to discourage the Kaiser," he declared.

The Rev. Dr. Bagnell said that the war will be won on the western front and, as the soldiers of Uncle Sam will be called upon to strike probably the death blow to Kaiser-ism, every possible measure should be taken to keep up the morale of the country's fighting men. A reason for subscribing to the loan that should not be forgotten, according to the speaker, is "that the United States needs the cash."

In order to fly the three-strip flag, Chairman Robbins, of the Liberty Loan Committee, said, this district must produce subscriptions from at least ten per cent. of the total population. The chairman appealed to residents for their support in the drive.

GREAT PARADE AT COLUMBIA Columbia, Pa., April 20.—The Liberty Loan parade Thursday night was the largest patriotic demonstration ever witnessed in the town. It is estimated that nearly 5,000 men, women and children marched in line. Red Cross chapter war workers marched in a body, all in uniform. H. M. North, Jr., head of the Liberty Loan drive in Lancaster county, and Mrs. North, who is chairman of the Woman's Liberty Loan committee in the county, led the parade on foot. Two floats, one with the Goddess of Liberty and another with the Liberty Bell, were the only vehicles of any kind in the line.

All the employes of the Pennsylvania Railroad, headed by Superintendent Smith, formed one division.
