New Faces in Lineup

New Faces in Lineup

The lineup this year will not include a number of stars who have been factors in making the game popular, but there will be a goodly lineup. Scotty Knight is now in France, "Lefty" Challenger, a star southpaw who left here with the Governor Troop and is now located at an instruction school; Beam, the hard-hitting rightfielder, is located at one of the government cantonments serving as a sergeant, and Ben Kline, the sensational backstop of last year's champions, enlisted at New York and is somewhere in France. Players who will be seen this season include:

Disqualify Boldt

When the teams were walking off the floor to their dressingrooms, Boldt, one of the Altoona forwards, hit Referee Strausser on the jaw, but before any further trouble occurred he was hustled off to his dressingroom. The officials of the league then and there disqualified Boldt from further participation in the series. This will greatly weaken Altoona in the third game, for Boldt was one of the team's best players. The game was hotly contested from the start and until Panzulla came through with his two goals at the psychological moment the locals' chances to carry the series to a third game looked decidedly slight. During most of the first half General Office led and had a two-point lead when the half terminated by a 9 to 7 score.

In the final twenty minutes Altoona forged ahead on field tosses by Gibbons and Gerdes, held a two-
