Nation Is to Get Daily War Summary From Front

By Associated Press Washington, May 6.—The War Department's weekly review of the military situation has been abandoned and announcement of Secretary Baker's new plan for furnishing the nation with adequate and authentic news of American troops in France is expected shortly.

In making known its intention to In making known its intention to abandon the report, the War Department explained last night that the new publicity policy was nearing completion, but did not indicate the form the communiques would take. It is believed, however, an official daily summary dealing almost exclusively with the activities of American troops will be given out.

Woman Sees Fleeing Milk Thief, Neighbor

Milk thieves have been operating in the vicinity of Herr and James streets, it is alleged. This morning while a woman who has been the victim of the thief, was watching from the front window ,she saw a man take the bottle of milk from the porch and flee up the street. The woman followed him and saw him enter a residence not far from her home. The thefts, it is understood, will be reported to the city police.

Monster Parade For Dry State Is Now Planned

A monster street parade of all the Bible classes of the city and others working with the Dauphin Ratification committee is one of the tentative plans of the committee to stimulate interest in the candidates favoring prohibition so that they will be nominated at the primaries.

It has been decided that after the primaries if all the candidates endorsed by the committee are not nominated the committee will concentrate its efforts upon those who are.

Sturmpanzerkraftwagen,' Meaning German Tank

Paris, May 6.—The war correspondent at the front for the Temps writes:

"Some one asked me recently what the Germans called their 'tanks.' I was compelled to confess ignorance. A document found since, however, shows that the German for tank is 'Sturmpanzerkraftwagen.'"

CHURCH TO AID RED CROSS CHURCH TO AID RED CROSS

An appeal to the members of his church to join the Pine Street Red Cross auxiliary was made by the Rev. Dr. Lewis Seymour Mudge at the services last night. There are at present 250 active members, but the Harrisburg Chapter has asked the Pine Street Chapter to furnish 1,000 front line packets each month, and more workers are needed. Women will be enrolled until Friday night.
