Sending Quotas to

Meade This Week

By Associated Press

Camp Meade, Md., April 22.—The big movement of men to this camp will begin this week and will continue until the states have sent their quotas. The first movement will be completed shortly after the first of next month. In addition to men the District of Columbia, selects from Ohio, and Tennessee will also be sent here. Arrangements have been completed for the housing and equipping of more than 12,000 men.

Men who were selected for server and sent here from Maryland and Pennsylvania as a part of the first quota and rejected because of physical disqualification, are coming back as part of the second draft. The men are so anxious to serve that they have undergone operations to have their physical defects corrected.
