

ONE OF THREE GIANT GERMAN GUNS SILENCED

Deputy Returns From Sector With News of Bombardment Trio's Location

FIRE NEAR JOY HILLS Other Guns Ring Out Simultaneously to Baffle Searchers in Locating

Paris, April 26.—One of three German long range guns which have been destroyed, according to Deputy Charles Lehoucq, of the department of the Seine. The deputy said he had talked with the general commanding the sector near Crepy on Laonnois, where the big guns are stationed. The enemy he declared, is constructing new emplacements.

"As one of the deputies of Paris," said M. Lehoucq, "I was anxious to assure myself personally with regard to measures taken to counterattack the cannon bombarding Paris. I went to see the general commanding a certain sector who showed me photographs and gave me all the information he had.

"The photographs show the guns are placed exactly between Crepy En Laonnois station, and the counter forts known as 'Joy Hills.' The spur lines start from the station. On these heavy guns are moved to the firing platform.

"The first spur has a branch leading to a platform which is still occupied, but the center platform is empty. Its gun has been destroyed. Two more spur lines are under construction, indicating further cannon are expected.

Enola Carshop Scene of Over Top Meeting

The vast Enola Car Shop was the scene of a wonderful demonstration at noon to-day when Foreman H. G. Huber introduced Senator Scott S. Leiby as the principal speaker for the celebration of the broad road going over the top with Liberty Bonds. Employees of the Enola yard, numbering 232, are in the 100 per cent class, with $12,500.

To-day's massed gathering was arranged for the railroad to "cut loose" and celebrate their loyalty and send a message to the Kaiser with Casey Jones at the throttle. A thrilling episode of the home was the singing of "The Old Flag That Never Touched the Ground" by R. M. Adams. When one thousand husky railroaders whooped "She's been in many a fix, since 1876, but the old flag never touched the ground" the Kaiser must have noticed a twitching in his game leg.

Mrs. Barter was apprehended by a representative of the State Health Department and taken to Millintown for a hearing. The woman was given the maximum fine of $50 for breaking the law.

At the suggestion of the health department authority, she was said to buy a Liberty Bond and pay the costs, which she did.
