WEST FAIRVIEW PLANS BIG SHOOT

First of Series of Trap Contests to Take Place Tomorrow Afternoon

Shooters from all over this section are expected to take part in a shoot to take place at West Fairview to-morrow. The event is the first of a large schedule to take place on the 'cross river grounds this season.

Fifty targets will be used in the shoot. There will be two fifteen target events and one twenty target event giving all shooters a chance to win. The money will be divided after each event which is very encouraging to shooters and everyone is given a chance to be paid for his efforts.

Expect Big Entry List

A large number of West Fairview shooters will in all probabilities participate in the shoot as this 'cross river town has many shooters who during the past few seasons have hung up new records. The representative team of five men of the West Fairview organization who last year hung up new records will play a prominent part in the shoot to-morrow. As far as known this morning the Harrisburg men who will participate are: E. H. Shank,

Martin, Shoop, Roberts and Fred Dinger. Shoot on May 30 This is the first shoot of the season and will be preliminary to a big state event to be shot off on Decoration day on the West Fairview field. West Fairview finished second in the county event and promises this year to play a prominent part.

Kiwanis Team Prepares to Meet Rotary Nine

An interesting game of ball is promised for sometime during the summer when the Kiwanis club team will meet the Rotary Club team in an effort to win the championship. A challenge has been issued by the Kiwanis Club and while no official action has yet been taken by the Rotary Club, it is understood generally that the Rotarians will accept the invitation.

The Rotary Club is an association of businessmen of the city, and the Kiwanis Club is a newly-born organization with principles virtually identical with those of the Rotarians. Both clubs are engaged in a friendly rivalry, with but few changes in the determining factor, it is said, showing which club shall be supreme.

Looks Like Certainty For Big Battle in Twin Cities

St. Paul, Minn., April 19.—Selection of the Twin Cities as the scene for holding the contest for the heavyweight boxing championship of the world between Jess Willard, champion, and Fred Fulton, the challenger, Minn., challenger, is contingent upon the raising of a subscription of $10,000 in St. Paul and Minneapolis. This announcement was made last night after a conference between J. C. Miller, who will stage the battle, and local promoters and enthusiasts.

Lemoyne Volley Ball Team Ready For Games

WATER DAMAGE TO FLOUR

It is a well-known fact among sailors that flour will not only float after immersion in sea water, but suffers very little damage, says the North-western Miller, a baker in New South Wales submerged a bag of flour in the ocean and left it in the water sixty-seven hours. A ninety-eight pound weight was necessary to sink a 150-pound bag, which would have supported seventy-five pounds on top of the water. It is estimated, or half its own weight. When lifted and weighed the bag scaled 155 pounds. It was dried for four days and yielded 120 pounds of perfectly dry flour, the bag and waste being twenty-eight pounds, baked into bread, it gave perfect results.

Thurston, the magician, will materialize his next week, Friday the Magician and Saturday, the Magician.

The much-heralded performance of Thurston, the magician, will materialize his next week, Friday the Magician and Saturday, the Magician.

The popular co-stars, Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, will appear at the Colonial Theatre to-morrow in "The Brass Check." It is a play full of mystery and romance, and as usual, the stars are given roles that fit the personalities to a "T."

To-morrow—unrivaled Edith Storey will be presented in a screen version of the Broadway success, "The Claim." The play is full of action and suspense and is certain to afford endless entertainment. A big feature of the picture is the wonderful outdoor scenery that is shown.

The comedy hit of the Majestic's new vaudeville show that opened at the Majestic yesterday is "The Joe Cook Show." The new comedian, Joe Cook, is a very funny comedian, and from the time he makes his appearance on the stage, until the close of his act, the audience is kept in a state of laughter. This is an excellent comedy feature, and would put pep into any vaudeville performance. Jennings and Mack also furnish their share of fun in their laughing vehicle entitled "Camouflage Taxi." They put their material over in fine style and are rewarded with a generous amount of applause. Williams and Mitchell are heard at the house at each show. The portrayal of the Kaiser by Rupert Julian is one of the fine pieces of acting ever seen on the screen. Spectators are completely lost by the characterization of the Kaiser, an actor is playing the part and not the Hun himself. This portrayal is done in a way that makes every real American hate the Beast, and incites a rage to overthrow his present and future rulers.

Harrisburg audiences yesterday saw some of the things the Kaiser does in "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin." They saw the Hun's army violates every known humane law. They were shocked beyond measure at what Prussianism stands for. They saw this murderer of womanhood and humanity—youth, civilization, and the breaking point. The only thing that can be said is that every Harrisburger will become a better American by seeing this picture.

ACROBATIC FEATS ARE SPECTACULAR

Closing Act on Majestic Bill Is Best One Presented in Many Months

For the first time in many months the Majestic management has succeeded in placing as the closing act of the bill one that is startling and sensational enough to keep the entire audience seated until the final curtain. This, in itself, is the greatest possible credit to the performers, as usually many in the audience leave long before the last bows.

The attraction which is listed for the closing act is an acrobatic and dancing novelty, and it is decidedly the best that has been presented in Harrisburg in many months. Following some toe dancing, "Six Imps" take turns, offering some of the most spectacular handprints, somersaults and other feats shown this season.

Many of them are entirely original and show so much skill in performance that the audience frequently applauded during the act at the first show last night.

Buck Pieltz and Abbie Scofield start with a clever balancing and juggling act, presented in an original way. Jennings and Mack, blackface entertainers, have some good jokes and laughable parodies on popular songs, some of them, however, a trifle risqué.

Law Williams and Ada Mitchell are listed for the comedy sketch on the program. They have the usual story of marital troubles because of mother-in-law, and, as might be expected, end the skit with the problems solved.

Joe Cook is another good entertainer. He is a comedian who can't be beaten. It is not a picture of bathtubs, and while it has no dominant story, it stirs the blood to the breaking point. The only thing that can be said is that every Harrisburger will become a better American by seeing this picture.

COMING! Greatest Moving Picture Production AT THE REGENT Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Cecil B. DeMille's Production "THE WHISPERING CHORUS"

With An All-Star Cast Including Kathlyn Williams Tully Marshall Raymond Hatton Elliott Dexter "The Whispering Chorus" is a master production. It is developed so deftly and with so much originality in its underlying motive, its action and titles that the feature can make just claim to being quite unlike anything yet registered on celluloid.

"The Whispering Chorus" Speaks To You As it guided John Trimble, so does the chorus guide you. "The Whispering Chorus" is made of many voices—the voice of the Tempter, the voice of Mother Love, of Self-sacrifice, of Fear. Which Voices are you heeding?

"The Whispering Chorus" is a special Cecil B. DeMille production for Artraft release and is particularly noteworthy on that account. Mr. DeMille is famous for his production of "Joan the Woman," "The Woman God Forgot" and "The Devil Stone" in which productions Geraldine Farrar was featured.
