AUTHORS CLUB CLOSSES SEASON

Program of "Pennsylvania in the Making" Is Completed With Illustrated Lecture

The Author's Club completed a year's study of "Pennsylvania in the Making" and its twenty-second year of work with a social meeting Saturday evening at Breeze Hill, Bellevue Park, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Horace McFarland. Mr. McFarland gave an illustrated lecture on "Picturesque Pennsylvania" which was a delight to everyone, a fitting culmination of the subject for the year. Later in the evening refreshments were served to members and their guests in the dining room profusely decorated with spring flowers. Officers newly-elected for the club include: President, Miss Mary C. Orth; vice-presidents, Mrs. J. E. Garner and Mrs. M. H. Thomas; secretary, Mrs. Edward L. Rinkenbach; treasurer, Miss Anna V. Crowl. The membership list follows: Mrs. J. Thornton Baisley, Mrs. Harry Nelson Bassler, Miss Anna V. Crowl, Mrs. Charles C. Dubbs, Mrs. Maurice E. Finney, Mrs. J. E. Garner, Miss M. Lyle George, Mrs. Frank A. Gibson, Miss Fannie L. Johnson, Mrs. Joseph Kalbfus, Mrs. J. Horace McFarland, Mrs. Herman P. Miller, Mrs. Lewis M. Neiffer, Mrs. Howard R. Omwake, Miss Carrie L. Neighborhood Club Hears of Nietzsche Philosophy

One of the most interesting events of the past week was a meeting of the Neighborhood Club with Miss Amelie C. Durbin, 717 North Sixth street. Twenty people, broad of intellect and understanding, had the pleasure of listening to a masterly discussion of the philosophy of Nietzsche, the Prophet of the "Mailed Fist," by the Rev. Dr. J. Bradley Markward, of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church. Dr. Markward's presentation of the theory of the Super-man was intensely interesting, and at the close the Rev. Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson expressed the interest and thanks of the men and women present for the able talk. Refreshments and the singing of patriotic songs closed the evening's pleasure. Walter T. Thackara and son, William K. Thackara, of Cleveland, Ohio, are in town for a little visit among relatives in this vicinity. Mrs. Adeline W. Barnes, Pittsburgh, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Pollock, of Carnegie, are spending some time with friends in Harrisburg. John S. Musser and Andrew Musser are enjoying a trip to New York and vicinity. Other Personals Page 8

SOLDIER WEDS WHILE HOME ON FURLOUGH

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE L. SCHUTT

Quiet Wedding for Mrs. Beck

George E. Schutt and Helen M. Beck are married Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. L. Beck, of Enola, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Helen M. Beck, to George E. Schutt, also of that place. The wedding took place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the parsonage of the Lutheran Church of Enola, with the Rev. M. S. Sharp, pastor of the church, officiating. There were no attendants. Mrs. M. S. Sharp, the wife of the minister, was the only witness present. The bride wore a dusky brown gown oforgette with hat of millan to match.

Private Schutt, who is at present attached to the First Provisional depot for corps and Army troop located at Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, South Carolina, enlisted in the military service May 12, 1917, as a member of the Eighth Regiment band with the Headquarters Company of the Eighth Regiment. Prior to his removal to Camp Wadsworth two months ago he was stationed with the One Hundred and Ninth Machine Gun Battalion at Camp Hancock, Ga.

Private Schutt returned to Camp Wadsworth late last night after a six days' furlough spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert O. Schutt, of Enola, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Schutt, of 12 North Fifteenth street, this city. Mrs. Schutt will make her home with her mother during her husband's absence in war.

Some Interesting News of the Colonial Club

The Saturday night dance at the Colonial Country Club was well attended with about twenty-five couples on the floor. Lunch was served at the intermission period. Next Saturday night the 11th will be the last of the informal dances this season and many club members are expected to attend. Card night will be on Tuesday, May 14. Members are asked to be on hand promptly at 8:30 as the card playing will be started at 8:45. Grover L. Cullmery and L. Frank Bass make up the subcommittee of the entertainment committee who will have charge of the card parties for the coming 1918-1919 season. Prizes will be given.

The entertainment committee, M. White Allen, chairman, announces that club night this month will be held on Thursday, May 30. The program for the day and evening will be announced later.

WEST FAIRVIEW WEDDING The marriage of Miss Bessie M. Hartzell, of West Fairview, to Lester R. Jones, of Carlisle, took place at the home of the bride, Saturday evening, May 4, at 8 o'clock, with the Rev. Harry M. Buck, pastor of the Grace U. E. Church, of Enola, officiating. Only the immediate families were in attendance and after the service a supper was served. Both young people are popular and Mr. Jones is connected with the Harrisburg Trust Company.

Can You Read This Advertisement Easily

Do the letters and words in this advertisement seem clear and distinct, or do you have to move the paper or your head a little to make the print come right? Perhaps you have to have a stronger light? There is no need for worry. Either your eyes are tired and merely need simple rest glasses for a while or maybe the vision is changing a bit as it does about every seven years with most people. In either case the condition will grow worse unless your eyes have proper attention. In such cases I make a thorough examination and fit the patient with glasses that will correct the trouble at once.
