to take up with local school boards the elimination of the study of German in the schools of Pennsylvania. In his letter Mr. Moyer says:

"In reply to your letter I concede that the elimination of German from the curriculum of the public schools is a question to be settled by the Board of School Directors of each school district. For that reason, as the official head of the Patriotic Order Sons of America in this state, I have requested our 900 camps to petition the school authorities in their respective localities to immediately abolish the study of German. "You say in your letter that you do not deem it wise nor patriotic to go contrary to the policy and wishes of the President of the United States, and you make reference to a letter that the views and sentiments expressed in this letter are falled by the administration at Washington." "I respectfully submit there is no more loyal state in the Urhon than Pennsylvania and none more eager and willing to stand back of the President of the United States, and you make reference to a letter teaching of German in the public schools of the state, every department chief should be in accord with that sentiment and especially the head of our school system.

ment chief should be in accord with that sentiment and especially the head of our school system.

Berks County Protests

Thave in my possession a vigorous protest from Berks county against the position taken by you. This Berks county American believes with me that the State Superintendent of Public Instruction should take a firm position and not hedge about for an excuse when asked for an expression of opinion as to his attitude on the question of continuing the teaching of the German language in this state. In many of the rural districts, notably in the eastern counties, through which I have recently traveled, I find an alarming pro-German undercurrent, and in several instances where the question has been put up to the school board the excuse offered by them is that the state superintendent is not infavor of the movement to discontinue the teaching of German.

"Right here, in our own state, do not we know something of the Prussians? We have heard of their devilishness, of their desire to become the masters of the world, of their policies of brutality and of vandalism, and their attempts to terrorize men and women into submission. If we stand supinely by and do not make an effort to mould the minds of our youths ot hat when they become men and women they will manifest a justifiable contempt and a righteous hafred for that odious and infamous propaganda formulated and spread broadcast by the Kaiser, who would be deathed the way.

Can't Afford to Pussyfoot

"We cannot as a people afford to pusyfoot on this question. They who sidestep the issue now will surely perish by the sword." They who sidestep the issue now will surely perish by who take the, sword must perish by the sword. They who sidestep the issue now will surely perish by the sword. They who sidestep the issue now will surely perish by the sword. Musterole Works Without the Blister-Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole. Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister. Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheuma-

Ditzel and Carroll, one in blackface, the other as a physician, have a farcical offering filled with jokes and a good display of the wit in exaggeration.

The best cycling act in months is listed for the close, being presented by the Franz Troupe. In addition to a number of difficult feats, there are many antics presented on curiously-shaped bicycles made from hoops, barrels and the like. The feats were so entertaining that no one left at the first show last night until the curtain dropped.

One of the most popular forms of entertainment on the American stage to-day is good, old-fashion-At the ed minstrelsy, with its Majestic budget of jokes and good singing. Ditzel and Carpoll, who occupy a prominent position on the Majestic's vaudeville program the early half of the present week, are entertainers in blackface and present an act that is a decided hit. They have a line of excellent material, which they know how to put across the footlights at its true worth. An artistic little singing and dancing skit is being offered by Millard and Marlin, young couple of pleasing stage presence and marked talent. They make several changes of wardrobe, which adds much to their act. Frank Stafford and Company, presenting an amusing little playlet entitled "A Hunter's Game," and two other attractions, round out the bill.

To-day is the last opportunity patrons of the Colonial Theater will have to see the screen version of Europia Starred. The story is woven about the mysterious disappearance of a young Southern girl while on a visit to New York. She is finally rescued from the clutches of two criminals after an exciting search by her fiancee, assisted by a young lawyer friend. The plot is an intricate one, and the situations exciting. A strong love interest runs through the play, and numerous comedy touches add relief to the tense scenes.

To-morrow and Thursday — Metro's great patriotic picture, "Draft 258," will be shown. Mabel Tallaferro, one of the most distinguished actresses in America, is the star of this production, and is surrounded by a strong cast, including Walter Miller, the talented actor, who played the title role in "The Slacker."

The "Show of Wonders," the twentieth mammoth musical spectacle of the New York Winter Garden, is booked at the Orpheum, Satur-Booked for the Orpheum This engagement promises one of the big events of the season. From the very beginning of the famous New York Winter Garden it has been the

When the curtain went up for the skit, "A Hunter's Game," the audience saw only an autumn scene, artistically staged, and a setter just about to start on a run. A storm of applause came the next instant. In a few seconds another dog came on and stood beside the first. This brought the same approval. The remainder of the skit consisted of birding alls of all kinds by Frank Stafford as the hunter, followed by a dialog between him and Miss Marle Stone, a "summer girl." The production is one of the best of the season and is sure to please everyone.

FLUSH THE BLOOD WITH PURE FRUIT SALTS IN SPRING

In winter most men and women lead hothouse lives.

A flagging appetite a disposition to pick at this dish and that, rather than eat a square meal, is among the early indications that the human machine needs a thorough cleansing. Few people realize this is a critical point in their health. They do not know that unless the right kind of medicine is taken NOW their whole spring and summer may be ruined by continued ill health.

The condition of your blood is the thermometer of your health. Spring is the time to get rid of the accumulated impurities that gather during the winter and load the blood with poisons.

It is the height of folly to dose the stomach with dangerous drugs when the blood is crying aloud for a thorough cleansing. A spoonful of pure fruit salts in a glass of hot water, taken regularly on arising in the morning for just a few days will flush the blood clean of poisons, open the bowels in a healthful, naturalway, and tone the entire system until every organ is doing its work and that tired-out, half-sick feeling becomes a thing of the past.

Just try this test to-day. Go to Kennedy's Medicine Store or any other well stocked drug store, ask for a few ounces of Arcosal Fruit Salts, start to-morrow morning taking according to directions which accompany each package and see how quickly the system responds, how the spirits chirk up, the good rich blood goes pumping through the arteries and you face the day's work with renewed ambition and pleasure.

Be sure and ask for Arcosal Fruit Salts, sure to-merce amad ask for Arcosal Fruit Salts, sure to-merce amad ask for Arcosal Fruit Salts, put up in the original package.
