Dainty Billie Burke was seen to splendid advantage in her latest photo-comedy, "Let's Get a Divorce," which was displayed at the Regent Theater yesterday. It will be shown again to-day.

Patrons said that Miss Burke depicts in delightful fashion the romance of Cyrienne Marvey, a girl in a convent, whose romantic nature finds expression in numerous harmless flirtations. She wedded, becomes dissatisfied, demands a divorce, which she later refuses to accept and finally discovers the error of her ways and a reconciliation with her husband follows.

To-morrow only, charming Mary Miles Minter will appear in her latest success, "A Bit of Jade." A pretty girl found a necklace in her brother's overcoat pocket. She lost it on a midnight lark. The man who found it recognized her as the girl he saw in the cafe on the day he had lost it.

An interesting fact about the photo-drama, "An Alien Enemy," in which Louise Glaum makes her debut as star in Paralta Play's, and which will be shown at the Victoria Theater for the last time to-day, is that the story opens in Berlin, Germany, but later the locale, featuring practically the same characters, is moved to the United States, and at the end of the picture, through the development of the plot, the scenes are laid in France, still with the same people enacting the principal roles. The atmosphere of all the scenes and the local color in the production are exquisite and give an air of realism that makes the picture effective and impressive. Miss Glaum appears to advantage in the role of Neysa Von Igel, an American-born but German-bred girl, who is sent to America as a member of the Central Powers' Intelligent Department. The picture was written especially for Miss Glaum by the Paralta staff author, Monte M. Katterjohn, and was staged under the direction of Wallace Worley.

Audiences yesterday welcomed this picture most cordially and greeted Louise Glaum in her debut with Paralta. As all of the predecessors made by this company, this production is of an extraordinary caliber. Harrisburg theatergoers feel that a Paralta Play is always one which cannot be missed.
