Sanders was introduced by Miss Doris Lee Snyder, the regent who presided at the meeting. After urging co-operation with the government in securing the 10,000 war veterans asked for, the speakers gave a wonderfully comprehensive outline of the work of the State Economic Zoologist with its efficient department.

BOND SALES INCREASE ON RECEIPT OF NEWS

The United States of America to the limit of $300,000,000.

"I want to buy a bond," said a railroad engineer at headquarters this morning.

"What denomination?" he was asked.

"Make it $200—no, make it $300," he said. "I don't have all that money, but I figure that I owe it to myself and the country to get in debt to help win this war. I think I can afford to subscribe $300."

This spirit, says Chairman Andrew S. Patterson, is being manifested throughout the city. The $150 bonds are not in so great demand as they were in the first two issues. The "big uns" are being bought.

Treasurer J. M. Delaney this morning reported that the cash so far received at headquarters totals $28,000—representing only a small portion of the bonds bought. That total, incidentally, is close to the $1,250,000 mark this afternoon.

The Harrisburg district—Harrisburg and Dauphin county, Perry, Juniata and Cumberland counties—has the third largest Liberty Bond quota in Pennsylvania. First comes Philadelphia, then Pittsburgh and then this district.

A large subscription reported to-day by the American Radiator Company, which bought $5,000 worth of bonds through the Harrisburg district.

CITY AND COUNTY TO FURNISH 52 IN NEW DRAFT

Selected Men to Be Sent to Columbus Barracks May 1

The three local draft boards will be called on to furnish twenty-five men from Harrisburg, and, including this city, the county of Dauphin must furnish fifty-two, announces the State Draft Board, during the period between May 1 and May 10. The last draft summons call for the mobilization of 49,834 men, of which Pennsylvania's quota numbers 3,776. The three Dauphin county boards must furnish twenty-seven registrants.

Of the twenty-five to be sent from Harrisburg, six will be drawn from Board No. 1, located in the county courthouse; Board No. 2, at McFarland's Printery, will furnish ten, and Board No. 3, in the Commonwealth Trust building, will send nine.

Of counties in this section of the state, upon Lancaster falls the heaviest burden in this draft, for she is called upon for forty-eight men. York is second with thirty, and Dauphin comes third with its twenty-seven. Lebanon county must account for twenty, Cumberland for fifteen, Perry for six, Juniata for four, Mifflin, twelve; Adams, ten; Franklin, sixteen; Montour, four; Snyder, five; Union, five.

All of the boards in this district, which formerly sent men to Camp Meade, will order these drafted registrants to the Columbus barracks, Ohio.
