CARL BECK STAR AT TRACKMEET

His Skill Gives Tech Sophomores Victory in Island Park Games

In the first of the series of daily inter-class track meets held by the classes of the Technical High school on the island, the Sophomores landed high honors with 360 points.

Four events were run off, including the 100-yard dash, one-mile run, low hurdles and shot put. The finals were:

100-Yard Dash—Carl Beck, Mallick, Wilsbach and Allen. Time, 10 2-5 seconds.

Events will be run off the first four days of this week, and the total will be taken to the smallest of the winner of the meet.

Lightweights Battle; Honors Even at Finish

Frankie Callahan, of Brooklyn, and George Chaney, of Baltimore, two rugged, hard-hitting lightweights, fought for supremacy in Philadelphia, last night.

In the opening bout Frankie Cline defeated Jack Nelson, whose seconds were forced to throw the sponge into the ring in the fifth round.

Frankie Williams handed out a lacing to Johnny Duff, of Hoboken, in the second engagement. Duff started off well but was unable to face him and he won by a good margin.

Baseball Manager Is Suicide in Chicago

Chicago, May 7.—"Ned" Egan, formerly manager of the Milwaukee baseball club, of the American Association, was found shot dead with a pistol at his side in a downtown hotel late last night.

Egan registered as E. F. Egan, of St. Paul, on Saturday. He was not seen afterward around the hotel. Late last night when he failed to answer repeated knocks upon his door, the room was broken into and the body found, fully clothed, with a bullet hole through the temple.

AROUND THE BASES

"McGraw has gathered up a wonderful ball club," says Pat Moran, of the Phillies. "The old Cubs under Chance were a wonderful combination. I know, for I was a silent member of that array, and I had plenty of time to size 'em up and get a real line on their ability."

The eight red and blue ar blades of Pennsylvania's sturdy crewed at the Quaker shell over the mirrored surface of Lake Carnegie so fast that the Princeton and Columbia crews were left far in the rear, and in the last flashes of the glowing sunset

Eddie Collins, captain of the Chicago American baseball team, has established a record by playing in 478 consecutive games. His first miss since 1914 was in yesterday's lineup at Detroit.

Ralph Mulford, the "smiling devil" racing driver, has entered the Liberty Sweepstakes, the feature event of the American opening meet at the Uniontown speedway.

The first baseball game ever played in Spain took place on April 30 between a Spanish and an American team, which resulted in the defeat of the Americans, 22 to 12.

Mathewson remains the championship checker player of the big leagues. Ty Cobb, who never met him at the game, had his chance the other day and was willing to bet he could wallop Matty; he had trimmed everybody on the Detroit team.

Fred Plum, a druggist from Atlantic City, known among trapshooters as the "Jersey Peach" was the thirteenth annual amateur trapshooting champion of the United States at the Travers Island traps of the New York Athletic Club.

"Baseball Relief For Business Worry," Says League Head, at Opening

Auburn, N. Y., May 7.—President John H. Farrell, of the New International League, announced last night that everything is in readiness for the opening of the season Wednesday in Baltimore, Newark, Jersey City and Binghamton.

The following officials were named as umpires: At Baltimore, Johnson; at Newark, O'Brien and Pfriman; at Jersey City, Westervelt; at Binghamton, Lewis; at Buffalo, Westervelt; at Rochester, Johnson and Pfriman; at Toronto, Lewis; at Syracuse, O'Brien.

In a statement given out last night President Farrell said: "The continuance of a limited number of leagues is encouraged by the officials of both the Army and Navy, as a means of relieving the public mind from brooding over the big business at hand, in achieving a speedy victory.

More than 250 members, with their wives and friends, attended a banquet of the Knights of Columbus, held at the Elks' Clubrooms, last night. The affair was held following the initiation of several candidates. Special music was given.

Dr. Howard always recommended Oxidaze for Coughs, Colds, Br. Asthma. Years of study and observation convinced him it would astely, quickly and surely stop a bad cough and give instant relief in Bronchial Asthma.
