Air Raids Put All Paris on the Same Level-in Cellars

The Paris correspondent of the talian Tribuna gives an interesting situation of life in Paris during an air raid, in which he shows how the French have adapted themselves to the new conditions.

MIDDLETOWN

Mass Meeting of Workmen

A mass meeting of the employes of the Wells Construction Company at work on the new buildings for the government was held in the mess hall of the aviation depot yesterday at noon. Eight hundred men who are employed by the firm attended the meeting held for the purpose of selling Liberty Bonds, Major William H. Garrison, Jr., commanding officer of the aviation depot was the principal speaker and gave a very fine talk to the men on the sale of the Liberty Bonds. George I. King, of town, also talked. The Liberty Band was present and rendered several selections. It is estimated that fully $30,000 will be subscribed to Liberty loan.

The Boy Scouts held a meeting in the Methodist Episcopal Church last evening and made plans for an ice cream social in the markethouse in Emaus street on Saturday evening, May 11.

Funeral services for George Hemperly, Jr., of Royalton, were held in the St. Mary's Catholic Church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. The Rev. Jules Foin conducting the services. The pallbearers were Kenneih Hickerneil, John Neagle, Albert Horning, Russel Burger, Jacob Haas and Harold Brobst. Burial was made in the Catholic Cemetery in East Main street.

Dr. C. E. Bowers and wife, of town, and Miss Rosie Bowers, of Harrisburg, left yesterday for Phila-delphia where they attended the funeral of Miss Kathryn Feidler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William

NEWS OF WEST SHORE

Burgess Hoon Issues Notice Personal and Social Items Banning Fireworks July 4 of Towns Along West Shore

West Fairview, Pa., May 2.—Believing in preparedness, Burgess B. C. Hoon has issued orders prohibiting the sale and use of fireworks in the borough in celebration of July 4. Notices which have been posted read: "The use of guns or other fire arms, squibs, rockets and fire works of all descriptions within the borough limits of the borough of West Fairview in celebration of July 4 is prohibited. The violators of this law will be subject to a heavy fine." This town for a long time has been "wide open" in the celebration of this holiday, the burgess declares, and that he has taken this step to avert trouble this year. Store proprietors have been notified about selling fireworks.

CLEAN-UP AT WEST FAIRVIEW West Fairview, Pa., May 2.—This borough will observe "clean-up" week from May 14 to May 18, it was announced by officers of the Board of Health this morning, Final arrangements will be made at a meeting of the board of health next week. Residents of the town have been requested to remove all refuse from yards and vacant lots; white wash fences and cellars and make a general renovation of their properties.

RECOMMENDS FRENCH STUDY Camp Hill, Pa., May 2.—Recommendation that the French language be substituted for the German tongue in the High school course next year will be made by Professor Fred V. Rockey, principal of the local school. During the year the few students who studied German protested against it to such an extent that Professor Rockey believes this branch should be taken from the course. The study is not elective, but assigned to the course by action of the board.

New Propositions For Town

Carlisle, Pa., May 2.—Arrangements have been completed for a big meeting of Carlisle businessmen here this evening to make plans for the raising of a special industrial fund of $100,000, the amount to be subscribed by members and subject to call by the directorate of the body. This amount will be used to finance new industrial propositions for the town, amounts being advanced between the loans made by banks and the value of the buildings which it is proposed to erect for new industries. Several concerns may be brought to the town at an early date if the fund is raised, officials says.
