KYLER FOUND GUILTY

The case went to the jury shortly before noon and the verdict was taken before Judge C. V. Henry at 2.05 this afternoon.

The second murder trial of the week was started at noon when William Evans, colored, held for the murder of Rufus Gillam, also colored, in Steelton on the night of February 15, was arraigned. Jurors were called for examination, the first two being accepted. They were William Gerling, Derry township, and Edward C, Lentz, Elizabethville, It is expected much of the afternoon session may be taken as the four thomcide cases on the Evans case goes to the jury. If the list will be heard.

Lieutenant Page, of the city police force, for whom an attachment was issued yesterday afternoon because heddid not remain in attendance in court although subpened as a witness in the Kyler case, was present this morning.

helay tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, thus avoiding a lot of muss. While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

In point of magnitude and scenic effects, number of persons required and splender of persons renight. In point of magnitude and scenic effects, number of persons required and splendor of appointments, the "Show of Wonders" is said to eclipse them all. Heading its long list of singers and comedians will be found the operatic brothers, Eugene and Willie Howard; the unique comedian, Tom Lewis; the nimble-footed White and Clayton; the inimitable Sydney Phillips; Dan Quinlan, the old minstrel star, and the celebrated ballet dancer, Jacque, Kajawski dainty Flora Lea will portray the role of Eve in the "back to nature" scenes, and will also play the part of the slave girl in the brilliant Burmese ballet. Other charming personalities in the "Show of Wonders" are: Virginia Smith, Adele Ardsley, Patsie O'Hearn, Myrtle Victorine and Irene Zolar. Scene painters nowadays vie with the impressionistic school of landscape artists in their efforts to turn out new and bizarre effects, and the "Show of Wonders" is quite the most "advanced" production in this respect that the Winter Garden has ever turned out. The scenes range from pastoral views, in which mysterious rites are performed, to the sound of weird instruments. The sartorial equipment runs from Eve's adden day one with the heater to see thrilling went to the theater to see thrilling went to the theater to see the inventions with the serion with the serion of wonders," where hey are raised to the Nth degree. "Over the Top" is the name of the new Winters Garden sensation, and it is a sizzler, for it shows the demolishing of a German front line trench by a Yankee flotilla.

Plenty of variety is to be found on

Plenty of variety is to be found on the vaudeville program at the Majestic the early half of this At the week. The headliner is Majestic "Rocky Pass," a lively offering that contains comedy, singing, dancing and roping. The act is presented by a sextet of clever entertainers dressed as cowboys and cowgirls, and the stage settings is very beautiful. It shows a mountain valley with its waterfalls and stream, and with the ranch house nestling in a clump of trees at the foot of the valley. A good show is booked around this attraction and includes: Harry Breen, "nut" comedian, who is an excellent tonic for the blues; Mr., and Mrs. Mel Burne, presenting their enjoyable little comedy sketch; Sidney and Townley, in songs, comedy and eccentric dances, all of which are good, and Lamb's Manikins.

For the remaining three days of the week the bill will consist of Maryon Vadie and Ota Gygi, in a high-class dancing and instrumental musical offering; Orth and Cody, in a bright
