

The World Is Engaged In a Second and Final French Revolution to Liberate Mankind from the Tyranny Of Force. Germany has long premeditated her attack on the freedom of the world. In 1898 at Manila the German Admiral said to Admiral Dewey "In about fifteen years my country will begin a great war. After we have done our job in Europe, we shall take New York."

We did not believe him then.

- In 1911 Otto Richard Tannenberg published at Leipsic his book "Great Germany, the Work of the 20th Century," in which he gives full notice to the world of Germany's plans of conquest.
- In 1916 Emperor William himself said to Ambassador Gerard "I shall stand no nonsense from America after this war. There are no more international laws."
- On February 1, 1917, the German Review, ironically named "Peace," said: "In two years of war Germany has cut for herself out of an exhausted Europe, an empire which reaches from the North Sea to the Persian Gulf. Should this war go on, who dare say that this empire may not be still further extended by the addition of Greece, Egypt, Holland and Scandinavia?"

This is what Germany has accomplished against the undefeated Allied forces. If she defeats them, what do you think will happen?

After we have done our job in Europe, says Germany, we shall take New York.

Will YOU let her?

We Must Win This War

We will win it, if every American engages in the battle. You must be armed for the fight, and if you do not carry a gun, you must carry a Liberty Bond.

Subscribe therefore — buy bonds to the limit. And after we have done our job in France, we shall take Berlin — We shall then talk strong sense to Kaiser Bill.
