blanchette, Joseph L. Richards.
 Died of Disease—Sergeants John Dempsey, pneumonia; John E. Greming, apoplexy; Corporal John E. Clark, tuberculosis; Privates Charles A. Costello, meningitis; Arthur H. Robinson, pneumonia; Henry V. Troutman, pneumonia; Nevil Edward Wheeler, pneumonia.
 Died, Cause Unknown—Corporal Charles J. Buell, Jr.
 Severely Wounded—Captain Hy-

Eat Potatoes; Save the Wheat

Have you ever seen one of those strong, healthy Irishmen who can work all day at fatiguing labor and who is always full of vim and vigor?

Well, most of them are big potato-eaters.
 Try their diet for a week or two. Just now Harrisburg is observing Potato Week, in an effort to conserve the wheat for use of the American soldiers and our European allies.

Patriotic grocers are selling potatoes, in bushel lots, for $1. Citizens who buy in bushel lots and eat largely of potatoes not only are helping the Food Administration in its food-conservation plan, but will also insure another big crop for next winter, for the farmers will not plant many this spring if they fail to dispose of those which a severe winter prevented their marketing.

Baked, boiled, mashed and fried are the ordinary ways of serving potatoes. Some others include: Potato bread, potato biscuit, potato-cornmeal muffins, potato cookies and chocolate potato cake. Try them and see whether wheat is so indispensable as you once supposed.

man Green, Lieutenant John Alexander Curran, Sergeant Hadley M. MacPhetres, Privates Don. E. MacPhetres, Donald U. Hildreth.

Slightly Wounded—Captain Wakeman G. Gribbel, Lieutenants Arthur E. Gribbe, Arthur S. Bugbee, George W. Donnell, Samon Gray, Thomas F. Hale, Reuben A. Moser, Corporals Ernest W. Birch, George D. Oliver, Bugler Clyde L. Jones, Privates George A. Brusso, Joseph Brescia, Thomas F. Crookan, George W. Daybert, William E. Gould, William C. Harshy, Fred A. Huff, Thomas J. Kilty, Frank Lisico, Carl C. Luedeking, Cralton W. Potts, Edward Schmelzer, Wallenty Sculski, Wilfred C. Traube, Frank A. Uffelman, Russell T. Walker, John J. West, Peter Perona.
 Captured or Missing—Colonel R. C. Bolling.

FIVE ON LEHIGH ROLL

Harrisburg looms up prominently in the Lehigh University commencement announcements for this year, with five young men on the graduation list: George Appleton Butterworth, civil engineer; Edward Hamilton Zollinger, mechanical engineer; Morton Joseph Kay, electrometallurgist; Russell Hess Lindsay, electrical engineer, and Andre Edward Buchanan, Jr., chemical engineer. Richard Shampney Alden, '18, is also graduated as an electrometallurgist.

FLAGMAN INDICTED
 Charles Henry Morton, 221 North Sixth street, formerly a passenger flagman on the Pennsylvania Railroad, yesterday was indicted into service as a flagman by local Draft Board No. 1. He was sent to Laurel, Md., where he will be assigned to the 6th engineers, Standard Gauge Railway Operation Regiment.

SIX STATE POLICE SUB-STATIONS GO

Force Will Be Withdrawn in Order to Keep Within Appropriation

Six of the thirty-two sub-stations of the State Police force will be withdrawn in accordance with plans being made at the Department of State Police.

The funds for the department have been expended in work caused by the war and the extensive cooperation with federal authorities which has been going on. The demands for presence of men at meetings, industrial establishments and shipping centers is greater than ever known before.

The men withdrawn from the sub-stations will be held in barracks or sent out on investigations as needed.
Now Granting Leave—State school authorities have begun to grant excuses to pupils in advanced grades in rural schools to warrant them to work on farms, this action being in accord with the resolution of the State Board of Education. In many rural districts one room schools will begin to close soon and the youngsters will work on farms.

Mergers Filed—Papers certifying to the taking over by the Pennsylvania railroad of the Cornwall and Lebanon and Susquehanna, Bloomsburg and Berwick railroads have been filed at the State Department. The Public Service Commission has given assent to the acquisitions.

The Sharon Steel Hoop Co., has filed notice of increase of its common stock to $10,000,000.

Want to Dredge—Subsiding of the Susquehanna and Schuylkill after the spring rains has caused numerous requests for permission to dredge in these streams. Most of the dredgers desire to "mine" coal. The State Water Supply Commission is making inquiries regarding the applications.

Must Better Service—Orders for changes in routing of trolley cars in Pittsburgh so as to afford better service in residential and industrial sections along the Allegheny river known as the Morningside district are contained in a decision issued by the Public Service Commission as the first action following submission of a comprehensive study made of the whole situation by engineers of the commission and experts. In the course of the order accompanying the decision the company designates stops that should be made and says "good practice dictates that the stopping places shall be clearly defined by suitable signs. The stops made on certain routes are about eight per mile. The decision also accepts a proposed tentative schedule for changes in routes by the Pittsburgh Railway Company. The changes ordered are to take effect by June 1, while by October 15 the company is to prepare plans and estimates of cost for the installation of permanent improved facilities at the general transfer station and street crossings.

Petition Goes Out—The nominating petitions for Samuel J. Castles, Scranton, for the Republican nomination for senator in the Lackawanna district, have been withdrawn following filing of affidavits that they had been filed without knowledge that they contain certain defects and that they would not have been entered if they had been known.

State Compensation Board Affirms Decisions
 The State Compensation Board in an opinion by Chairman Mackey has affirmed the decision of Referee Klender of Philadelphia, in the claim of Mary E. Urweiler vs. Philadelphia Rapid Transit Co., in which it is decided that she can not make claim for compensation on the ground that she was a common law wife and that her alleged husband stood in relation of a parent to children by a previous marriage of the claimant. At the same time the father of the deceased made claim for compensation as a dependent parent. The testimony that there was an oral contract of marriage, but the decision says "there has not been established such a reputation of marriage as to satisfy the law and establish a civil contract." The contributions made by the deceased were made to the claimant and not for the children in his life.

In another case, Anna Hober, Cleveland, vs. Belle Vernon Coke Co., compensation award is affirmed although the widow left her husband three months before his death because of his "excessive drinking and personal abuse she suffered incident to such periods of intoxication." The man, however, made money contributions to the support of his wife and son after they left him.

The Board dismissed these appeals: Thompson vs. West Philadelphia; Jeram vs. Pittsburgh Trench, Kittanning; Passmore vs. Famous Co., McKeesport; Olshon vs. West Newton Produce Co., West Newton; Zaslavsky vs. Electric Storage Battery Co., Philadelphia; Graham vs. Wilson & Sons, Philadelphia; Thur vs. Irish & Co., Glen Campbell; Mater vs. Stuart, Pittsburgh; Fowler vs. Churchill Mining Co., West Monterey.

The award is set aside in Sullivan vs. Remington Arms Co., Philadelphia.

Buy That Liberty Bond—Don't Wait

Pay the Price

And you will get "good clothes" you'll not regret it in the long run, for fabrics are being manipulated to "suit the price"—It couldn't otherwise be—You're too intelligent to believe that anyone is so generous these days as to give you "something for nothing"—consider the fact that "cheap clothing" has in most cases more than doubled in the past two years—much more in proportion than standard brands of High-grade clothing, such as

Hart Schaffner & Marx and Kuppenheimer Clothes

The critical situation in the clothing world is uncontrollable—it's due to increased expense in production, cotton materials cost as much as wool fabrics did a few years ago, therefore it's absolutely impossible to get good fabrics at a cheap price, so don't be misled and imagine that under the present existing circumstances your going to buy clothing for less than it's worth.
