

TIMELY NEWS OF CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA AND CITY'S SUBURBS

SELECTED MEN READY FOR CAMP

Cumberland County Draft Boards Make Lists; Movements April 26 and 29

Carlisle, Pa., April 22.—Cumberland county draft boards have completed making arrangements for the next movements of men to camps, which will begin this week. On Friday morning will go to Camp Meade and on April 29 others from both districts go to Camp Lee, with further movements to Columbus Barracks scheduled early in May. The men selected to go are:

District No. 1 To Camp Meade, April 26—Harvey D. Davis, Mechanicsburg; Guy A. Muckle, West Fairview; Abraham Ranner, Lemoyne; Earl Raymond Vogelzons, Mechanicsburg; Harper W. Zell, Altoona; Harvey C. Sites, New Kingston; Park A. Wilder, New Cumberland.

To Camp Lee, April 29—Harry W. Davis, Camp Hill; Harvey W. Laverly, Enola; Clifford S. Rowland, West Fairview; William J. Engert, Bellingham; Benjamin F. Lantz, Mechanicsburg; Russell M. Shultzberger, Mechanicsburg; Clarence McC. Mowery, Camp Hill; Walter Vogelzons, Mechanicsburg; Milton Danner, Lemoyne; Lynn M. Irvine, Mechanicsburg; Victor Shanabrock, Bowersdale; Benjamin D. Kutz, Carlisle; R. B. Frank, Mount Zion; Boiling Springs; Maurice C. Cook, Lemoyne; Clarence D. MacGregor, Carlisle; R. D. J. Anderson E. Putt, New Kingston; William A. Wolf, Mechanicsburg; Charles Engler, Lemoyne; Clyde C. Smith, Mechanicsburg; George A. Mays, York; Earl E. Davis, Enola; Charles L. Henderson, Wormleysburg; Harry E. Brewbaker, Mechanicsburg; R. D. Milton F. Forrey, Shiremanstown; Lester J. Guyer, Mechanicsburg; Ralph H. Wire, New Cumberland; Frank B. Kuhn, Camp Hill; Francis S. Stough, Shiremanstown.

District No. 2 To Camp Meade, April 26—Paul Vogelzons, Shippensburg; Walter D. Crull, Carlisle; R. D. J. Paul E. Stum, Newville; Clarence D. Fahnstock, Newville; R. D. J. John T. Brown, Mount Holly Springs; Conrad A. Neill, Brown, Carlisle; Alexander Coleman, Shippensburg; Harold Gateman, Carlisle; Richard Hinton, Shippensburg.

To Camp Lee, April 29—Leroy B. Harnish, Reese N. Stoll, Norman B. Sharpe, Carlisle; Harrison Barwick, Newburg; John R. Pechar, Shippensburg; Isaac L. Wagner, Newville; R. D. Wagner, Carlisle; Phillip R. Rommel, Carlisle; Ford M. Ferree, Shippensburg; Abram C. Stamy, Shippensburg; Oscar M. Hykes, Shippensburg; Grant G. Humwood, Shippensburg; William M. Morrison, Carlisle; R. D. J. O'Donnell, Mount Holly Springs; H. W. McLaughlin, Mount Holly Springs; Frank W. Groves, John W. Zitzer, Carlisle; W. W. Woods, Newville; John C. Reese, Harrisburg; John L. McBeth, Walnut Bottom; Charles H. Miller, Newville; William O'Donnell, Shippensburg; Charles S. Hultshaber, Newville.

NURSE GOES TO ARMY HOSPITAL. Waynesboro, Pa., April 22.—Miss Hazel Baer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Baer, of Waynesboro, has resigned as superintendent of the South Baltimore, Md., and has accepted a position in the United States Army Nursing Corps. At present Miss Baer is stationed at the United States Army Receiving Hospital, situated at Fort McHenry, Md.

PEACH BUDS UNHARMED. Waynesboro, Pa., April 22.—The peach blossoms are now putting forth and great stretches of pretty pink gleam from the mountain slopes and the adjacent hillsides comprising the South mountain belt. From the profusion of bloom, it is now a demonstrated fact that with all the rigors of this unprecedented winter and spring, the peach buds, as well as the showing gives promise of an abundant crop.

CARLISLE'S SCORE $825,000. Carlisle, Pa., April 22.—With the close of the second week of the campaign, Cumberland county reached $825,000 in the Third Liberty Loan quota and is within striking distance of the $1,000,000 allotment. Mount Holly won an Honor Flag on Saturday afternoon.

MRS. A. B. SHARPE DIES. Carlisle, Pa., April 22.—Mrs. A. B. Sharpe, widely known for her religious and charitable activities and widow of Colonel A. B. Sharpe, a distinguished Civil War veteran, died at her home here yesterday morning, aged 86 years, after a protracted illness.

Mrs. Sharpe was before her marriage Katherine Mears Blaney, daughter of Major George Blaney, of the United States Army. She was married to Colonel Sharpe in 1854.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY

Eight to Graduate at Dillsburg High School

Dillsburg, Pa., April 22.—Dillsburg public schools will close this week and preparations is being made for the annual commencement exercises. The class this year numbers eight, seven young men and one young woman. Five are from town and three from the surrounding district. Raymond Wehler is the valedictorian, and William Tenney, salutatorian. The other members of the class are Earl Dittmer, Earl Karns, M. Katherine Brenner, Clyde Smith, Albert Cook and Chester Wagner. Ernest H. Heston is the principal and Miss Myrtle Mayberry, assistant.

The Rev. Mr. Crow, the new Methodist Episcopal pastor, will preach the baccalaureate sermon in the Methodist Church, on Sunday evening, April 28. The commencement exercises will be held in the opera house on Tuesday evening, April 30. The program will include: Invocation; the Rev. J. Harold Wolf, salutatorian; William Hershey, valedictorian; Ernest Chronicle, Earl Dittmer; 2 Chorale, Clyde Smith; solo, "Ship of My Dreams"; J. Albert Cook; class prophecy; Katherine Brenner; Ernest Chronicle; glee chorus, "Lowest Old Sweet Song"; valedictory, "Act Well Your Part," Raymond Wehler; chorus, "The Jolly Sailors"; address, "The Minute," by Dr. Ezra Lehman; "Ode to a Diploma," Chester Wagner; presentation of diploma, president of school board; chorus, "Just Minute," benediction, the Rev. G. H. Ewiler.

CANAL IN OPERATION. Hagerstown, Pa., April 22.—After being idle for more than a month because the boatmen refused to work for less than a 75-cent freight rate, the canal between Cumberland, Md., to Washington, the Chesapeake and Ohio canal is now in full operation through the intervention of the railroad administration of the government.

MAN DIES ON TRAIN. Hagerstown, Md., April 22.—Platt N. Paine, a retired manufacturer of Millerton, N. Y., died suddenly from heart failure on a train on the Norfolk and Western, near the Norfolk station here on his way home from the South, where he spent the winter with his wife.

TWO MEN GO OVER DAM. Hagerstown, Md., April 22.—Clarence Long sustained a broken arm and had a miraculous escape from death when a massive log jammed in which he and Bernard Berry attempted to cross the Potomac river above dam No. 5, was swept over the dam. The river is swollen about fifteen feet. Long and the boat fell more than twenty feet into the swirling waters below and the boat was lost. Long was washed upon the rocky shore fifty yards below. Berry was rescued with a rope by men on shore after leaping into the water above the dam.

HAGERSTOWN LICENSES. Hagerstown, Pa., April 22.—Marriage licenses have been issued here during the following couples from Pennsylvania: Edward D. Martz and Virginia M. Gilmore, both of Harrisburg; Lee Albaugh and Edna M. Schuman, both of Hagerstown; Edward M. Schuman and Flora T. Reed, both of Chambersburg; Elias T. Leslie and Bertha M. Zeller, both of Lebanon; Roy H. Funk, Lancaster, and Mildred M. Shultz, Washington.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED. Waynesboro, Pa., April 22.—Mr. and Mrs. John R. Lashley, this city, announces the marriage of their daughter, Miss Helen Lashley, to Private Albert Lee Scott, of the 11th Machine Gun Company, stationed at Camp Meade, Admiral, Md. The wedding took place on March 18, at Philadelphia. Mrs. Scott is at the present taking a course in trained nursing.

WEDDING INVITATIONS ISSUED. Waynesboro, Pa., April 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Bell, of Waynesboro, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Marie Bell, to First Lieutenant Robert B. Brown, also of Waynesboro. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride-to-be on Thursday, May 2.

Dauphin Borough Passes Its Liberty Bond Quota. Dauphin, Pa., April 22.—The borough of Dauphin has enthusiastically gone "over the top" in its Liberty Loan campaign. With an allotment of $20,000, it was stated this morning that the sum of $23,000 had been subscribed, with much more to follow already in sight. The farmers of Middle Paxton township have been particularly patriotic and have subscribed liberally for Liberty bonds.

TO GET COMFORT KITS. Columbia, Pa., April 22.—Five draftees of the National Army, who will leave Columbia next Friday for Camp Meade, will receive comfort kits from Mrs. George C. K. Sample.

SCIENCE TEACHER RESIGNS. Columbia, Pa., April 22.—Professor Paul W. Wiltmer, of Lebanon, science teacher in the Columbia High School, has resigned to enter the Ordnance Department of the United States Army, and has gone to Washington, to be inducted into service.

Suburban Notes. Ellsworth Lutz, of Akron, Ohio, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Clara Lutz. George Tharp, stationed at Camp Lee, Petersburg, Virginia, is visiting at Mrs. S. B. Blattenberger's. Sergeant and Mrs. Ralph Williamson, of West Point, are visiting relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Walton Romig and daughter, of Harrisburg, are visitors at Postmaster Tharp's. Mrs. B. F. Blattenberger and Mrs. H. A. S. Shuler were Friday visitors at Harrisburg. H. A. S. Shuler spent Friday in Millersburg. Mrs. Lily Stalley is visiting relatives at Harrisburg. Mr. and Mrs. Hershey and daughter, of York, spent several days with Henry Herr and family. Mrs. Ella Brightbill, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with her father, Cyrus C. Deltrich. Mr. and Mrs. John Boyer announce the arrival of a son. Miles Fink, of Camp Meade, Md., spent last night here with his parents. Mrs. Miller Levering and daughter, Sidney, visited friends at Schaeffestown. Edward Howard, of Camp Meade, Md., spent a day here visiting his parents. Private Paul Houser, of Fort Sill, Oklahoma, is spending a thirty-day furlough here visiting his parents. Corporal Oliver Yake, of Camp Meade, Md., spent a short furlough here with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graybill, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday here. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Eddy. Samuel Shenk and family, of Fontana, spent a day here as guests of John Dohner and family. Mrs. Joseph Walters is confined to her home with illness.

Hershey Stenographer in U. S. Balloon Company

Failure to Lift Divorce Papers Causes Trouble

Carlisle, Pa., April 22.—With nearly three score divorce decrees issued in the past few years on their hands, county officials fear that there will become more serious mixups in marital relations. These decrees after passing through the usual procedure have been ordered granted by Judge Sadler on payments of costs. However, many fail to lift them, some lying in the office for five years or more, and through ignorance of the law couples believing themselves separated have been known to remarry. A case of this kind occurred a short time ago, after nearly fifty years when a will was adjusted and both parties had again married.

WOMAN'S CLUB OFFICERS. Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 22.—At the annual business meeting of the Woman's Club at the home of Mrs. R. H. Thomas, Jr., on Friday evening, the following officers were chosen: President, Miss Caroline Saxton; first vice-president, Mrs. Sara Firestone; second vice-president, Mrs. Grace Wither; recording secretary, Mrs. Murray L. Dick; corresponding secretary, Miss Catherine Keefe; treasurer, Mrs. R. A. DePrehn; executive board, Mrs. R. Wilson Hurst, Mrs. E. Howard Wickwar, H. C. E. Strode, H. W. Dennis and Charles Goodman. The elders are: L. H. Dennis, William C. Enterline and Joseph B. McCann. C. Enterline and Joseph B. McCann.

CARROLL LIGHT. Hummelstown, Pa., April 22.—Carroll Light, aged 21 years, a son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Light, of Railroad street, enlisted as a stenographer with the Forty-second Balloon Company at Camp John Wise, San Antonio, Texas. Before his enlistment he was employed as a stenographer on the Hershey clerical force.

UPPER END CONVENTION. Halifax, Pa., April 22.—The annual convention of the Tenth district of Sunday schools, which includes all schools in Halifax, Wayne and Jackson townships, was held Saturday afternoon and evening in Trinity Reformed Church here. Norman H. Johnson, a state field worker, gave an interesting talk on Sunday school work of the Forty-second Balloon Company at Camp John Wise. The following officers were elected: President, Melvin Spenser; vice-president, the Rev. J. C. Pease; secretary, Mrs. Rosella Phillips; treasurer, Mrs. Evelyn Nalor; prayer, Mrs. Miller; organist, Miss Ellen Strode; assistant, Miss Thelma Breen.

PATRIOTIC MEETING AT CHURCH. Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 22.—Despite unfavorable weather conditions, there was a large congregation at the patriotic meeting of the United Young People's Society last evening in the Church of God. R. M. Weidner, president, had charge of the meeting and the music was furnished by the choir. An address was given by Allen Thompson, editor of the Carlisle Sentinel.

MRS. ALLEN SMITH BURIED. Blain, Pa., April 22.—Funeral services for Mrs. Allen F. Smith, who was found dead in bed at her home in Newport, were held on Saturday. Burial was made in St. Paul's Cemetery in Madison township, near Clans Run. The Rev. J. C. Reighard, of Blain, conducted the services.

EDITOR HAS DIPHTHERIA. Waynesboro, Pa., April 22.—George Erick Good, city editor of the Waynesboro Daily Herald, is confined to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Good, suffering from diphtheria. Col. J. C. Martin, for many years on the staff of the Herald, is acting city editor during the illness of Mr. Good.

MARRIED AT HAGERSTOWN. Blain, Pa., April 22.—The marriage of Miss H. Marie Stroup, a school teacher of Madison township, daughter of Edward W. Stroup, of Pine Grove, and Zan Kennedy, of Madison, was solemnized at Hagerstown, Md., which occurred on April 18, at Hagerstown, Md.

CHURCH UNFURIS FLAG. Columbia, Pa., April 22.—Yesterday the congregation of St. John's Lutheran Church yesterday unfurled a beautiful flag on the campus of the church. The ceremonies were conducted by the pastor, the Rev. A. M. Mahrkam, Ph. D., and Dr. G. W. Berntheil, Columbia's veteran orator, delivered the address.

EAGLES MEMORIAL SERVICE. Columbia, Pa., April 22.—Susquehanna Aerle No. 293, Fraternal Order of Eagles, held memorial exercises in their home on Sunday afternoon in honor of the departed members. An orchestra furnished music and the memorial address was delivered by Lieutenant H. B. Clepper, who is secretary of the Aerle.

NEW RED CROSS AUXILIARY. Columbia, Pa., April 22.—Mrs. H. M. North, Jr., chairman of Columbia Chapter of the Red Cross, and S. Hugh Levan, director of the bureau of development, organized an auxiliary at Rowenna, where a public meeting was held. Mrs. North delivered the address of the evening and Director Levan organized the auxiliary.

STONE THROWN INTO TRAIN. Harpersburg, Pa., April 22.—A pleasant party of about a dozen people were thrown through the window of a Pennsylvania railroad passenger train sent a shower of glass over Mrs. Raymond Harmon, of Wilkes-Barre, inflicting a number of cuts on her face and arms. She suffered from shock and the train was held here until a doctor gave her attention.

LIGHT PLANT SOLD. Middleburg, Pa., April 22.—Sale of the Middleburg Electric Light Heat and Power Company's plant to the Juniata Electric Company was made of record to-day. Current will be furnished from the plant at Middleburg and service will be continuous.

MRS. FLORENCE THARP BURIED. Liverpool, Pa., April 22.—Mrs. Florence Tharp, aged 66 years, a native and life-long resident of Liverpool, died suddenly at the Ganett Hotel, Elizabeth, Md., yesterday, after an illness of two days. Services were held at the home here yesterday. The Rev. G. H. Knox, pastor, officiating. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. B. F. Blattenberger, and two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Williamson and Mrs. Jessie Zellers, and one brother, George J. Tharp, all of Liverpool.

PROGRAM COMPLETE. Liverpool, Pa., April 22.—Work on the jubilee program of the Perry County Sabbath school convention to be held at Harrisburg, Pa., has been completed by Miss Pura B. Robison, of Liverpool, corresponding secretary of the association.

Suburban Notes. Ellsworth Lutz, of Akron, Ohio, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Clara Lutz. George Tharp, stationed at Camp Lee, Petersburg, Virginia, is visiting at Mrs. S. B. Blattenberger's. Sergeant and Mrs. Ralph Williamson, of West Point, are visiting relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Walton Romig and daughter, of Harrisburg, are visitors at Postmaster Tharp's. Mrs. B. F. Blattenberger and Mrs. H. A. S. Shuler were Friday visitors at Harrisburg. H. A. S. Shuler spent Friday in Millersburg. Mrs. Lily Stalley is visiting relatives at Harrisburg. Mr. and Mrs. Hershey and daughter, of York, spent several days with Henry Herr and family. Mrs. Ella Brightbill, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday with her father, Cyrus C. Deltrich. Mr. and Mrs. John Boyer announce the arrival of a son. Miles Fink, of Camp Meade, Md., spent last night here with his parents. Mrs. Miller Levering and daughter, Sidney, visited friends at Schaeffestown. Edward Howard, of Camp Meade, Md., spent a day here visiting his parents. Private Paul Houser, of Fort Sill, Oklahoma, is spending a thirty-day furlough here visiting his parents. Corporal Oliver Yake, of Camp Meade, Md., spent a short furlough here with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graybill, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday here. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Eddy. Samuel Shenk and family, of Fontana, spent a day here as guests of John Dohner and family. Mrs. Joseph Walters is confined to her home with illness.

NEWS OF WEST SHORE

Camp Hill Church Will Erect Building After War

Camp Hill, Pa., April 22.—The congregation of the Presbyterian Church at a meeting decided to pay $500 on the plot of ground on the northeast corner of Hamilton and Walnut streets, purchased for the purpose of erecting a church. Since last October $1,000 has been paid on the lot, which cost $1,700. Building of the church will be postponed until after the war.

The money for payment of the plots was raised as follows: Ladies' Church Circle, $150; Sunday school, $75; a church sinking fund contains $155, which will be used in the payment. The remainder of the money was raised through individual subscriptions.

At the congregational meeting officers re-elected were: Treasurer, Howard Zigler; financial secretary, Mrs. Walter Cummings; superintendent of Sunday school, A. E. Strode. Trustees of the church are: H. E. Siegel, R. H. Helm, A. E. Strode, Howard Wickwar, H. C. E. Strode, S. H. Dennis and Charles Goodman. The elders are: L. H. Dennis, William C. Enterline and Joseph B. McCann.

The Young People's Christian Endeavor Society at a meeting last evening elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Rosella Phillips; vice-president, Miss Mary Strode; secretary, Miss Virginia Breen; treasurer, Miss Jean Myers; committees: prayer, Mrs. Miller; organist, Miss Ellen Strode; assistant, Miss Thelma Breen.

WEST FAIRVIEW, Pa., April 22.—Thompson Martin, chairman of the local Liberty Loan committee, said today that this borough would go for the top in the drive for $20,000, its quota, not later than Wednesday. The committee of solicitors is composed of Thompson Martin, chairman; Mr. Hawbaker, vice-chairman; Harper Lantz, Ralph Wagner, Sylvan Neidig, H. W. Glessner, Luther Cranford, Robert McCombs and Fred Seidel.

TWO BRAKEMEN INJURED. Enola, Pa., April 22.—Two railroad brakemen employed by the Pennsylvania railroad at the local yards were injured while working yesterday. One was a roadman and the other worked on the westbound hump. Richard W. Welker, of Sunnyside, who works on the hump, sustained a broken right arm and shoulder, in addition to four broken ribs, when he was thrown from a draft of cars. Welker's draft of cars crashed into another draft, throwing him to the ground. Fellow workmen saved him from possible death by removing him from the track. He was taken to the Harrisburg Hospital.

The other brakeman, who was injured was Edward E. Harrison, of South Enola. Harrison is employed on the Philadelphia division. He received a badly bruised right arm when his train was wrecked near Camden, N. J. He was later brought home.

CLASS ENTERTAINED. Enola, Pa., April 22.—The Ruth and Naomi Sunday school class of the Methodist Church, taught by Mrs. William L. Troup, was entertained by Charles Heppford, Cumberland street, Harrisburg, at the home of Mrs. Harpersburg. The class decided to make a contribution to the new career which the Ladies Aid Society plans to purchase for the church. Freshmen were served to the following members: Mrs. W. C. Smith, Mrs. C. B. Bahr, Mrs. Percy Brantyan, Mrs. C. B. Bahr, Mrs. P. Layton, Mrs. D. Layton, Miss Elizabeth Butler, Miss Francis Wilvert, Miss Florence Troup, Mrs. W. L. Troup.

SENATOR LEIBY TO SPEAK. Harrisburg, Pa., April 22.—Senator Charles S. Leiby, of Maryland, will be the principal speaker at big patriotic meeting at the Geneva school building, to-morrow evening, in the interest of the sale of Liberty Bonds.

NEWS OF WEST SHORE

Personal and Social Items of Towns Along West Shore

Mrs. Jennie L. Detweiler and Mrs. Blessing of Middletown, visited Mrs. W. L. Troup, 206 Altoona avenue, Enola. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ostot, son Charles, of Harrisburg, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Morse; and Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Eshelman, at Shiremanstown. Miles A. Thornton, of Camp Meade, Md., paid his parents a short visit in their country home near Shiremanstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam L. Heiges, of Mechanicsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. George V. Coble, of Lemoyne, were recent guests at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Felster, at Shiremanstown. Mrs. Benjamin F. Harman, Shiremanstown, was a Harrisburg visitor on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Abbott, of Harrisburg, were recent guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Samuel Drawbaugh, at Shiremanstown. Edward Smyser, of Camp Meade, Md., visited his mother, Ralph Smyser, at Shiremanstown. Reed Gracy, of Camp Meade, Md., spent the week-end at his home in New Cumberland.

L. N. Munday, of Hummelstown, spent Sunday with Jacob Kinley's family, at New Cumberland. David Hartman has returned from Philadelphia, where he had an operation performed at Wills' Eye Hospital. Miss Edna Sellers, of Valley street, Marysville, is visiting in Brooklyn as the guest of Mrs. John M. Larsen.

Mrs. George H. Eppley has returned to her home at Marysville after spending several days at Philadelphia as the guest of Mrs. George Nauss. James W. Brightbill has returned to Essington, where he is employed, after spending several days at Marysville as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Fisher. Thomas B. Bitting, in training at Fort Monroe, Va., has returned to Enola after spending several days at Marysville with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Bitting.

LECTURE ON WAR. New Cumberland, Pa., April 22.—The Rev. A. R. Ayres, pastor of Trinity United Brethren church, preaches on "War," both morning and evening, yesterday. Next Sunday, April 29, he will give a lecture on "The Moral Side of the War," at the Christian Endeavor Society, Miss Elizabeth Eckert, of Wormleysburg, will be present at this meeting and make an address.

SECURING WORKMEN AND TRAINS. Squire Fortenbaugh, of Goldsboro, was in New Cumberland on Saturday on government business. He was appointed by Major Gray to secure workmen and teams for the United States quartermaster at Market Run.

DR. BAGNELL TO LECTURE. New Cumberland, Pa., April 22.—Dr. Robert Bagnell, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, Harrisburg, will give his popular lecture on "The Moral Side of the War," at the Baughman Memorial Methodist Church to-morrow evening, at 7:45. Members of the Citizens Hose Company and boys' brigade are invited to attend in a body.

BOY SCOUTS' ENTERTAINMENT. Camp Hill, Pa., April 22.—Plans for a benefit entertainment to be held the latter part of next month will be made at a meeting of the Camp Hill Boy Scouts this evening. The Rev. Raymond Ketchledge, scoutmaster, and A. E. Strode, assistant, have charge of the arrangements.

BENEFIT OF RED CROSS. West Fairview, April 22.—Everything is in readiness for the entertainment to be given by the P. O. S. of A. camp here in the Red Men's Hall, on Thursday evening for the benefit of the Red Cross Auxiliary. A committee of ten members of the lodge has charge of arrangements.

VISITING SON AT CAMP. Camp Hill, Pa., April 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Swigert, of Lemoyne, have come to visit their son, Paul E. Swigert, who is a member of the Quartermaster Corps, at Camp Taylor, Louisville, Ky.

NEWS OF WEST SHORE

Twentyeth Anniversary of Trinity Lutheran Church

Camp Hill, Pa., April 22.—Special services yesterday marked the celebration of the twentieth anniversary of Camp Hill Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church. The Rev. Dr. E. W. Weigle, pastor of the church, well-known in church circles throughout the state, had charge. At the morning service, the Rev. H. H. Weber, of York, delivered a special sermon, and in the evening a general song service entitled "Review of the Year in Song" featured the service. Miss Mildred Snyder had charge of the special services of the Christian Endeavor Society. At the evening service the pastor gave a detail history of the church since its organization.

Mrs. M. M. Shope had charge of the musical end of the program during the day. A number of vocal and instrumental solos were given. Henry Shope, Jr., was one of the principal instrumental soloists. The Rev. Charles S. Bausell will speak at services this evening. Special services celebration of the anniversary will continue until Wednesday evening.

MARRIED AT PHILADELPHIA. Marysville, Pa., April 22.—Announcements have been received here of the marriage at Philadelphia of the latter's sister, Mrs. Samuel Drawbaugh, at Shiremanstown. Edward Smyser, of Camp Meade, Md., visited his mother, Ralph Smyser, at Shiremanstown. Reed Gracy, of Camp Meade, Md., spent the week-end at his home in New Cumberland.

L. N. Munday, of Hummelstown, spent Sunday with Jacob Kinley's family, at New Cumberland. David Hartman has returned from Philadelphia, where he had an operation performed at Wills' Eye Hospital. Miss Edna Sellers, of Valley street, Marysville, is visiting in Brooklyn as the guest of Mrs. John M. Larsen.

Mrs. George H. Eppley has returned to her home at Marysville after spending several days at Philadelphia as the guest of Mrs. George Nauss. James W. Brightbill has returned to Essington, where he is employed, after spending several days at Marysville as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Fisher. Thomas B. Bitting, in training at Fort Monroe, Va., has returned to Enola after spending several days at Marysville with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Bitting.

LECTURE ON WAR. New Cumberland, Pa., April 22.—The Rev. A. R. Ayres, pastor of Trinity United Brethren church, preaches on "War," both morning and evening, yesterday. Next Sunday, April 29, he will give a lecture on "The Moral Side of the War," at the Christian Endeavor Society, Miss Elizabeth Eckert, of Wormleysburg, will be present at this meeting and make an address.

SECURING WORKMEN AND TRAINS. Squire Fortenbaugh, of Goldsboro, was in New Cumberland on Saturday on government business. He was appointed by Major Gray to secure workmen and teams for the United States quartermaster at Market Run.

DR. BAGNELL TO LECTURE. New Cumberland, Pa., April 22.—Dr. Robert Bagnell, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, Harrisburg, will give his popular lecture on "The Moral Side of the War," at the Baughman Memorial Methodist Church to-morrow evening, at 7:45. Members of the Citizens Hose Company and boys' brigade are invited to attend in a body.

BOY SCOUTS' ENTERTAINMENT. Camp Hill, Pa., April 22.—Plans for a benefit entertainment to be held the latter part of next month will be made at a meeting of the Camp Hill Boy Scouts this evening. The Rev. Raymond Ketchledge, scoutmaster, and A. E. Strode, assistant, have charge of the arrangements.

BENEFIT OF RED CROSS. West Fairview, April 22.—Everything is in readiness for the entertainment to be given by the P. O. S. of A. camp here in the Red Men's Hall, on Thursday evening for the benefit of the Red Cross Auxiliary. A committee of ten members of the lodge has charge of arrangements.

VISITING SON AT CAMP. Camp Hill, Pa., April 22.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Swigert, of Lemoyne, have come to visit their son, Paul E. Swigert, who is a member of the Quartermaster Corps, at Camp Taylor, Louisville, Ky.

Young Man Seriously Hurt When Auto Upsets

Mount Royal, Pa., April 22.—Suffering an injury to his spine Saturday evening when he was pinned beneath an automobile that turned turtle near York, Russell Smith, a local truck farmer, aged 24, is in a critical condition at the West Side Sanatorium, at York, where he was removed immediately after the accident. His entire body is paralyzed and little hope is entertained for his recovery. In the machine at the time of the accident was Mrs. Smith and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. Q. Peifer, and their two children, Melvin and Nedra. All escaped injury but Smith.

MOUNT ROYAL, Pa., April 22.—A musical will be given for the benefit of the Penbrook Red Cross in the United Brethren Church, Twenty-seventh and Main streets, on Tuesday evening, April 29, at 8 o'clock. The program will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience. The proceeds from the benefit will be greatly in charge of the Penbrook Red Cross, as will be given entirely by well-known Harrisburg talent, the numbers consisting of vocal, instrumental and violin solos, and musical readings, together with community singing by the audience.