RAILROAD RUMBLES

John R. Potts, the plump little traveling passenger agent for the Chicago, St. Paul and Milwaukee railroad, will soon have it easy. He is to be retired along with "Sam" Myers. Since the government has assumed control passenger solicitors are to be eliminated. The Altoona Tribune says:

Union Pacific Hustler

"Samuel Myers has been the Union Pacific's agent in this district for about as long a time as Mr. Porr and has been equally popular. In a short time, under the shaking down process these men will be retired from the district passenger service of their respective lines. There are probably eight or ten other agents of the same kind in Pittsburgh, who, will be retired shortly.

"These experts will not be retired to private life however. Their railroads are in great need of effectives and will'keep these faithful and efficient servants for other service in home offices. There they will take the places of younger men who have gone into the national service."

The movement will be carried out under the auspices of the War Relief Unit and the money collected will be used to purchase material for the branch. Mrs. H. G. Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre at Once.

Commissioner Lynck will probably introduce in Council next week the ordinance establishing a curb and street market in Kelker street, from Third to Fifth streets. The ordinance was prepared more than a week ago and submitted to him by a committee of residents who want the market established. Several minor changes have been made, including the tax which will be tencents for each market day. The sale of food products will be permitted in Kelker street on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week for a period of one year after the ordinance is signed.
