Calls Hearst Malign Influence Mr. Anderson says he is not at all sure that Mr. Bryan was, in simple hearted goodness, imposed upon by some overzealous party Prohibition-ists, though it is possible that in his gullibility he has been imposed upon by or in behalf of "the man who, with his wealth and his newspapers, is, in our judgement, the most ma-lign influence in New York if not in the entire nation." Asserting that the stage is all set for Mr. Bryan to come into New York to play politics for Hearst, Mr. Anderson arrays the following facts: "I. In the latter part of Febru-ary, just before coming to New York to speak at the hearing before the legislative committee, Mr. Bryan foregathered in Florida with Mr. William Randolph Hearst, long a bitter opponent of prohibition, stanch friend of the brewers and practically father of the beer and wine proposition. practically father of the beer and wine proposition. "Mayor Hylan, after he came back from Florida, has been the most ac-tive advocate of Mr. Hearst for Gov-ernor this fall, it being understood, of course, that Mr. Hearst wants the Governorship as a stepping stone to the Presidency. "The New York World said edi-torially Sunday, February 24, re-specting this Florida meeting: 'All concerned declare that there was no political significance in the gather-ing. Certainly not; everybody knows that Mr. Hearst invited Mr. Bryan, Mr. Uniermyer, Mr. Malone and Mayor Hylan to discuss the high cost of breakfast foods, especially cess."

"We feel that we had been bone-headed, de facto traitors to the inter-ests of the cause if we had been un-able to see how thigs were being framed up and that we would be con-scious traitors if we kept quiet after we did see."
