

DIRTY WASTE IN PAPER BAGS FOR CITY NURSERY

Every Household Receives a Bag in Waste Conservation and Clean-up Campaign

This week marks the start of the waste campaign under the auspices of the Nursery Home of Harrisburg. The campaign is similar to that conducted last year. It is a plan to raise funds by the collection and sale of the useless and worn-out castoffs in the homes of this city.

Sanitary paper bags are now being distributed throughout the city, one to each family. On each bag is printed a list of articles wanted, and housewives are urged to read it carefully before searching their homes for things to put into the brown paper bag, as it is estimated that every home contains most of this clutter that can help swell the fund for the Nursery Home.

Last year's campaign was successful, though the funds raised were less than in the previous campaign, when the allotment was doubled. In the present campaign this district was asked to furnish $1,000 and went "over the top" by about fifty per cent. Officials this morning said there is no doubt but that the quota will be met, and the possibility of doubling the district's quota.

Reports on the Liberty Loan drive continued to pour into the local banks this morning. Subscriptions to the loan reported this morning were exceptionally large in some instances. The amount for the day's business on Saturday the total subscribed was set at $26,700. Of this amount, $48,000 was subscribed by 7,000 steel plant employees. The total number of subscribers is 7,800.

Tons of waste accumulations will come forth from the cities and villages of Harrisburg during this campaign. It will be collected in a systematic and sanitary way, and the highest bidder will be sold to the realized depends, of course, upon the size and quality of the collection.

The closing session of the annual Y. M. C. A. Bible Institute was held yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. building. The institute was held at the Y. M. C. A. building, and was held at the Y. M. C. A. building.

The local members of the Junior Red Cross of Harrisburg have been asked to furnish six dollars to be used in Red Cross houses, to be built at the various camps throughout the United States. All furniture for these houses is to be made by the Junior Red Cross workers.

About thirty selected men were equipped with comfort kits and sweaters at Red Cross headquarters this morning. The men who came into headquarters in a body, and kept the workers busy finding their sweaters and comfort kits. Most of the men were destined for Camp Lee.

STEELTON NEWS ITEMS

John Porr, Local Boy, Is Well Liked at Army Camp

First Class Private John Wolf Porr, son of Druggist and Mrs. J. L. Porr, North Front street, has returned after spending a short and enjoyable stay at his home in the borough. He is one of the many Steeltonians who responded to the call for volunteers shortly after the declaration of war on Germany, and enlisted with the Sanitary Detachment, attached to the 5th Pennsylvania Infantry, under Major J. M. Petersen, of the borough. Porr is now connected with the 12th Regiment of Infantry, stationed at Camp Hancock, Ga., having been transferred to that unit in the latter part of the month of the 5th Regiment, last October.

He is a graduate of Steelton High School, and is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He has been successful in passing the Pennsylvania State Board of Examiners, and is now in possession of his faithful work he was promoted to first-class private and assigned to the position of sergeant in the 12th Regiment. He is now on duty at Camp Hancock, Georgia, and is preparing to return to his home in Steelton in a few days.

Arrangements are being made to have a community mass meeting similar to that held before the opening of the Third Loan campaign. The Loan mass meeting proved to be beneficial to the workers, creating a get-together feeling among them. The date for the big meeting and the speakers have not been selected. The Steelton district during the drive has been asked to furnish more than in the previous campaign, when the allotment was doubled. In the present campaign this district was asked to furnish $1,000 and went "over the top" by about fifty per cent.

Officials this morning said there is no doubt but that the quota will be met, and the possibility of doubling the district's quota. The proclamation follows: "In accordance with a spirit of true citizenship being manifested in many communities at this time of the year by observing a period of 'clean up week' and to promote health and better living conditions in this borough, I hereby name the week beginning May 1, 1918, as 'clean up week' in the borough of Steelton. Residents are urged to remove all refuse and rubbish from premises, streets and other places, where an accumulation has taken place during the winter."

DEAD ON THE BENCH AND HER HUSBAND OFF HIGH BENCH

Stephen Leslie Mestrezat Dies of Heart Disease, Aged 70

Philadelphia, April 29.—Stephen Leslie Mestrezat, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, died in his apartments at the Aldine Hotel on the bench, his death being the result of a heart disease. He had been confined to his room for three weeks and had appeared on the bench only once since the Supreme Court began its sittings in Philadelphia in January. With him at the time of his death were two sisters, Mrs. Harriet L. Hudson, of Uniontown, and Mrs. Charlotte A. John, of Trinidad, Col.

Judge Mestrezat's death is the second to occur in the Supreme Court within two weeks. Justice William P. Potter having died within that time. The news of Judge Potter's death affected Judge Mestrezat greatly, causing him a profound feeling of sorrow. Two vacancies now exist among the Justices of the Supreme Court, which will be filled by appointment by the Governor. The court adjourned its sittings in this city yesterday afternoon.

Tribute From Associates. Justice John Stewart, who is presiding at the sessions of the Supreme Court in order to discharge the duties of the court in the absence of his colleagues, speaking in behalf of his colleagues on the bench: "The absence from the city at this time of our colleague, Justice Mestrezat, who perhaps devotes upon the duty of giving some expression to the sorrow and grief which has overtaken us in the death of our colleague, is a great loss to the court in consequence of the death of their late colleague, S. Leslie Mestrezat."

That I feel called upon to do at this moment, while as yet the grave of our brother is unattended and the mourners are gathered at the tomb, is to testify to the love and esteem in which he was held by his fellow members, their profound sorrow that he has been taken from them, their deep sense of loss in that he was a member of the court and a most companionable and agreeable associate.

DR. J. A. MURPHY APPOINTED REGISTRAR FOR MARINE. Dr. J. A. Murphy, of North Front street, has been appointed registrar for the Merchant Marine at his drug store in North Front street. He has been serving in this position for several years, and is well known to the community.
