

ALL UNITS WILL SOON BE READY

Adjutant General's Office Is Sending Out Equipment to the Reserve Militia

All of the units of the Pennsylvania Reserve Militia will be in the service of the State within the next ten days according to officers at the adjutant general's department. It was hoped to have all of the organizations mustered in by the end of the month, but unforeseen delays have held up three of the companies. Steps are now being taken to complete the examinations of men for these units and the muster orders will be given in a few days.

class or given deferred classification are being urged to file their statements as soon as possible. The State headquarters is seeking information as to the number of fighting men who will be available and the boards will be called upon to designate white and colored men.

Giving Certificates—The Shamokin and Mount Carmel Transit Company, which was ordered to give excess fare certificates pending litigation over a six-cent fare and which contended to the Public Service Commission that it could not do so because its men refused to do so, has succeeded in getting the system started. It promised the men an advance in pay. The public is paying six cents.

Probing Ladner—Attorney General Brown has ordered an investigation on behalf of Governor Brumbaugh into charges affecting making of affidavits for drafted men in Philadelphia. The probe arises out of the Baltz case in Overbrook but Harry B. Ladner, the accused notary, pleads ignorance.

Sent For Answers—The Public Service Commission has sent out answers the complaints of the boroughs and firms against the rates and service of the Luzerne County Gas and Electric Company.

Follow Up Cases—State health inspectors have been detailed to immediately follow up the outbreaks of smallpox in Lancaster and Cambria counties.

Boroughs Complain—The boroughs of Coaldale and Summit Hill to-day filed complaint before the Public Service Commission against the new rates of the Girardville Gas Company, charging that they are too high, while the borough of Sugar Notch joined the complaints against the new rates of the Luzerne County Gas and Electric Company.

The commission to-day heard the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company's side of the Washington county grade crossing cases brought by the State Highway Department and the county controller.

Drafts Moving—Officers connected with the state draft headquarters and the adjutant general's office to-day announced that to-night would close the movement to Camp Lee which has been under way in the state and that to-morrow men would begin to move to Fort Thomas, Newport, Ky. Next week the movement to Columbus Barracks, Columbus, will start.

No Commitments.—Records of the State Department show that no commitments have been filed from Pike, Fulton or Sullivan counties. The certification of all nomination petitions to the county commissioners has been completed. Capitol Visitors.—Visitors to the Capitol included Congressman R. D. Heaton, of Schuylkill; W. B. Linn, counsel for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and ex-Representative T. Ferguson, of Cumberland county.

To Return To-morrow.—Governor Brumbaugh will return to Harrisburg to-morrow and remain here several days. He may visit the an-thracite region over the weekend.

Snyder May Act.—Men connected with the state administration and who have been politically active were in an apprehensive state of mind to-day over what Auditor General Charles A. Snyder may do about those appointed recently in place of men who had been dismissed.

Not a Candidate.—When Attorney General Brown was asked to-day if he was a candidate for appointment to the Supreme bench, he said: "No thank you, excuse me," in French. Friends of the Attorney General say he will serve out his term as Attorney General and then devote himself to his law practice.

Want Better Road.—Army officers connected with the construction of the big quartermasters depot below New Cumberland to-day asked the State Highway Department to take steps to improve the state highway route between New Cumberland and Goldsboro, over which heavy teaming is being done for material. The road between Lemoyne and New Cumberland was also discussed.

Can't Improve.—Improvement of a street in Petersburg, Huntingdon county, which is on the line of a state highway will not be made because it does not connect with highways that have been improved by the state as yet. This information was given to Representative J. G. Dell, of Huntingdon county, who headed a Huntingdon county committee which called on Commissioner O'Neill to-day.

Hearing Goes Over.—The hearing in the complaint that the Pittsburgh and Susquehanna Railroad was not maintaining either its train service or its roadbed without seeking service of the Public Service Commission was postponed to-day until May 15. The hearing will be an important one as the road supplies coal mines and it is contended by the petitioners that failure to give service interferes with shipments of coal which are vitally needed.

ONLY FEW LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES ENDORSED

The action of the Dry Federation Committee yesterday was more remarkable for what it did not do than what it did. For example, only a very few legislative candidates and only a few of the "dry" aspirants from this section received the committee's O. K.

In Cumberland county, L. F. Beam and D. W. Lindsay, both Prohibition candidates, were endorsed, and in Lebanon county, C. A. Bowman and C. J. Ehen, both Republicans, were endorsed. The list of legislative endorsements contained the names of no others from this district.
