EMERGENCY AID BENEFITS $350

Pleasing Concert Last Evening, With Miss Sultzberger Making Debut

The Emergency Aid benefit recital given at the Orpheum last evening by Miss Marietta Sultzberger, pianist, assisted by Mrs. Mabel Hess Drumm, soprano, was a successful success, both from an artistic standpoint and from the enthusiastic appreciation shown by the very large and critical audience.

Rare, indeed, is the combination of maturity and youth as shown by Miss Sultzberger, for, though still in her teens, yet, in comprehensive grasp of the various authors' intent and earnestness portrayed in the dignified allegro movement through the difficult, graceful scherzo, and the brilliant presto, with its opening number, of the massive, magnificent Liszt "Sixth Rhapsody"---the fitting closing number---the youthful artist displayed not only poise and sureness, but exceptional adaptation to a program of such marked versatility.

Where there is so much of merit it is somewhat difficult to individualize as to numbers, but the delicacy and earnestness portrayed in the playing of the beautiful Rubinstein "Kammenoi-Ostrov" with its exquisite flowing melodies, surely demands special mention. Also the masterful handling of the "B Minor Scherzo" of Chopin; here Miss Sultzberger brought out the emotional content and beautiful bell-like tones of the middle part in wonderful style. Paderewski's "Cracovienne," sprightly and gay with sunshine, was played with exquisite daintiness and feeling. It was in the great Liszt "Sixth Rhapsody" however, that the climax was reached. It is really a mooted question whether this particular rhapsody has ever before been attempted in public in this form by a young pianist as fresh apparently as at the beginning. At any rate, the virility and vigor displayed in its rendition was remarkable, particularly in the wonderful octavo passages, where flexibility and strength of wrist were combined with extreme delicacy of touch. And in the final great burst of thunderous melody the young artist finished the heavy program as fresh apparently as at the beginning. The entire program was given from memory, a stupendous task in itself, which deserves special commendation. And credit for all this splendid development of talent in Miss Sultzberger belongs wholly to her teacher, Miss Laura Appell, who surely has reason to take great pride in such an achievement as the making of an artist of such unusual promise. Former Resident Sings. Hosts of old friends were in the audience last evening to welcome Mrs. Mabel Hess Drumm, of York, the assisting artist, who was formerly a resident of this city. Her glorious soprano voice and the theater and her delightful numbers, "Angel Land," Pinsuti; "The Little Gray Dove," Saar, and "An Open Secret," Woodman, made up a charming group of sufficient variety to show her interpretation. The audience was thrilled with the sacred songs, "The Lord is My Light," Altitzen, and "I Will Extol Thee," Costa, songs which she which have given Mrs. Drumm her reputation as a singer of more than ordinary ability. Graciously responding to encores, she sang magnificently "The Star Spangled Banner" and "God Bless Our Splendid Men" bringing the tears to the eyes of many. Miss Esther Pitt, of York, an able accompanist, did much to assure the success of the songs. Both artist and Miss Appell were deluged with flowers from a host of admirers. This morning Miss Appell announced that the receipts turned over to the Emergency Aid of Camp Hill will go over $350.

OPEN AIR SCHOOL IN CELEBRATION

Susquehanna Pupils Enthusiastic Over Their Song and Treat This Afternoon

The bright sunshine brought out a large gathering of patrons and friends of the Susquehanna Open Air school this afternoon for a special celebration held at their building, Fifth and Mahantong streets. Miss Marian Williams, the superintendent presided and the program included the singing of "America," and "Pennsylvania," pledging allegiance to the flag; "Farmer Song"; "Declaration of Independence"; violin solo, Meida Potts; "Columbus"; "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean"; "Love's Old Sweet Song"; talk by Miss Amelia Durbin; French airs on the piano, Carl Stadelmann. In the community singing led by Miss Sallie Hollerman, "Your Old Uncle Sam," Professor J. J. Brohm, was featured and lustily sung by the entire audience, and souvenir copies of the song printed in blue with a border of tiny flags were given to all. Professor Brohm made a brief patriotic address and everyone sang heartily "The Star Spangled Banner" in closing. Refreshments were served afterward.

Cy Heckert Writes Letter of Thanks For Helmet

Another letter of thanks from one of the Harrisburg boys at Camp Hancock has just been received by Mrs. Mira Atticks, 1292 North Front street. The boys are always especially delighted when they receive anything from their own home town as the following, January 2, 1918. Dear Mrs. Atticks: I have just been the recipient of the most wonderful knitted helmet. I am proud of the fact that it comes from Harrisburg and I being a Harrisburg boy will naturally appreciate it all the more. I am sure to want to thank you for your kindness and I assure you it will be worn to the best advantage as the South Carolina boys at Camp Hancock think it is. Can't you life so far has been very pleasant. I have enjoyed most everything that is to be seen or had at Camp Hancock so I have very little to kick about. In fact, very few of the boys are complaining other than with a little cold. I again want to thank you for your time you gave for the helmet and I assure you when I return to Harrisburg I will surely make a call on Mrs. Atticks. I am, Yours sincerely, C. H. HECKERT, Camp Quartermaster, Camp Hancock, Augusta, Ga.

REGISTER YOUR GLASSES WITH ME

If you have a pair of eye glasses that you are very much pleased with, it will be to your advantage to bring them to me and let me copy the prescription and place it on file in my office. You never know when you are going to break or lose glasses. If you were fitted in some other town or city, you would have trouble and delay in getting another pair like them. If the party who fitted you should happen to die or go out of business you might not be able to get another pair to match them. If you will bring your glasses to me, I will measure them and write a prescription from which I can duplicate them on short notice anytime. I have instruments with which I can do this with absolute accuracy. I make no charge for this service whatever. C. S. Schaeff OPTOMETRIST 12 N. MARKET SQUARE, Second Floor, Front.
